A DISASTROUS DREAM.—Her many friends will be pleased to know that the good lady living a short distance east of Summerside, who recently broke her leg under somewhat extraordinary circumstances, is now progressing well towards recovery. This lady who is greatly devoted to her poultry, dreamed that some men were in the yard stealing her chickens. In her dream she was attacked by them in the barn and jumped on to a bin and escaped through the window. In reality, only half awake, she jumped out of bed and out of the window, with the sad result. As later ascertained, there was no earthly foundation for the dream. It was merely a nightmare, induced, possibly, by the soaring price of eggs and poultry products, which is apt to get on the nerves of both producer and consumer in times like these.

Lamson & Co., London, England for $18,688.35 for silver fox furs recently sold at the London auction sales. Presented By the Guardian

This flag distribution is a patriotic effort entered into by a combination of the leading papers of the Dominion to provide the way whereby the Empire's emblem may be flung to the breeze from every house in Canada. Owing to the war the shortage of fast dye colors— which must come from abroad—had made it well-nigh impossible to secure genuine fast-color dyed flags in quantities. How to possibly secure several hundred thousand full-sized flags for this Dominion-wide movement—that became the question of the hour. This combination of Canada's greatest newspapers took up the work, and by guaranteeing what was the largest single flag order ever placed, the way was smoothed so that every reader may be prepared to unfurl from his or her home the full-sized, authentic emblem of the world's greatest and proudest Empire.

A FLAG FOR EVERY HOME.—Get ready for that great victory! Don't you KNOW it is sure to come! Patriotic Canada must be ready for it—YOU must do your part! Your flag will be ready for you so get one at once.
