

The Public Forum

This column is open for the discussion by correspondents of questions of interest. The editor does not necessarily endorse the opinions of correspondents.

THE RED CROSS

Editor Guardian. Sir—The splendid work of the Canadian Red Cross in the Great War will be readily recalled. In the thick of the fight, behind the lines, in cities that had been swept by fire in rural districts devastated by contending armies, wherever there was suffering from wounds, disease or famine, the Red Cross prosecuted its work of mercy. And after the coming of peace the same devoted spirit continued to animate the Red Cross as it impel it to mighty works of beneficence. "Peace hath her victories, not less renowned than war," and the peace-time triumphs of the Red Cross are as varied, as heroic and as fruitful in service to suffering humanity as those which called forth the world's admiration and gratitude in the days of the great conflict.

In every province the Red Cross work is an obligation assumed by our country as a member of the League of Nations. Article 25 of the Covenant of the League declares: "The members of the League agree to encourage and promote the establishment and co-operation of duly authorized voluntary national Red Cross organizations, having as their purpose the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering throughout the world."

The Canadian Red Cross has already a fine record of achievement in "the improvement of health, the mitigation of disease and the prevention of suffering." In every province the Red Cross service is prosecuted with great energy and intelligence. In our own province of Prince Edward Island the Red Cross is splendidly executing its commission. Its nursing and official staffs have taken an active part in all the forward humanitarian movements of recent years. They have brought the benefits of the most modern surgical and corrective treatment to crippled and deformed children. They have been leaders in the fight against tuberculosis. The nurses have made hundreds of home visits and given instruction in the care of infants and the sick.

In the schools they have carried on a work whose value is beyond all computation. Unsuspected defects have been brought to light and corrected. Parents have been influenced to secure needed treatment for their children, and where they lacked the means, the Red Cross has in many cases sought out and found a way to help them. The co-operation of doctors, dentists and specialists has been enlisted. The Red Cross nurses have been indefatigable in warning, counselling and teaching; and it is not too much to say that through their labours hundreds of young lives have been rescued from impaired efficiency, suffering and premature death. In the Junior Red Cross Societies organized in our schools, children are trained not only in habits of health but in practical good deeds and service to others. Our Junior Red Cross children have made voluntary contributions of money for procuring hospital treatment, and eyeglasses, braces and other appliances for needy defective children, and have been instructed to earn the money so given by their own exertions. Thus, not content with mending defective bodies, the Red Cross is reaching down to the springs of action and building humanitarian principles into the character of our future citizenry.

Such a movement such an organization, deserves well of our people. Every man and woman who feels a desire to promote "the improvement of health, the prevention of disease, and the mitigation of suffering" should be a member and supporter of the Red Cross. It is hoped that the people of Charlottetown and vicinity will fill St. Paul's Parish Hall on Tuesday evening next, when the annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society will be held there. Col. J. L. Biggar, M.D., the National Commissioner of the Society, and Dr. Creelman, our Provincial Health Officer, will deliver addresses; reports will be submitted and officers elected for the ensuing year. I am, Sir, etc., R. H. ROGERS, Member Red Cross Executive.

SAY BUTTER EXPORTS ARE FALLING OFF

The average consumption of butter per capita in Canada is nearly 30 pounds a year, about 10 pounds per person greater than the consumption in the United States, it was revealed at the annual convention of the Canadian Produce Association yesterday. The amount of butter exported from Canada is practically nil, while it is estimated that the imported butter from New Zealand for the six months from October, 1928, to April, 1929, would amount to half a million cases, or 20,000,000 pounds. There was a decided increase in the exportation of cheese, it was reported. One million one hundred and sixty-three boxes of cheese were exported to Great Britain last year, as compared to 995,000 the previous year, an increase of 168,000 boxes. A great deal of the session was occupied with a discussion of the problems of egg marketing. While the season has been unprofitable for the dealer, it has been highly profitable for the egg producers, the consumers having risen from 28.06 dozen per capita per annum to 29.67 dozen.

MACNEILL—At Brackley on Monday January 20th Uric Zwingle MacNeill aged 75 years. Funeral at West Covehead Church on Tuesday January 22nd, 1929.

ROONEY—Died at her residence, Southport, Jan. 19. Mrs. John Rooney aged 77 years. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from M. Hennessey's Parlors at one o'clock to Fort Augustus for interment.

