Hazelbrook And Vicinity

The many friends of Mrs. Fred Trowsdale will be glad to know she has returned to her home after her recent operation in the P. E. Island Hospital.

Potato picking seems to be quite the order of the day here. A very interesting contest took place on Wednesday last at the home of Mr. J. A. Drake, when Mr. Harley White offered a prize to the young lady who could pick three baskets of potatoes in the shortest length of time.

Quite a number of the ladies contested, but the prize, which was a lovely box of chocolates, was won by Miss Julia Myers, who filled the three baskets in one minute and fifty-seven seconds.

MILTON AND VICINITY

The many friends of Mrs. Hamilton Horne are pleased to learn that she is doing as well as can be expected after a very serious operation in the P.E.I. Hospital.

The Anglican congregation of St. John's Church, Milton, gathered at the beautiful home of Mr. Stephen Holroyd on Wednesday, Oct. 5th to greet Rev. C. F. Johnson and his charming bride. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. An address was read by Mr. C. E. MacKenzie and a purse of gold presented by Miss Beth Coles while Miss Doris Stockman presented the bride with a beautiful bouquet of Sweet Peas. Mr. Johnson on behalf of his bride and himself expressed his thanks in a few well chosen words. A dainty lunch was then served by the ladies. The eve was whittled away by music and palmistry. After singing "God Save the King" all departed wishing the bride and groom many happy years of wedded life.

Miss Lillian Moore was a recent visitor to her home in Milton.

Miss Marjorie Vickerson of North River, has been visiting friends in Milton. While there she was the guest of Miss Addie Moore.

Tunnel and Car Ferry Costs

Charlottetown, P. E. I. October 13th, 1927

Editor Guardian, Sir:—

In my last letter I promised some further facts and figures, showing the cost of the present Car Ferry, "Prince Edward," also the cost of the piers, land and all equipment at Tormentine and Borden from 1912 to 1919 inclusive.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Cost. Includes Work done under contract, Transfer Bridge, Electric Light Plant, Land, Station and Engine House.

There must be added to this the cost of the proposed new Ferry, say

Making a total cost of

Interest on invested Capital at 3% on $4,473,075.58

Total annual cost

Following are the annual operating charges for this service for 1926 as published in my letter of October 5th:

Total annual cost with new ferry in operation

A great many were surprised when I made the statement in a previous letter that when all the figures such as interest on cost, annual operating charges and depreciation were obtained that they would exceed $600,000.

As the years go by with an increasing trade these annual costs will continue to increase, and the entire trade of the Province will continue to be dependent on a ferry service for its existence.

It seems to me that we have been asleep at the switch, or living in a fool's paradise.

This is a question that has not received public attention for almost a generation. There are those among us who have not had an opportunity of knowing all the facts and figures in connection with what has been and continues to be our greatest problem.

It must be remembered that in May, 1891 that Sir Douglas Fox made his report to the Hon. Sir Geo. E. Foster, then Minister of Finance, thirty-six years ago. I have written to the latter asking for a copy of this report if available.

Let us now consider the cost of this service to Canada. The figures are correct as recorded in the Department of Railways and Canals at Ottawa.

H. and Mrs. Ross, Bedouque; Mrs. Saint; Mr. and Mrs. Toombs; Mrs. D. MacKenzie and Mrs. Geo. It seems as if the ownership of land in this community is undergoing a complete change this autumn. Mr. Arch Henry, Malpeque, has sold his farm of one hundred and fifteen acres to Mr. Charles Lockhart, of Spring Valley. Mr. Henry has purchased a fine residence in Kensington and purposes moving there very soon. While it is regrettable losing Mr. and Mrs. Henry, it is gratifying to have their places so well filled, by an enterprising farmer as Mr. Lockhart. Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart will be heartily welcomed to Malpeque.

The residence of Mr. Clark Woodside, Malpeque, has been purchased by his father, Mr. Arch Woodside. Mr. and Mrs. Woodside and daughter Miss Thelma will take possession of their new home this week, and their many friends cordially welcome them as residents of the "corner."

Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Lockyerby and Mr. and Mrs. L.D. MacNutt, spent Sunday with friends in Charlottetown.

Mr. Russel Woodside, Pine Hill College, is spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Woodside, Darnley.

Mr. and Mrs. James Donald, Miss Thelma and Master Everett Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Simpson and Miss Marion Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. George Crozier and Master Wesley Crozier were in attendance at the marriage of Miss Blanche Crozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crozier, Wilmot, on Wednesday, October 12th.

Mr. George Taylor Hamilton, has purchased the home of Mr. Wm Woodside, in the same district. Mr. Taylor purposes retiring from farm work and intends selling his residence and farm of seventy acres. The people of Hamilton in particular and the whole community in general are pleased to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will still be residents in Hamilton.

About fifty young people assembled at the home of Mr. Clark Woodside on Tuesday evening to give a farewell to him. Mr. L.D. MacNutt presided and stated the reason for their coming together. Mr. James Murphy, on behalf of the company presented Mr. Woodside with a purse of money. Mr. Geo. Mackay and Mr. Hartwell Abbott followed with extempore addresses expressive of regret at Mr. Woodside's departure. Mr. Woodside acknowledged the gift and the kind words that had been spoken. Our talented violinist, Mr. Charles Woodside, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Elmer Phillips, supplied excellent music, while the young people tripped the light fantastic. Mr. Woodside leaves in a few days for Toronto where he will receive treatment. He will spend Christmas with friends in Vancouver, and later will be joined by Mrs. Woodside, previous to making their home in San Francisco, Calif.

