IN PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA, May 8.—After a quiet afternoon sitting during which some of the government measures were advanced a stage, the Commons tonight in committee considered the bill covering the $50,000,000 appropriation for demobilization and other purposes in connection with the termination of the war.

Mr. McKenzie, Opposition Leader having expressed the view that this vote should have followed the budget and that the Minister of Finance should give the House a statement of war costs, Sir Thomas White responded with some figures. The Minister stated that so far the war had increased the national debt by $1,348,000,000. Outstanding war loans amount to $1,150,275,922.

Objections were taken by Mr. F. S. Cahill to the Canadian credit given to Roumania. He thought that the manufacturers should be able to go out and get business for themselves. The government was giving credit to doubtful countries at the expense of the people of Canada and for the benefit of the manufacturers.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux advocated the appointment of a new Minister of Trade and Commerce, declaring that Sir George Foster had been a great failure in this department.

Later in the evening Mr. Duff, of Lunenburg, strongly criticized the administration of the Canadian Naval Service and asked for an investigation by parliamentary committees. Mr. Duff made a comprehensive attack on the Department of Naval Service with regard to its handling of naval affairs on the Nova Scotian coast. He said that the large expenditure for naval services at Sydney Harbor was absolutely wasted and seventy-five boats were tied up there when the war ended. He told the story of seven men refusing to go to sea in a trawler unless the decks were caulked and were sent to jail for eighteen months, yet to prove that they were right in their contention the vessel was laid up for repairs a fortnight afterwards. One of the officers of the court martial who sent them to jail was the captain of the Hochelaga, who turned tail when he saw a submarine and made for port. While an American tanker was being sunk by a submarine, he said, Canadian naval officers were drinking afternoon tea and playing bridge at Halifax, while the Lady Evelyn, the best equipped vessel in the service, was on her way to the Magdalen Islands with six pencils for the wireless operator.

Mr. Duff told another story of an American destroyer off Cape Canso being ordered back to Halifax. Her captain wired that a submarine was in his zone but he was ordered back to port to take Prince Arthur of Connaught out to sea. While he was away from his zone five or six Canadian vessels and one American were sunk and fishermen had to row 140 miles in their dories to harbor.

Mr. Duff praised the work of the United States Navy in Canadian waters remarking that it was a "shame we should have to depend on the American Navy to defend our shipping."

He declared that $200,000 expended on the Halifax naval college in 1918 was principally for "furbelows and pink teas."

Mr. Duff also read a long series of charges by Lieutenant C. O. Julian R.C.N.V.R. of Vancouver, against Canadian naval administration and asked for investigation by a parliamentary committee into the whole matter.

Mr. Duff concluded that either Canada should spend $100,000,000 on building an efficient navy or else abandon the whole idea for some years. In view of the financial conditions, Canada could not spend $100,000,000 and Mr. Duff thought, therefore that the Naval Department at Ottawa should be closed up and the officers paid off.

RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES AT ST. JOSEPH'S NOVITIATE—FEAST PATRON SAINT IS FITTINGLY CELEBRATED.

(St. Paul, Minn. Exchange)
Last Wednesday morning the Feast of St. Joseph, was a day of special rejoicing for the religious of St. Joseph's Novitiate in this city. Seven young women, having completed the period of probation in the Novitiate, received the habit of the Sisterhood. One novice made her simple profession and was admitted to membership among the Sister of St. Joseph.

The ceremony began at half past nine o'clock and was presided over by the Very Rev. J. C. Byrne, Administrator. A number of priests, headed by a large number of Sisters from the various communities, were present. The ceremonies were preceded by a retreat of ten days which was given by the Rev. Marcellus McCarthy of the Passionist Monastery of Des Moines, Ia. At the hour set for the ceremony the young women, dressed in bridal clergy and religious were seated. Mass was celebrated by Rev. Virgil Michel, O. S. B., of Collegeville, Minn., who is a brother of one of the new novices. Afterwards Father

Byrne preached a very instructive sermon.

The postulants, kneeling at the sanctuary rail, expressed a desire to change their worldly robes for the habit of the Sisterhood of St. Joseph. Permission having been granted them by the presiding dignitary, they withdrew to make the change. Immediately afterwards the novice, Sister Mary Gerald Gleason of Cherry Valley, Prince Edward Island, Canada, made her simple vows. She then received a crucifix, the badge of full membership in the congregation. The newly admitted novices then returned wearing the habit of the Sisterhood of St. Joseph. They knelt for a moment in silent prayer and thanksgiving, and then received the blessing of the Very Reverend Administrator.

At noon dinner was served to the clergymen, and afterwards the new Religious received the congratulations of friends and relatives. Following are the names of the new novices and their newly acquired religious names:

Miss Regina McLump, Graceville, Minn.; Sister Mary St. Genevieve; Miss Blanche Kelly, Minneapolis, Minn.; Sister Mary Felicia; Miss Mar-

Patterson, Outlook, Mont.; Sister Mary Ethma; Miss Mary Rorke, Grand Forks, N. Dak.; Sister Sara Gertrude; Miss Mary McMahon, Detroit, Mich.; Sister Gerard Majella; Miss Teresa Michel, St. Paul, Minn.; Sister Mary Virgil; Miss Josephine Putney, Minneapolis, Minn.; Sister Frances Raphael.
