

MAXIMS OF A MERE MAN
Literature is journalism without its false teeth.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

MAXIMS OF A MERE MAN
God hides some ideal in every human soul.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1934 8 PAGES

German-Italian Relations Endangered

ULTIMATUM HANDED DOLLFUSS BY NAZIS

DEMAND PART IN GOVERNMENT OR WILL FIGHT

Exiled Leader Gives Austrian Chancellor Week to "Think It Over."

(A.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
MUNICH, Germany, Feb. 19.—(A.P.)—Austrian Nazis, through their exiled leader Theodore Habicht, issued an ultimatum to Chancellor Dollfuss tonight giving him eight days "to think it over" and the choice between taking the Nazis into the Government or facing another "high."

Habicht announced an eight-day "truce" in which his followers are forbidden to attack the Austrian Government "in word, writing, or other means" on penalty of expulsion from the party.

In offering cooperation, Habicht declared:
"I ask the Austrian Government to view the terrible sacrifice of the recent catastrophe and view the serious possibilities for the future."

(Continued on Page 3)

ANNOUNCEMENTS, COMING EVENTS, MEETINGS, ETC

- "Announcements are inserted in this column at 5 cents per word strictly payable in advance."
- "Hockey and skate tonight at North Rink." L-376
- "Borden Line Club leading hogs, lambs, calves, Albany, Wednesday, February 21." L-545
- "Hockey at Afton Arena Tuesday, February 20th, Bull Dogs vs. Superiors. Skating after." L-508
- "Upper Queen Street Rink, skating tonight. Excellent ice. Admission 10c." L-375
- "Hockey at Stanley Rink, February 20th, Hope River vs. Stan. Jr. If not fine Wednesday." L-376
- "Afton Arena, Thursday night, first play, Hurlers League, Bulldogs vs. Cornwall." L-376
- "First game of final play-off at Mount Herbert tonight, Alexandra vs. Cornwall. Skating after. Sports Wednesday night." L-374
- "Play-off, Hartsville Maple Leafs vs. Williamsburg at North Rink tonight. Skating after with hand music." L-375
- "Cornwall Youth Point Institutes will hold a Canteen Sale at Rogers Hardware, Wednesday afternoon, February 21st." L-377
- "Important monthly meeting of Princes Edward Island Hospital Ladies Aid Wednesday 3:30 at new Hospital. Full attendance please." L-366
- "Bell League game, Granite Sliders vs. Cape Traverse Sliders in Borden Arena, Wednesday, February 21st. Admission 10c and 50c. Dance after at Abegweit Hotel, good music. Admission 20c." L-373
- "Hockey Borden Rink Wednesday, February 21st, Victoria Union vs. Borden Beavers. This is a play-off game in the McLean League for first place in the Eastern Section. Admission 10c and 15c." L-361

U. S. Envoy To Russia Sails

William C. Bullitt photographed when he sailed to take up his post as U. S. ambassador to Russia, with his daughter, Ann, who will remain in the United States in school until June, when she will return to her father.

IDENTIFIES MATES AS FACTOR ABDUCTORS

Member Of Touhy Gang Corroborates Evidence Of Factor Given In First Trial.

(A.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Isaac Costner, young 'confederate' had named, described his mates of the Touhy gang today and in a plaintive drawl accused them from the witness stand of kidnaping 'Doc' Factor, the millionaire speculator, for $70,000. He calmly recited for the jury a narrative of the midnight "snatch" and in manner unbecomingly named the abductors, Roger Touhy, Gustav Schneider, Al. Ber. Kator and several confederates, including himself.

He said they wanted to grab Jack Factor, he said, as he had of being roused from sleep one midsummer night to join the band.

Not before had the state been able to produce a participant willing to identify the three defendants in criminal court.

Factor himself had raised a point out the trio as his tormentors. Then the jury had disagreed as to their guilt, and disagreed without a verdict. Factor has yet to testify at this second trial, and his story may be an anti-climax after the narrative of Costner today.

Brought back after his capture at Baltimore, Costner was placed on the stand against the strenuous protests of the defense attorney, William Scott Stewart, who demanded declaration of a mistrial because he had not been notified that Costner would be an "accomplice" witness.

"Good Man"
Identified by Factor as the "good man," the entry who had been pleased to him during the long days of guard duty over the captive, Costner gave his recitation for the jury under the guidance of Prosecutor Wilbert P. Crowley.

"They said they wanted to grab Jack Factor," was one assertion. "I ordered him out of the car."

"I got $2,000 after the ransom was paid."

Belgium Mourns Loss Of King

Body Borne To Castle To Lie In State.

(By Albert W. Wilson) (Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press)
BRUSSELS, Belgium, Feb. 19.—(A.P.)—A caisson draped in black bore the body of King Albert tonight between solid rows of War Veterans with bowed heads, back to the Capital city to lie in state for three days.

It will be King Albert's last stay in the Royal Palace, from which he was driven at the outbreak of the Great War, for he will be buried in quiet on Thursday in the Royal crypt at Laeken.

