MALPEQUE

Rev. W. H. Hardy who is summing at Glenwood Lot 8, occupied the pulpit of Princetown United church on Sunday, June 16th with much acceptance. Although Mr. Harding is known to many who "listen in" yet very many heard him speak for the first time on Sunday and all regard him as a forceful speaker. His message in the morning was based on Daniel 2:44, and was listened to by a large congregation. In the evening he gave a very clear, earnest appeal, based upon the words from Acts 2:40. "Save yourselves from this untoward generation." It is understood that Mr. Harding will speak again from this pulpit, and his address will be anticipated with much interest.

Among the visitors to Malpeque on Sunday may be mentioned, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Harding, Miss Rosa Harding, Miss Alma Rogers, Mr. Leonard Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. MacDonald of Summerside and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rogers of Linkletter, Mr. and Mrs. Buntain, Miss Buntain, Mr. and Mrs. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davison, Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Davison, of Kensington, Mr. and Mrs. George Davison and the Misses Davison, and Mr. Joseph Davison of Burlington.

Shaded Area Served by Associated Gas and Electric System

Faith in the Territories Served

Over half a million dollars were spent in the Maritime Provinces by the Associated System, 1926 to 1928. Generating capacity has been increased and stabilized. Line extensions have brought electricity to 1142 new customers.

Growth in Use of Electricity

During 1928, the companies serving the Maritimes showed an increase in kilowatt hour sales over the preceding year of nearly 16%—an increase greater than for the Associated System as a whole.

This is particularly significant because in the United States where utilities are developing so rapidly, the Associated System from 1920 to 1927 showed an increase of 134% as against 101% for the entire country.

The growth period of any business offers opportunity for investment never again equalled at any time in its history.

A Morning Smile

In a certain reach of the Thames, bathing is popular in a quiet backwater, and not always, it appears, are the bathers provided with the conventional attire. Two old spinsters, who occupied a house near the pool, at last wrote to the authorities protesting against people swimming so near their home, and a notice was duly erected proclaiming "Bathing not allowed within half a mile of this spot." A few weeks later the clerk to the council received another letter from one of the women. It stated: "The bathing nuisance has not abated. My sister and I can still see the offenders with the aid of field-glasses."