MCISAAC—At the P. E. Island Hospital on Jan. 19. Alexander McIsaac, aged 85 years. The remains will be forwarded from M. Hennessey's Parlors this afternoon by rail to Iona for interment.

BEATON—In this city, Jan. 19. Esther Beaton, aged 87 years. The funeral will be held from M. Hennessey's Parlors this morning to her home in West Devon.

BUSHEY—At the City Hospital Jan. 20. Mrs. Catherine Bushey, aged 90 years. The funeral will take place from M. Hennessey's Parlors this morning at 8.45 to St. Dunstan's Cathedral thence to St. C. Cemetery.

WRIGHT—At Middleton on Saturday, Jan. 19th, Annie Wright, widow of the late Alpheus Wright, Funeral Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

CORCORAN—Died in this city, Jan. 20th, John Corcoran, aged 80 years. Funeral from his late residence, 29 Spring Park Road Tuesday at 9.45 a. m. to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

SQUIRES, MACKENZIE KING CONFER, BUT NO COMMENT

OTTAWA, Jan. 19.—Sir Richard Squires, premier of Newfoundland had a lengthy conference with Premier Mackenzie King here today. At the conclusion Sir Richard declined to comment as to what had been discussed at the conference. He was accompanied by Henry W. Lemessurier, C. M. G., the veteran deputy minister of customs for Newfoundland.

The State of Paraná, Brazil, will construct a large hydroelectric plant. A bridge to be constructed in Vancouver, B. C., will cost $3,180,000.

BIRTHS

WATTS—At York, Dec. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. William Watts, a daughter.

DEATHS

MITCHELL—At St. Avards, on Sunday, Jan. 20, Mrs. Hannah Mitchell, aged 91 years. Remains at MacLean Funeral Home. Funeral notice later.

GILLESPIE—Entered into rest at the Charlottetown Hospital Sunday January 20th. William George Gillespie in his 71st year. Funeral leaving the home of his daughter Mrs. C. S. Draw, 24 Water St., on Tuesday January 22nd at 1.15 for St. Paul's Church for service at 2.30.

SENTNER—At Charlottetown on Saturday January 19th. George Sentner of Loyalist. Remains going from the MacLean Funeral Home at noon today to St. John's Church Milton, where the funeral will take place at 1 o'clock. Interment Milton Cemetery.

HODGSON—At the P. E. I. Hospital on Sunday January 20th, 1929 Eliza Jane Hodgson widow of the late J. W. Hodgson. Remains at the MacLean Funeral Home. Funeral will be held from Trinity United Church. Notice later.

ENMAN—At 19 Park Street on Saturday January 19th Raymond Enman aged 27 years. Funeral from the MacLean Funeral Home this (Monday) afternoon service starting at 3 o'clock. Interment People's Cemetery.

MACNEILL—At Brackley on Monday January 20th Uric Zwingle MacNeill aged 75 years. Funeral at West Covehead Church on Tuesday January 22nd, 1929.

ROONEY—Died at her residence, Southport, Jan. 19. Mrs. John Rooney aged 77 years. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from M. Hennessey's Parlors at one o'clock to Fort Augustus for interment.

MCISAAC—At the P. E. Island Hospital on Jan. 19. Alexander McIsaac, aged 85 years. The remains will be forwarded from M. Hennessey's Parlors this afternoon by rail to Iona for interment.

BEATON—In this city, Jan. 19. Esther Beaton, aged 87 years. The funeral will be held from M. Hennessey's Parlors this morning to her home in West Devon.

BUSHEY—At the City Hospital Jan. 20. Mrs. Catherine Bushey, aged 90 years. The funeral will take place from M. Hennessey's Parlors this morning at 8.45 to St. Dunstan's Cathedral thence to St. C. Cemetery.

WRIGHT—At Middleton on Saturday, Jan. 19th, Annie Wright, widow of the late Alpheus Wright, Funeral Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

CORCORAN—Died in this city, Jan. 20th, John Corcoran, aged 80 years. Funeral from his late residence, 29 Spring Park Road Tuesday at 9.45 a. m. to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

2 for 1 COUPON 6761 KING EDWARD THEATRE Monday, Jan. 21 This Coupon and one 50c Ticket will entitle you to two 50c Seats. All other seats on date. Charlottetown - Follies to go somewhat to the north of the direct route to Charlottetown. He sighted Summerside, and landed on harbor off the town at 3.40, where a stay of 20 minutes was made. The aviator first circled the town to pick out a suitable landing place, and was seen to land by many of the Summerside people.