Somewhat the populace gathered along the black-draped route of march, still stung by the shock of the accident that cost the King his life Saturday while mountaineering in his native hills.

A detachment of cavalry bearing torches rode at dusk behind the coffin. The streets of Brussels were draped with flags of black, yellow and red—the National colors—surmounted with black crepe.

Mist Covers City
A mist had masked the City all day. It was a gloomy day, the most sincere grief of Belgians of all classes. Street lamps were veiled.

The youthful Crown Prince Leopold, who on Friday will become King walked behind the gun carriage bearing the coffin. Beside him was his younger brother, the Count of Flandres.

Following them were dignitaries of the Court and women of the Royal entourage, including the grief-stricken Queen Elisabeth. A squadron of police brought up the rear.

All afternoon the clack-clack of marching troops of War Veterans had resounded on the cobbled streets.

Cheap Coach Excursion To Be Repeated
(Special To The Guardian)
MONCTON, N. B., Feb. 19.—The coach excursion to bargain round trip fares from stations on Prince Edward Island to Charlottetown will be repeated this week-end, tickets being good going by regular trains Friday, February 23rd, and returning Monday, February 26th, according to an announcement by Canadian National officials today.

A similar excursion was operated last week-end.

In addition to opportunities offered for shopping and visiting relatives and friends, hockey fans will be able to see the game between Halifax "Wolverines" and Charlottetown "Abbies" in Charlottetown Friday night. A big crowd is looked for.

Period Of Court Mourning
(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—(C.P.)—Court mourning for King Albert of Belgium will extend two weeks from today, it was announced by the Department of the Secretary of State.

The following official statement was issued:
"His Majesty the King has directed that Court mourning be observed for the late King of the Belgians for two weeks from the 19th instant, and that flags on public buildings be half-masted on the day of the funeral."

The press generally credits the British Government with an honest concern about achieving a general reduction of armaments. Therefore, said the Frankfurter Zeitung, "the ultimate success of Edem's journey will be the greater, the more firmly England sticks to her position."

MARINE TOLLS ON CANALS DEBATED

Would Aid Treasury, Says Sponsor, But House Frowns On Motion.

(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—(C.P.)—Two Ontario Conservatives raised lone voices in the House of Commons today in support of marine tolls on Canada's canal system. In the face of concerted opposition from all sides of the House, Dr. Peter McGibbon, Cons. Muskoka finally withdrew his motion to institute tolls, having enlisted only the support of Col. James Arthur, Cons. Pary Sound, another Northern Ontario member.

Opposition to tolls cut across party lines and included Premier R. B. Bennett and Hon. J. R. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals. The main argument was that western wheat farmers would bear the brunt of the impost, and today was an inopportune time to increase production costs for the farmers.

Tolls also would divert tonnage from eastern ports to the Hudson Bay Railway, Buffalo, the Erie Canal, Vancouver and the Panama Canal. Retaliatory steps by other nations might be invited in any event, Canada was bound by treaty to place Canadian and American ships on a toll parity.

Toll Abolished 1903
Canada abolished canal tolls in 1903, not only to Canadian vessels, but foreign as well. Dr. McGibbon would have changed this in view of the hard-pressed National Treasury.

The frequent radio broadcasts and common language of German newspapers defaming the Government of Chancellor Dollfuss, it is now beyond doubt that this Austro-Germanic movement is tending to prepare gradually but inevitably the political union of Austria and Germany.

"These facts confirm the solidarity which exists in some Germanic quarters with opposition to the Government of Dollfuss. It is now beyond doubt that this Austro-Germanic movement is tending to prepare gradually but inevitably the political union of Austria and Germany."

Alcohol Fatal To Son, Father Loses Sight
(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
NEWCASTLE, N. B., Feb. 19.—As a result of drinking rubbing alcohol, Orest Belliveau, farm hand, aged 22, was dead at Rogersville tonight and his farmer-employer, Claris Caisie, 40, had lost his eye-sight.

Chilled while hauling firewood to Rogersville, the men bought a bottle of alcohol and took several drinks after returning to Caisie's home. Exclaiming "I'm poisoned!" Belliveau suffered four hours of agony before death, a doctor finding his condition hopeless, and Caisie went blind. Still under medical care, the latter was given a chance for life tonight.

At an inquest into Belliveau's death a jury found he had died as a result of drinking rubbing alcohol and recommended restrictions on the sale of this product.

Belliveau, single, is survived by both mother and father. Caisie is the father of seven children.

Leopold Will Be Crowned King Of Belgians Friday

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
BRUSSELS, Belgium, Feb. 19.—Before the nation has recovered from grief at the loss of a beloved monarch, the fourth King of the Belgians will mount the throne Friday.

A simple oath—"I swear to observe the constitution and the laws of the Belgian people and to maintain the national independence and integrity of territory"—will signify that Leopold III, at the age of 32, has taken his place among the crowned heads of Europe.

