Rapid Ticker For Mining Exchange
(Special to the Guardian)
MONTREAL, Que., Feb. 6.—Quotations from the Toronto mining exchange will be given in several Montreal offices today by an ultra rapid ticker service just installed by the Canadian National telegraphs. These tickers have a speed of 500 characters per minute, about five times the speed attained by a skilled stenographer operating an ordinary typewriter. The installations are the result of increased activity in the mining exchange.

The Major: "And there we stood, Miss Ethel, in the heart of the jungle, that huge panther and I, barely ten paces apart, each staring at the face of the other."
Ethel: "Oh, Major, how perfectly dreadful of you both!"

A NEW MYSTERY CAKE . . . another $1000.00

First Prize $250 • Second Prize $100 • Third Prize $50 • 60 Prizes of $10 each

Find a name for Miss Ethel Chapman's MAGIC MYSTERY CAKE

MISS ETHEL CHAPMAN, well-known cookery authority of the Ontario Farmer, says: "My advice to all housewives is to Use Magic Baking Powder. Then there is no uncertainty about your baking." Canadian home makers will do well to follow Miss Chapman's advice. It is always practical.

Here's Miss Chapman's Recipe. Can you name it?

1/4 cup butter
1 cup fine granulated sugar
1/4 cup boiling water
2 squares unsweetened chocolate
Yolks of 2 eggs—white of 1 egg

1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup pastry flour or 1 cup bread flour
2 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon vanilla

Sift together three times the flour, Magic Baking Powder and salt. Beat egg yolks and 1 white (leaving 1 white for frosting). Put butter into mixing bowl, add sugar; pour boiling water on the shaved chocolate, stir quickly, and when melted add to batter mixture; add beaten eggs, then dry ingredients alternately with milk, add vanilla; beat all together. Pour into a greased cake tin and bake in moderate oven.

FROSTING: Boil 1 cup sugar and 1/2 cup boiling water together without stirring until syrup threads when dropped from tip of spoon. Beat white of 1 egg stiff. Pour syrup gradually on beaten egg, beating constantly until of consistency to spread. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla (or 1/2 tablespoon lemon juice) and spread over cake. Sprinkle 1/2 cup broken walnut meats or almonds, blanched and split, on top.

If marshmallows are preferred in frosting, stir 3 into the hot syrup just before pouring into beaten egg white. Beat to a smooth fluff, allow it to "set" for a few minutes, then spread on cake. Nut meats are not used with the marshmallow icing.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. FRANCIS MCAUVILLE

It was with feelings of deep sorrow that the very many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Francis McAuville, in Emerald, Preetown, New- ton, Kinkora and surrounding districts heard of his death, which sad event took place at his home in Emerald on Dec. 8th last, the feast of the Immaculate Conception, at the age of seventy-two years. The late Mr. McAuville suffered a long and painful illness and notwithstanding skilled medical attention and kind and attentive nursing, his once strong and rugged constitution was unable to withstand the ravages of the disease and he resignedly gave up his soul to God, whom he served so faithfully during his life as a true son of the Holy Catholic Church. He was frequently visited during his illness by his pastor, Rev. Francis McDonald, of Summerfield, and had the great happiness which every Catholic so ardently desires of receiving the Sacrament of Extreme Unction some time before his death. He also had the consolation of receiving a visit from the Rev. George Bradley, S.J., who happened to be on the Island giving a retreat. The late Mr. McAuville was a splendid type of citizen, honest and upright in all his dealings and by his industry, good judgment and hard work, he not only succeeded in building a very comfortable home for himself and family, but also settling all his sons on good comfortable farms not far from his own home. He was a good and obliging neighbor and kind friend and will be very much missed in and around Emerald, where he was ever ready to assist in any good cause for the benefit of his neighbors or the community, but especially will be missed in his home by his wife and family, for he was a kind and loving husband and father. A very large number of his friends, neighbors and acquaintances visited his mortal remains lying peacefully in the casket and attended his funeral, offering their tribute of respect to the deceased and their prayers for the repose of his soul.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, who tenderly nursed him during his long illness and the following sons and daughters: Alphonsus, in South Preetown; Russell, in Preetown; Wilbert and Earl in Emerald and

MRS. DANIEL McDONALD

Mrs. Daniel McDonald, whose maiden name was Catherine McLeod, left these earthly scenes at her home, Caledonia, January 15, 1933, aged 72 years. Born and raised in Glen Martin, she spent her married life and reared her large family on the second next farm to the one on which she first saw the light of day.

Mrs. McDonald may be described as of a quiet, noble and patient disposition. In her life time she was called on to fight two big battles, and by the grace of God in each she won—those of the soul; and of circumstances or earthly lot, at the hands of her gracious Heavenly Father. It seems to us as if her life was an expression of Paul's words: "I know Whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day." Again, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished by course, I have kept the faith." An invalid, bedfast husband for 19 years, the care of eight young children, the youngest only 1 year old when the husband was disabled, and the care of a farm, was the second great battle. To the husband and children, she gave herself in utter and constant devotion. The husband, an outstanding Christian soul was taken home over 12 years ago. To the writer, in referring to him in the course of one of his pastoral visits, and the hardships through which she must have passed nursing him, she gave this wonderful answer: "I would gladly go through it again." Her family before whom she set the example of a godly and loving mother, she raised to positions of trust and respect, are left to mourn, and are as follows: Roderick and Frank, in Boston; Angus, on the old farm at home; five daughters, Mrs. Effie Margaret Nicholson, B.C.; Mrs. Lexine McKinnon, Kinkross; the Misses Marie, Catherine and Jessie, who were home from Boston at the time of their mother's death, Miss Marie the last six weeks, the duration of her mother's last illness, nursing her beloved mother with devotion similar to that which she saw her mother bestow upon her husband and her children in her time.

Of a healthy and strong constitution with which in her time she was called on to work long and arduous, she sank fast into very feeble health, especially the last four years of her life. These years she occupied in calm, serene waiting and thinking and as if seeing Him, who is invisible. Seldom did we see or meet one who seemed to more thoroughly enjoy pastoral visitation and quiet private reading and meditation on the word of God.

The services at the home, the Church and the grave in Caledonia Cemetery were conducted by her Minister, the Rev. Allister Murray.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Hugh McKinnon, Jack McLeod, George McLean, D. L. McPherson, Allec Morrison and Norman Gillis. To the bereaved family, to whom the loss of such a noble and godly mother must be real and deep, we extend our heartfelt sympathy. (Patriot please copy)
