OPENING OF CELEBRATION CEREMONIES

to the late Bishop McEschern and those associated with him in the original undertaking.

Today, we are celebrating seventy years of educational progress accomplished by St. Dunstan's University. Having the honour to represent His Gracious Majesty, King George V. and speaking on behalf of all of the people of the Province of Prince Edward Island, it is my duty and great pleasure to be present on this auspicious occasion and to extend hearty congratulations to all who have been instrumental in the successful progress of this University. For three quarters of a century, St. Dunstan's has exercised a powerful influence in the educational life of Prince Edward Island. Under wise guidance, and winning for itself an enviable reputation for scholarship, St. Dunstan's has expanded and its students are now drawn largely, first from Prince Edward Island, and then from other parts of the Dominion, and to some considerable extent from the Great Republic to the south of us. Its graduates have gone forth and taken outstanding positions all over Canada, the United States and elsewhere. And, perhaps to St. Dunstan's University owing to the large number of eminent prelates and distinguished men who have issued from its doors, can be attributed, more than to any other agency, the fact that Rome has seen fit quite recently to bestow a signal distinction on the leading Roman Catholic Church of this Diocese.

This University has kept splendidly in line with the progression of educational institutions in the larger centres. Its growth has been steady and each year two hundred students receive their training, and with their degrees within its hallowed walls.

Knowledge is power, and today as never before the people are recognizing the importance of education. Proof of this is found not alone in our Province but throughout the civilized world, where greater and still larger sums are being expended for educational purposes. The late Oweu Dalton, recognized this many years ago.

In St. Dunstan's and its matchless situation and picturesque surroundings, splendid accommodations furnished for the comfort and education of the students. Through the munificence of Sir Charles Dalton and others, the buildings have been enlarged and their number added to. The physical as well as the mental and moral training of the students is up-to-date.

We often hear of the benefits of living in a University town. In 1917 St. Dunstan's was made a University by Act of the Legislature of Prince Edward Island. It has the power to confer degrees in the several Arts and Faculties, so that Charlottetown has through it the proud distinction of being a University town.

Your Lordship, Mr. Chairman, when we look back to the days of the log school, and picture to ourselves the march forward on the pathway of knowledge to the magnificent institution with its matchless campus where we are gathered today, we must all feel that the hand of Providence has guided our people and that they have been taught to appreciate the incalculable benefits of education. There have been during that period, churchmen, who after gaining distinction as scholars and clergymen, have gone to their eternal reward, leaving behind them monuments in ecclesiastical edifices and seats of learning, which time shall never destroy nor weather ever efface. These are the monuments, and those who have followed in their footsteps feel that the shining examples of their predecessors shall ever be a light to their path and lamp unto their feet.

I am proud as I am gratified, to be with you today, and sincerely congratulate all concerned on the success of this celebration and the glory St. Dunstan's has attained. My fervent hope is that you shall go forward in your great endeavour, and that this institution shall ever more continue to take rank with the highest seats of learning in this great country—Canada.

In four days recently London street cars carried 7,000,000 passengers.

For the first time known, a shark and a white sturgeon were caught recently at Nova Zembla, the Arctic Island in the Kara Sea, and observers there say that this indicated that a warm ocean current has shifted so that it now skirts the shores of the island.

Mr. W. T. Bowness, our efficient storekeeper, is busily engaged in laying a cement foundation under his store.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hammill, Rev. Thomas Hammill, Mr. and Mrs. Russel McCarvell, Mrs. Elmer McLellan and Wilfred Hammill of Pictou, motored to Fernwood Sunday, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sherry.

Mr. Allison Profit and sister Miss May, were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. David Schurman, of Reading, Mass., are visiting in Bedeque, the guest of Mrs. Charles Black.
