Theatre, the popular "Hoppy" pitches into a tangled web of mystery and murder while helping his pal, California Carlson, played by Andy Clyde, claim an inheritance.

Rand Brooks as Lucky Jenkins and Patricia Tate, a charming newcomer to the "Hoppy" series, supply the love interest and Una O'Connor, dead-pan British character actress, turns in another of her typically brilliant performances as a gossip housekeeper. The action is fast; the suspense builds up to a smashing climax.

Ande Lamb, author of the original screenplay, deserves an extra round of applause for a story which raises the standard of "Hoppy" entertainment still another notch.

BALLOON SHIP NOW FOR SALE VANCOUVER, Oct. 22 - (CP) - A millionaire, with a passion for playing with balloons, would be in his glory on the Pacific Coast.

Recently declared surplus by the Royal Canadian Navy is the corvette Woodstock, war-time meteorological ship, which has a specially-fitted balloon deck and inflator sheds for filling six-foot gasbags.

Operating 500 miles at sea off Victoria during the war, the Woodstock provided the armed forces, particularly the R.C.A.F., with valuable weather information which formerly was radioed by merchant ships plying the Pacific Ocean.

West Coast weather stations once more are getting reports from ships and government wireless stations.

COOKHAM - ON - THAMES, Berkshire, England - (CP) - Joan Townsend sailed to her wedding in a motor-boat built by her husband.

In Memoriam

STARBUCK J. ROSE

The death occurred at the Bonis Hospital, P.E.I. on Wednesday, October first, of Starbuck J. Rose of Lakeville, P. E. I. His death came as a shock to his many friends and relations as he had been sick but two weeks.

Born at Lakeville 82 years ago a son of the late Peter Rose and Hannah Garrett he spent his entire life in this community.

For a number of years he and his brother Stephen operated a saw and grist mill at Lakeville later he and his wife (nee Vesta Stewart, Red Point), farmed. She predeceased him 15 months ago.

Mr. Rose was loved and respected by all that knew him. A true and devoted husband, a kind and obliging neighbour—he possessed a large measure of self-control, and retained an even step amidst all the feverish ways of life.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Joseph Allan, Boughton Island.

Service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, Lakeville, H. R. Bell officiating. Hymns used were "Sweet By and By," "Going Down Valley" and "The Christian's Good Night." Flowers were Hudson, Morrow, William Fraser, Livingstone Rose, Alfred Rose, D. A. Campbell, Allan Cummings, Interment in South Lake Cemetery.