Mail Service

(Continued from page 1)

At 4 p. m. he took off, and arrived in Charlottetown at 4.30 after great trouble with snow flurries, in some of which the airman could see no more than 300 yards ahead of him. After circling over Charlottetown, he landed on the harbor ice off the railway wharf and taxied over to the ice between Pickard's wharf and Pownall wharf where the plane was moored for the night. A fair number of people witnessed the arrival of the plane.

The airplane the same morning which made the trip here this summer in charge of Capt. Tudhope. She is a 220 h.p. Wright whirlwind engine Pitcairn mail wing biplane. She can make 100 miles per hour as her cruising speed and in a pinch can do 120.

College Extension Course Closing

Saturday afternoon and evening was occupied with the closing exercises of the College Extension Courses, being held all of last week in the Central Christian Church, Charlottetown. In spite of the wide prevalence of flu and the inclemency of the weather through much of the week the school was a decided success both from the standpoint of attendance and interest. The total registrations were thirty-five, seven were from the religious groups. Six courses were taught covering studies in religion and religious methods. In these courses the total class enrollments were 69. In addition several others "sat in" as listeners each night. Twenty of the students received the Recognition Certificates which represented credits in a total number of forty five courses.

Saturday evening was occupied first with a supper for the students of the school and members of the staff remaining over. This supper was very graciously served by the ladies of the church for which the Principal, on behalf of the College, thanked them very cordially. Some time was spent around the table in a happy sing song. This was followed by a statement presented by the Principal, Dr. Macdougall. He referred to the earnestness with which the students gave themselves to the studies, some even taking as many as four courses. An opportunity was given to the students at this time to evaluate the courses. This was requested by the staff of the school in order to give them guidance in setting up their courses of studies for similar work in the future. At this juncture an unexpected feature was introduced when Major Mackay came forward and presented to Dr. Macdougall and Prof. L. W. Shaw, whose valuable assistance in the school was deeply appreciated by the large class which the latter had, a beautiful umbrella which was given to the former and a fountain pen desk set to the latter.

At the conclusion of this part of the evening's exercises Dr. Macdougall as principle read out the list of successful candidates. There were three in the Introductory Course in Girls Work. In the course of the Church-Home and Abroad seven students and Methods of Bible Study, another course, three received recognition. In a course on Principles of Teaching, taught by Prof. Shaw, ten were granted certificates. And in one taught on The Real Purpose of Religion fifteen received recognition, and one on Jesus and Our Life Questions seven were recommended for recognition.

In the more former recognition ceremony which was held in the Church auditorium the successful candidates came in procession to the organ playing O. W. Work against Mrs. Milton C. Stewart presided. Prof. L. W. Shaw occupied the pulpit with the Principal. After the opening Dr. Macdougall expressed the thanks of the College, first to Prof. L. W. Shaw, who so graciously gave of his time out of a busy life to teach one of the courses. Second to those who prepared the papers for the open forum discussions each night; viz: Mr. W. E. Bentley, K. C. and Major C. L. Mackay, Charlottetown, and Mr. F. H. Horton, M. A., Cardigan; also to Miss Marion Royce who assisted in teaching one of the courses, and to Miss Bertie Stewart, who acted as Secretary-Treasurer of the Extension School. Following this came the presentation of the Recognition certificates by Dr. Macdougall. He called upon Mrs. E. O. Shaw, who made a fitting speech emphasizing the significance of the occasion as well as the possibilities for mental and spiritual quickening in courses such as followed in the Extension School. With the singing of a closing hymn, Lead On O King Eternal, the recipients of recognition passed out of the auditorium in procession. The benediction concluded the night's ceremonies.