In the day following the funeral of the late King Albert the ceremony will be held in the Chamber of Deputies, upon a throne erected to replace the speaker's chair. The

Fascists Claim Nazis Inspired Austrian Riots

Developments In Austria Carefully Watched By Both Countries.

(By Andre Berding, Associated Press Foreign Staff) (By The Guardian's Special Wire)

ROME, Feb. 19.—(A.P.)—The possibility of a break over Austria between Fascist Italy and Nazi Germany, foreseen by many observers, was emphasized today by an editorial attack on Berlin by the newspaper Giornale D'Italia.

"There is no longer any doubt," said the newspaper, probably closer to the Government than any in Rome, "that the National Socialist movement (Nazi) which exploded in Austria in violent form is inspired by Germanic elements."

"Their headquarters are in fact Berlin and Munich," the Giornale D'Italia continued. "Their chief organizers are among the highest personalities in the German political world."

"Explosives and arms which have made victims in Austria have come in part from Germany. Combat squads which are operating and which still operate in Austrian territory for National Socialists have been in part maintained and educated in Germany."

Reply to Attack
The paper was replying to attacks from the German press directed against Italy as a result of the declaration by Rome, France and Great Britain that Austrian independence must be preserved.

Both countries are watching developments in their neighbor, little Austria, closely. Italian troops are massed on the Austrian border.

"The frequent radio broadcasts and common language of German newspapers defaming the Government of Chancellor Dollfuss, it is now beyond doubt that this Austro-Germanic movement is tending to prepare gradually but inevitably the political union of Austria and Germany."

"This preparation is a precise act of revision of treaties."

Alcohol Fatal To Son, Father Loses Sight

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
NEWCASTLE, N. B., Feb. 19.—As a result of drinking rubbing alcohol, Orest Belliveau, farm hand, aged 22, was dead at Rogersville tonight and his farmer-employer, Claris Caisie, 40, had lost his eye-sight.

Chilled while hauling firewood to Rogersville, the men bought a bottle of alcohol and took several drinks after returning to Caisie's home. Exclaiming "I'm poisoned!" Belliveau suffered four hours of agony before death, a doctor finding his condition hopeless, and Caisie went blind. Still under medical care, the latter was given a chance for life tonight.

At an inquest into Belliveau's death a jury found he had died as a result of drinking rubbing alcohol and recommended restrictions on the sale of this product.

Belliveau, single, is survived by both mother and father. Caisie is the father of seven children.

Leopold Will Be Crowned King Of Belgians Friday

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
BRUSSELS, Belgium, Feb. 19.—Before the nation has recovered from grief at the loss of a beloved monarch, the fourth King of the Belgians will mount the throne Friday.

A simple oath—"I swear to observe the constitution and the laws of the Belgian people and to maintain the national independence and integrity of territory"—will signify that Leopold III, at the age of 32, has taken his place among the crowned heads of Europe.

WYNEKOOP TRIAL RENEWED

(A.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—The Wynkoop murder trial drama, which was interrupted at its climax by the illness of its principal character during its first presentation, started a second run today in a new setting.

A new mood characterized the defendant, Dr. Alice Lindsey Wynkoop, on trial for her life in the operating-room slaying of her daughter-in-law. Apparently in much better physical condition than during her first trial a month ago, the matron of Wynkoop mansion had recovered her poise and self assurance.

Questioning of the first 17 venturers failed to produce a panel acceptable to both sides, and the trial was adjourned until tomorrow.

Prosecutor Charles S. Dougherty again announced his intention of qualifying a jury to inflict the death penalty.

SIXTEEN KILLED
FICARSI, Italy, Feb. 19.—A special train, loaded with sight-seers returning from a fiesta here, ran into another train yesterday, killing 16 persons and injuring 11, belated official dispatches revealed today. The trains met head on at 9:45 a. m. near the village of Populonia.

The Weather

YOU CAN'T CONVINCE A REAL COMEDIAN THAT LIFE IS A FUNNY PROPOSITION!

... sales with some snow or part rain.

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, Toronto, Feb. 19.—Minimum and maximum temperatures—

Dawson	...	30	25
Edmonton	...	25	15
Halifax	...	42	34
Montreal	...	35	25
Ottawa	...	32	22
Quebec	...	30	20
Regina	...	28	18
Saskatoon	...	25	15
Winnipeg	...	22	12
Victoria	...	45	35
Yukon	...	20	10

Forecast—Maritime Provinces—Strong winds or gales with some snow or part rain. High tide this afternoon at 2:45 and tomorrow morning at 4:05. Sun sets this afternoon at 5:54 and tomorrow morning at 6:54. First quarter moon Wednesday, Feb. 21, 1:56 a. m.

CAR FERRY SCHEDULE
Week days—Leaving Borden 6:30. Week days—Leaving Cape Tormentine 8:30 a. m. (Monday), 8:30 p. m. (Sat. & Sun.).

PAY IN ADVANCE
As to many people flourish responsibility for small debts. When bills are sent out, in future no such debts will appear unless the order is accompanied with payment.

CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN