CURLING CHILDREN CRY FOR "CASTORIA"

Monday night at the Charlotte-town Curling Association Rink, the third match for the Wright Trophy was played.

The ice was in great shape for the games and the players were right on deck, making the competition the best so far of the Wright series.

Great interest is being taken in the games between J. A. Fraser's team and R. E. Spillet's team, only one point separating them at the finish. Fraser's team just nosing them out.

The same may be truly said of the game between Alex Scott's team and W. S. Grant's team, another great game that kept the crowd guessing until the last.

C. H. Black's team and Col. Full's team also had a hard struggle, Full's team winning out by three points after a very strong argument by Black's team.

G. G. Hughes' team had an easy mark in D. B. Stewart's team getting a 13 to 4 verdict.

Jas. Bayer's team had five points to the good over S. C. Moore's team.

The following is the names and scores of Monday night's games.

Mr. McLeod is known as one of our most public spirited citizens. He has associated with him on the drive a number of the city's live wires and excellent results can be anticipated.
Among the unsolicited subscriptions that came in today was $100 from the Henry L. Doherty Company through their popular agent here, Mr. Ross M. Stintz.
Will the subscribers kindly remember that in helping the Association they are helping themselves? The Association aims to instill the spirit of optimism and progressiveness in our people as well as to bring people to this Province and keep our own people at home.
We appreciate all donations but remember that a five dollar bill does not go far and it takes many of them in buying advertising space. Do not depend on the other fellow to do your share. Do not be one of those who always says "Let George do it." Do your share and do it in a large way.
Receive our canvassers with a glad hand and send them away pleased and you yourself will be pleased in the results.