The Sunday audiences listened to two messages by Dr. Macdougall. The morning was a simple statement of the work of the College under the head of its four departments, viz: Resident Study, Leadership Training in Young People's Camps Across Canada, Extension Courses, such as the one just concluded in Charlottetown, and fourth Correspondence Study. In all of the departments the work is growing rapidly. In the evening in taking as his theme "The Sacrament of Life," Dr. Macdougall referred to the incidents in the life of Jesus which regarded the water brought to him by three of his captives who put in jeopardy their lives to do so, he counts too sacred to be spiritual implication of this action Dr. Macdougall applied to our attitude to the great sanctities of home, family and our regard to the Church, which have been brought into our civilization because down through the ages many have not only put their own lives in jeopardy but have even given them up to give these great treasures to our civilization. Very pointedly he referred to the fact that the student to-day have no regard for these sanctities. Purchased at a great price, though they have been, they do not turn over their little finger to foster or conserve these treasures for our lives. But on the contrary are living such selfish and pagan lives that their whole lives are spent in the destruction and they are these sanctities in our civilization. In closing Dr. Macdougall emphasized the need for every one who counts himself either a good citizen or a Christian to regard as sacred these great sanctities. And at times the call comes for us to put our own lives and our business and position, in jeopardy that these great sanctities do not slip away or become weakened in society, we must return to Jesus to find the needed courage and power thus to live.

The audience at the church were happy to hear Mrs. Keith Rogers, the organist, who has been sick back in her accustomed place at the organ. The solo by Mr. B. G. Acon, sung at the evening service was greatly enjoyed, as also were the special selections sung by the choir both morning and evening.

TOO MODERN ROYALTY To the ultra-European tendencies of Queen Souris rather than to the political reforms of her husband King Amanullah, is attributed the final outbreak which culminated in revolution throughout Afghanistan and the abdication of the king. Low-cut dresses, cocktails and dancing were among the innovations by which the queen shocked the sensibilities of her religiously minded Mohammedan subjects.

Stars of motion pictures in Japan are receiving less than $500 a month. The United States now leads the world in auto tire manufacture. One in every 10 persons in England hold an automobile driver's license. A newly devised locomotive that burns crude oil is being tested in England.

2 for 1 COUPON 6761 KING EDWARD THEATRE Monday, Jan. 21 This Coupon and one 50c Ticket will entitle you to two 50c Seats. All other seats on date. Charlottetown - Follies

REV. R. C. EATON ADDRESSES STUDENTS AT Y. M. C. A. SERVICE

Nearly 300 young folks enjoyed a variety service of Song last night in the Y. M. C. A. and listened to Rev. R. C. Eaton in his final talk to the Students at Charlottetown. Mr. Eaton's topic—A Relay Race on the Race Course of Life. He divided his topic into three sections. First, Our Duty to Receive; to take in the lesson the world had to teach and accept what the world had to give. Mr. Eaton reviewed all the great achievements of the past, showing how each individual would profit by what had taken place.

Second Lesson "Improve" and add to what we have received. Thirdly "Release" Place in the hands of others what we have received along life's journey. The chairman expressed his gratitude and appreciation for the service Mr. Eaton had rendered the students and the Y. M. C. A. during his stay in Charlottetown. A close of the address Mrs. W. E. Bentley thanked Mr. Eaton for his kindly co-operation in always helping the Y. M. C. A., and for doing all in his power to assist in the program.

Miss Pearl Burns sang a solo very acceptably. She was accompanied by Miss R. Spencer. Service next Sunday is to be in the form of a Sacred Concert, when six or eight special numbers will be given, along with the regular singing under the direction of Miss Barbara McNeill.

thanks of the College, first to Prof. L. W. Shaw, who so graciously gave of his time out of a busy life to teach one of the courses. Second to those who prepared the papers for the open forum discussions each night; viz: Mr. W. E. Bentley, K. C. and Major C. L. Mackay, Charlottetown, and Mr. F. H. Horton, M. A., Cardigan; also to Miss Marion Royce who assisted in teaching one of the courses, and to Miss Bertie Stewart, who acted as Secretary-Treasurer of the Extension School. Following this came the presentation of the Recognition certificates by Dr. Macdougall. He called upon Mrs. E. O. Shaw, who made a fitting speech emphasizing the significance of the occasion as well as the possibilities for mental and spiritual quickening in courses such as followed in the Extension School. With the singing of a closing hymn, Lead On O King Eternal, the recipients of recognition passed out of the auditorium in procession. The benediction concluded the night's ceremonies.

