

Growing up sturdy and strong on OXO CUBES

Sturdy and strong! that's how every mother wishes her children to grow up. Then give them a cup of Oxo every day. It can be made simply and quickly with Oxo Cubes.

A daily cup of Oxo works wonders in the matter of health. Sturdy children grow sturdier—backward children get rosy cheeks, gain weight, win back their appetites.

An excellent diet both for delicate children and invalids is an Oxo Cube in a glass of hot milk. Oxo renders the milk readily assimilable and vastly increases its nourishing value.

Children Like Their Cereals More — Eat More — With This Wholesome Milk

Eager to get out in the air—to play outside—the kiddies are often too impatient to eat a hearty breakfast.

Low-cost, nourishing food—like porridge and other cereals, should be made appetizing for them by using rich, creamy milk. Try them with Carnation Milk.

Serve it as rich as they like it. Part of the water has been evaporated from the milk, giving Carnation a creamy richness. For tea or coffee it is just right. You may also use it as it is for cereals. But for the children's cereal, add water to Carnation Milk.

An equal part of water reduces Carnation to a natural "whole" milk. Even more water can be added for the children's drink.

Imagine the convenience of such a milk supply! No bother with bottles—no delayed deliveries—no uncertainty as to quality, no need to buy cream.

You keep sealed cans of Carnation Milk on your pantry shelves.

Whenever you want "fresh" milk—you open a can of Carnation. You use it as any other milk—adding water of course, unless you wish to serve it as cream.

Nothing has been added to Carnation Milk—no sugar—no preservatives.

The rich "whole" milk is sealed in new clean cans, at our spotless condenseries. It is sterilized to make it safe and keep it pure.

It comes to your table pure, wholesome and rich.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Lem. Panning Brook whose lovely little daughter Muriel passed away early on Saturday morning the 6th inst at the age of one year. The little darling had been ill for two weeks, and all that could be done from a human standpoint to save her was in vain. Thus it was a very sad company that met at the house on Sunday afternoon where the Rev. Robert M. Brodie led a very solemn and pathetic service. Every heart being touched as they looked at the little white casket. In addition to the parents a brother and sister are left to mourn the absence of one who was the joy of the home. The loved one was laid to rest in the cemetery at Mount Stewart.

REV. AND MRS. J. S. MCKAY HONORED.—The following is a clipping from "The Evening Independent" of St. Petersburg, Florida: A delightful reception was given at the town hall in Gulfport in honor of the popular Canadian minister and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. McKay, of Prince Edward Island. Mr. McKay has been holding services in the Presbyterian church in Gulfport since Nov. 1 and not only the members of the congregation but other denominations as well helped to make this a long to be remembered affair. The evening was passed informally, and at the close, a purse of $75 was presented by Rev. and Mrs. McKay by Mr. M. L. Daggert as a token of appreciation and the esteem in which they are held in the community. The Guardian learns that Rev. and Mrs. McKay propose returning to their P. E. Island pastorate the latter part of April.

HOME WEDDING.—A pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. H. Cudmore, 61 Elm Ave. Wednesday evening, March 10 when his daughter, Miss Minnie Jane, became the wife of Mr. George P. Robinson, late of the second Canadian heavy artillery, the Rev. (Capt.) G. C. Taylor officiating. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of blue Copenhagen silk, trimmed with silver, and looked exceedingly pretty. She was attended by Miss Ella Johnson, who also wore a pretty blue dress. Many beautiful and costly presents were received, including a substantial check from Mr. J. K. McInnis of Regina, Sask., who is an uncle of the bride. The groom was supported by Mr. Daniel E. McKenzie. After the ceremony was performed, upwards of 60 guests sat down to a dainty and well filled table, presided over by Mrs. Fred Henderson and Mrs. S. Crockett. Games and music were indulged in till a late hour, after which they all wished Mr. and Mrs. Robinson many many years of happiness. The Guardian joins in wishing the young couple many years of wedded life and happiness.