Mr. Melville Donald, Mr. Johnson Bernard and Mrs. Collin Donald motored to Alberton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. MacNutt spent Sunday with friends in Darnley.

During the year, twenty-one foxes have escaped from ranches in this vicinity. In every instance these foxes have been restored to their owners through the efforts of Mr. James Craig, who on being informed of a missing animal, immediately sent his hound in pursuit. Mr. Craig is to be congratulated on being the owner of such faithful animals, and as for the hounds, they need no further recommendation as their powers of scenting have been thoroughly tested.

A choice sale of furniture owned by Mr. Clark Woodside took place on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. Mr. Hugh A. Morrison, Kensington, was the auctioneer. Mr. Woodside realized splendid value for his goods.

Mr. Horton of the International Company of Charlottetown, was a visitor to Malpeque this week.

Mrs. Nelson Ramsay, Alberton, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. R. J. Donald. (M)

WRITTEN BY DEEPLY RELIGIOUS WOMAN

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 12.—"Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," banned by Cardinal O'Connell, of Boston, was written by a deeply religious woman as the wife of a minister, according to J.S. Fearis, who composed the music. "I have never regarded it as maudlin and its popularity is well worth," said Mr. Fearis.

Another of our popular young ladies, Miss Florence Mabey, has forsaken us, and gone to that city famous for Beans and Brown Bread. We are sorry to lose Florrie, and hope it will not be for long.

Mr. Arthur McKay, Albany, was a visitor to Crapaud on Sunday.

HELLO DADDY! We've Got Nut Spice for Tea

"OVEN-KIST" Nut Spice is rapidly taking the place of the old-fashioned cookie—and no wonder! Even the sweet contents of the old cookie jar were never so crisply tempting as these new, delicious biscuits with their sliced, fresh, toasted nuts.

As a pick-me-up for that "all-gone" four-o'clock-in-the-afternoon feeling—before going to bed—a handful of delicious Nut Spice biscuits hits the spot. All grocers carry them. Look for the familiar "Oven-kist" Scarlet Caddy and buy them by the pound.

Tryon Tid-Bits

Dear reader as I sit here pen in hand, I wonder if any one of you realizes the troubles and difficulties of the country correspondent. Living in the country, working in the field or elsewhere all the day, out of touch with everything and when the night comes tired and hungry, the easy chair or the bed is justly his, yet true to the urge of duty he sallies forth, and dropping in here, there, and everywhere hears the local news then home and to; next morning his column is there. Say does he feel a pardonable pride in doing his share? Well perhaps he does, and after all even Tryon Tid Bits fill up even if they do not fetch, so bear with me a short time, and I will relate some of the choicest gossip I heard tonight. Thank you and here goes—

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Dawson, Master Lester, Miss Ida Dawson and Miss Edith Quigley, motored from Summerside Sunday and visited friends in Augustine Cove and North Tryon.

Mr. Walter Gerrier, spent Sunday with his parents in Summerside.

Mr. Herman Clow, who has been employed by D. J. Thomson, North Tryon, has returned to Summerside, and we understand engage in smelt fishing. The friends Herman made in Tryon wish him the best of good luck in his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weeks, of Mexico, Maine, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thomson, Brookline, Mass., who have been visiting friends in this province left Thursday morning en route to their respective homes. Both Mr. Weeks and Mr. Thomson are enthusiastic anglers, and declare that for trout fishing there is no place like P. E. I. Mr. Thomson who is a former Tryon boy however voiced a regret that the woods are no longer filled with partridge as they were when he spent his boyhood days here. Wandering for two whole days through the woods he said he had not sighted any game at all, and he thought it a great pity that this could be possible. If only more small game could be found here it would be a great attraction to tourists for to wander through the woods, and bring home a brace of partridge well. That was really living he said.

Another of our popular young ladies, Miss Florence Mabey, has forsaken us, and gone to that city famous for Beans and Brown Bread. We are sorry to lose Florrie, and hope it will not be for long.

Mr. Arthur McKay, Albany, was a visitor to Crapaud on Sunday.

Many are done with that salt water put new life in the part of the work, and are busy grading, and the trucks loaded down are to be seen in ever increasing numbers upon our roads as they whirl the famous P. E. I. potato away to the shipping points.

Mr. Fred Waite, Summerside, was a recent visitor to North Tryon.

Messrs. Lloyd Howatt and Ralph Lyman, were visitors to Borden and Cape Traverse on Friday evening.

Messrs. Geo. Muirhead and Geo. Dawson were among the motorists visiting Cape Traverse on Sunday.

On Friday evening a truck loaded down with young people drove from Tryon to Borden to enjoy the movies—but alas there was none. However they had a pleasant drive and the invigorating breeze from over Denmark my bill."

"Are you Hungry?"

"Yes, Siam!"

"Den Russia to the table and Phil!"

"All right, Sweden my coffee and Denmark my bill."