The Sunday audiences listened to two messages by Dr. Macdougall. The morning was a simple statement of the work of the College under the head of its four departments, viz: Resident Study, Leadership Training in Young People's Camps Across Canada, Extension Courses, such as the one just concluded in Charlottetown, and fourth Correspondence Study. In all of the departments the work is growing rapidly. In the evening in taking as his theme "The Sacrament of Life," Dr. Macdougall referred to the incidents in the life of Jesus which regarded the water brought to him by three of his captives who put in jeopardy their lives to do so, he counts too sacred to be spiritual implication of this action Dr. Macdougall applied to our attitude to the great sanctities of home, family and our regard to the Church, which have been brought into our civilization because down through the ages many have not only put their own lives in jeopardy but have even given them up to give these great treasures to our civilization. Very pointedly he referred to the fact that the student to-day have no regard for these sanctities. Purchased at a great price, though they have been, they do not turn over their little finger to foster or conserve these treasures for our lives. But on the contrary are living such selfish and pagan lives that their whole lives are spent in the destruction and they are these sanctities in our civilization. In closing Dr. Macdougall emphasized the need for every one who counts himself either a good citizen or a Christian to regard as sacred these great sanctities. And at times the call comes for us to put our own lives and our business and position, in jeopardy that these great sanctities do not slip away or become weakened in society, we must return to Jesus to find the needed courage and power thus to live.

The audience at the church were happy to hear Mrs. Keith Rogers, the organist, who has been sick back in her accustomed place at the organ. The solo by Mr. B. G. Acon, sung at the evening service was greatly enjoyed, as also were the special selections sung by the choir both morning and evening.

TOO MODERN ROYALTY To the ultra-European tendencies of Queen Souris rather than to the political reforms of her husband King Amanullah, is attributed the final outbreak which culminated in revolution throughout Afghanistan and the abdication of the king. Low-cut dresses, cocktails and dancing were among the innovations by which the queen shocked the sensibilities of her religiously minded Mohammedan subjects.

Stars of motion pictures in Japan are receiving less than $500 a month. The United States now leads the world in auto tire manufacture. One in every 10 persons in England hold an automobile driver's license. A newly devised locomotive that burns crude oil is being tested in England.

Central Guardian

THE FUNERAL OF THE MRS. George Compton takes place this morning leaving her late residence, 30 Water St., at 1.45 for St. Paul's Church for service at 2 o'clock then by special train to Sherwood for interment.

CONTRACT AWARDED—It is understood that the contract for planking the Hillsboro Bridge has been awarded to Major D. A. McDonald and Mr. Richard Quinn, of this city. Fifty-seven thousand plank will be used, and all hand lumber is expected to be used. The work will begin in three weeks.

POLICE COURT—At the Police Court Saturday morning the case against a man charged with stealing a hide was dismissed. An adjourned Emulsion case was further adjourned, and a milk vendor for selling milk under test—his first offence—was fined $5.00 and costs.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late James McDonald, Esq., Water Commissioner, was held Saturday afternoon from St. Paul's Church to the People's Cemetery. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. H. D. Raymond. The honorary pall bearers were: Judge Hazard, Messrs H. Palmer, L. B. Miller, John Fraser, E. H. Beer and James Stewart. The active pall bearers were: Messrs Alan Palmer, John McKenna, J. A. Watson, Hugh Connors, G. D. Wright and J. A. McMillan.

THE MACGREGORS' GATHERING—Miss Mary Smith's solo "The Macgregors' Gathering" might be better enjoyed if you refresh your memory with the following synopsis. This song of Sir Walter Scott, tells one of Scotland's most treasured legends. The Macgregors were of Royal descent. Founded by Gregor third son of Alpin who united Scotland under one crown on his ascension to the throne A. D. 778. This clan became one of the most powerful in Scotland as did also the Campbells of Iona whose chiefs were the Dukes of Argyll. The Campbells conquered and absorbed numerous smaller clans but unable to conquer the Macgregors they secured from the king charters for the Macgregor territories. In retaliation the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells. The Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of more than four at any time or place. They may not carry arms of any kind. Thirty years after the Macgregors were persecuted by the Campbells, the Campbells had an act passed by parliament forbidding on pain of death the use of the name Macgregor, the gathering of