Senate Adjourns For Easter Holidays After Supply Bill

Clashes in the Naples Strike

ROME, March 23.—The strike of port workers in all Italian ports continued today in sympathy with the Naples dock workers who walked out last week. There were several encounters at Naples today between the strikers and strike-breakers. Five hundred longshoremen at that port, armed with shovels and picks, invaded the wharves and threatened to attack the strike-breakers, but were driven off by the police, who later suspended all work on the docks because of the menacing attitude of the longshoremen.

Premier to Seek Confidence Vote

LONDON, March 23.—Parliamentary lobbies had as their principal topic for discussion tonight the decision of Premier Lloyd George to seek a vote of confidence in the House of Commons for his Genoa policy. The balance of opinion was that by this move a definite political crisis would be shelved temporarily.
