As You Go Through Life.

Don't look for the flaws as you go through life.

And even if you should find them, it is wise and kind to be somewhat blind.

And look for the virtue behind them, for the clouded night has a hint of light.

Somewhere in its shadows hiding, it is better by far to hunt for a star than for spots on the sun abiding.

The current of life runs ever away to the bosom of God's great ocean.

Don't set your force 'gainst the river's course.

And think to alter its motion: Don't waste a curse on the universe.

Remember it lived before you. Don't butt at the storm with your puny form.

But bend and let it go o'er you.

The world will never adjust itself to suit your whims to the letter.

Some things must go wrong your whole life long;

And the sooner you know it the better, it is fooly to fight with the Infinite.

And go under at last in the wrestle. The wise man shapes into God's good plan.

As the water shapes into a vessel.

— Ella Wheeler Wilcox.
