

Thomas A. Edison's

Blue Amberol Records

have increased the enjoyment of the Edison Phonograph

An Edison entertainment has always meant the best that the opera, concert and vaudeville stage can offer. The use of Blue Amberol Records means that these selections, clearer, sweeter and longer, can be repeated thousands of times with the same perfect results. Ask your dealer to play some for you and you'll be convinced.

Big Ben

Big Ben—Two Good Alarms in One

Take your choice in Big Ben. He rings either way you wish—five straight minutes or every other half minute for all of ten minutes unless you switch him off. He's two alarms in one.

If you're a light sleeper, turn on the half minute taps before you go to bed. If you sleep heavily, set the five minute call. You can slumber then without the get-up worry on your mind.

When morning comes, and it's announced by Big Ben's jolly bell, you can't help getting up at once, for Big Ben never fails to get you wide awake.

Big Ben is really three good clocks in one, two excellent alarms and a fine time-keeper to keep in any room and tell time all day by.

If you have got to get up bright and early, if you have to get your help in the field on time, ask for Big Ben at your dealer's and try him for a week. You'll never want to be without him afterwards.

Big Ben stands seven inches tall. He is triple nickel-plated and wears an inner vest of steel that insures him for life. His big, bold figures and hands are easy to read in the dim morning light. His large, comfortable keys allow wind themselves. His price, $1.00 is easy to pay because his advantages are so easy to see. Big Ben is sold in Prince Edward Island by the following jewelers:

FRIDAY.
HOCKEY MEN ARRIVE.—A jolly bunch of hockey players came over from Halifax yesterday and are registered at the Queen. This is the Halifax Technical team's first season, and they made an excellent beginning, winning seven out of eight games played. They defeated the Dalhousie and Acadias, each in two games, the Willow Parks, and Wanderers, one game each, and were defeated by Mt. Allison, early in the season by 3-1. The scores in the games with Dalhousie were 4-1, and 3-1. They are accompanied by Manager O'Brien.

MONDAY.
—ARRESTED SATURDAY.—Maurice Fitzgerald of Waterford was arrested and brought before Stip. Wright Saturday morning charged with assaulting constables. He was remanded until next Thursday, the 5th inst, at 11 a. m. J.

—A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Methodist Parsonage, Summerside, Saturday afternoon at 8 o'clock when Cephas Grigg of West Devon was united in marriage to Mrs. Jerry Long of Boston, Mass. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jas. Strothard. The bride was prettily attired in a tailored suit of handsome navy blue broadcloth, with hat to match. After the wedding ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of Mrs. J. H. Burrs, cousin of the groom, where they were hospitably entertained for an hour, after which they drove to the station where they boarded the train for West Devon. They will reside in that community, where Mr. Gregg is one of the most prosperous farmers. J

TUESDAY.
—SENSATION.—Another sensation was sprung on the Court at Summerside yesterday when John Murray, who had just been giving testimony in the case against Charles Burke was arrested on the charge of setting fire to and burning the barn of Mrs. Murphy at Elmsdale. At the time of the burning of the barn the fire was believed to be of incendiary origin. This arrest seems to be a sequel to the fox stealing business now pending before Stipendiary Wright. J.

—WEDDING.—The home of W. G. and Mrs. Schurman, Summerside, was the scene of an interesting social event yesterday morning at 7.30 when their second daughter, Winnifred Gladys, was united in marriage to Bertram Wilfred Mill of Calgary, Alta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Fraser, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Summerside, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride. The bride was very prettily dressed in pale blue silk trimmed with cream silk insertion and pink rosebuds. The travelling suit was of navy blue cheviot. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The presents were indeed a feature of the occasion. The groom's present to the bride was a lovely set of mink furs. Among many other costly and beautiful presents were checks, table linen, articles of silverware. The happy couple left yesterday morning for their home in Calgary where the groom is highly respected by all who know him. The bride has always resided in Summerside where she has always been one of the most popular young ladies. Both young people have the best wishes of many friends for a long and happy wedded life. J.

WEDNESDAY.
—TWO ARRESTS.—Frank Dawson and William Dawson of Poplar Grove have been arrested by Constable Phillips. Frank Dawson is charged with assault of Mrs. David Palmer of Poplar Grove and with setting fire to a barn. William Dawson is charged with assault. They were released of bail to appear Friday morning. J.

THURSDAY.
—DEATH OF MRS. ELLIS.—On the morning of the 26th Feb. the residents of Springfield, Lot 7, were sadly surprised to hear of the very sudden demise of Mrs. Neil Ellis, in the eighty-second year of her age. Deceased was unusually bright and cheerful the day previous to her passing, having spent the afternoon in pleasant conversation with her grandchildren who always seemed delighted to go into her room and chat with her, but, at 10 o'clock she took a severe pain which resulted in death at 7.30 a.m. despite all that skill, kind care and nursing could do for her. In early life Mrs. Ellis identified herself with the Baptist Church, of which she was a consistent and faithful member till the call came for her to go "up higher" and enter the church triumphant. During the years that she was confined to her room, it was an inspiration to hear her talk on spiritual matters. She was well versed in the Scriptures, and made them the theme of conversation at all times. She was highly respected, a good neighbor, kind and thoughtful, and a good supporter of her church. She leaves to mourn two daughters, Mrs. James Hoggood, West Cape, and Mrs. George Ellis, Alberton, and one son, George F. Ellis, at home; also, two brothers Harry and John Williams, Bidford. Her husband died 36 years ago.

FRIDAY.
—ASSAULT CHARGE.—Maurice Fitzgerald, Waterford, was brought before Stipendiary Wright yesterday morning charged with assaulting Constables. He was fined $80 and costs and warned that a repetition of the offence would be much more severely dealt with. J.

TUESDAY.
—TWO CONVICTIONS.—On Tuesday, Feb. 18th, 1913, in Georgetown Court House two cases were tried under the P. E. I. Prohibition Act. The first was Urban Hines, Druggist, Montague, who was fined first offence $100.00 and costs. The second case was against J. A. G. Ellis, druggist, Montague. One witness testified to having bought a bottle of gin, and paying for it. Another witness said he had been treated to drinks in the store, and they were paid for. A third witness asked to have a Doctor's prescription filled which called for only twelve ounces of whiskey, the druggist gave him a

FRIDAY.
—EASTERN NOTES.—John Conway, an old timer and a well known character was laid quietly to rest on the 1st inst. Rest came after a long period of suffering that was nobly borne in patient fortitude.—Fred Robertson is home from Boston and will start fishing on a larger scale on the opening of navigation.—Elmer Fraser arrived from the South the past week.—The fact of so many of the young men of the district returning from the West and from the South this winter shows conclusively that P. E. I. has as many and better advantages as can be found outside the limits of this million Acre fox ranch. Keep on coming boys.

Do You Know TRISCUIT?

If you don't, take home a box of this delicious Shredded Wheat Wafer, have some of it toasted in the oven to restore its crispness, then eat it hot or crisp with butter, soft cheese or marmalade. It has in it all the body-building material in the whole wheat grain, made digestible by steam-cooking, shredding and baking. If our customers like Shredded Wheat Biscuit for breakfast they will surely like Triscuit for luncheon or for any meal. Try it with hot cocoa, malted milk or other beverages.
