—FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE— Fire discovered about one o'clock this morning completely gutted a house occupied by Mr. Andrew Belleveau, Summerside. Mrs. Belleveau awoke to find the house full of smoke and the fire well under way. She and her husband had some difficulty in making their way out of the burning house. In the meantime a passer-by had turned in the alarm. The Summerside fire department responded promptly and by efficient work saved the nearby buildings which for a short time were in danger from flying cinders. It is not known how the fire originated.

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED — A delightful miscellaneous shower was held on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Jessie MacLean, who is one of this season's brides-to-be, when several of her girl friends entertained at the home of Miss Gladys Saunders. The lovely gifts were opened by Miss Evelyn MacKenzie and the accompanying verses read by Miss Margaret Mutch. The house was tastefully decorated with a profusion of flowers and autumn leaves. Refreshments were served in the dining room, where the color scheme was artistically carried out in pink and white. Miss Jean MacKenzie presided over the coffee cups, and was assisted in serving by Misses Katherine Crabbe and Gladys Saunders.

ISLANDER VICE PRESIDENT— Mr. McCarey of Baltimore, who is always interested in the success of Islanders abroad, sends the Guardian a clipping from the Baltimore Sun reporting the selection of Mr. Wilfred T. McQuaid as a vice-president of Loyola Alumni. The names of the directors, given in the same report are, Mr. McCarey states, quite prominent citizens, which goes to show that Mr. McQuaid is a real factor in his adopted home. The Guardian is always pleased to record success of this kind but regrets that our limited area compels many talented people to expand in a broader territory.

Yesterday forenoon was Holy Communion at St. James Church when there was a large congregation, and the largest number of communicants for eleven years, nine communing for the first time. The service was reverently and inspiringly conducted by the Minister, Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D.D., whose post Communion address touched all hearts.

In the evening there was again a large congregation when the Minister preached on a subject of vital interest to all,—"What do we know of the Future Life," choosing as his text the words: "In my Father's house are many mansions; were it not so I would have told you." He concluded that Heaven was a place, a home, and there are children there,

The death occurred Saturday afternoon at her home on Richmond St., of Mrs. A. B. Campbell in her 77th year. She had been in failing health for about a year. The late Mrs. Campbell, nee Annabella Cameron, was born at Hampton, Prince Edward Island and was the daughter of the late David Cameron. Her husband predeceased her sixteen years ago.

Mrs. Campbell leaves to mourn two daughters and five sons, Mrs. Alexander Logan, Brookline, Mass.; Miss Bertha Campbell, Calgary, Alberta; Allison in Victoria, B. C.; Irving in Calgary and Herbert, Chester and Louis all in Charlottetown. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. T. Sobey, Hampton, P. E. I., and Mrs. Irving Pope, Salem, Mass.

The marriage of Miss Edith MacNutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. MacNutt, to Mr. J. Thomas Davies, son of Mrs. J. J. Davies, was solemnized in the Malpeque United Church by Rev. Mr. MacMillan, at 7.30 Saturday morning, in the presence of the immediate families.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by girl friends of the bride, with autumn leaves and fall flowers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly attired in a dark brown chiffon velvet dress with matching accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses.

Following the marriage service a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Davies left amid a shower of confetti and good wishes on a honeymoon trip to Montreal and other Canadian cities.

—CARS DERAILED—On Sunday shortly after noon three cars, which were hauling gravel from the west ran off the track near Market street at the west end of Summerside. The track was torn up for some distance. A wrecking train was dispatched to the scene and the tracks were cleared in time to have the Monday morning train from the west arrive on time.—S

—DEATH OF MISS PICKERING—Friends will regret to learn of the passing of Miss Thirsa Pickering whose death occurred early Sunday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hooper Linkletter, Linkletter Road. Miss Pickering was 56 years of age and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pickering of Summerside. She was a faithful member of Trinity United Church and a constant worker for the W. M. S. She was a woman of many fine qualities and her lovable disposition won for her a host of friends who will be deeply grieved to learn of her death. The funeral is taking place this afternoon from the home of her sister, Mrs. Hooper Linkletter. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved sister in her sad loss.—S

SCOTT — MACNAUGHTON — A quiet but pretty marriage ceremony was solemnized at Zion Manse at six o'clock Wednesday evening, Oct. 9th, by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, when Miss Marian Edith MacNaughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacNuaghton of Winsloe was united in marriage to Mr. Lorne Archibald Scott, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott of Marshfield. The bride was very becomingly gowned in Turquoise blue chiffon velvet with hat and shoes to match. Her coat was of navy blue with grey fur trimming. The young couple were attended by Miss Hannah MacNaughton, sister of the bride, and Mr. Vernon Ford, the bridesmaid wearing brown silk crepe with accessories to match. Previous to her marriage Miss MacNaughton was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. A. MacWilliams, Charlottetown, where she received many beautiful and useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will reside in Marshfield. Their many friends wish them good luck.—(Patriot please copy).

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Crozier of Hamilton was the scene of a jolly gathering on Friday evening when relatives and friends tendered them a reception in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Rev. E. Lockhart of Shemogue, N. B., brother of the bride, was Master of Ceremonies.

After greetings had been exchanged, Mrs. George Lockhart of Spring Valley was called upon to read an address and Mrs. Jessie Carruthers of Carleton, presented the bride and groom a beautiful case of silver on behalf of the relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Crozier both replied in feeling terms to the expressions of goodwill contained in the address and thanked the donors most heartily for their lovely gift. Other beautiful gifts from friends were suitably acknowledged.

The evening was spent in music and singing, Mrs. Chester Simpson, and Mrs. (Rev.) E. Lockhart were the pianists for the evening.

There were about seventy guests present from far and near.

Supper was served during the evening the dining table being very prettily decorated with autumn flowers and centred with a wedding cake with silver decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Crozier received many messages of congratulation by telegram and mail bag from absent friends.

Before leaving the guests wished the happy couple many more years of congenial wedded life.—S

A QUIET WEDDING—The residence of Rev. J. M. MacLeod was the scene of a happy event when Miss Jennie Irene MacKinnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacKinnon, Graham's Road, became the bride of Mr. Earle Stirling Murray, youngest son of Mrs. John T. Murray and the late Mr. Murray of the same place. The winsome bride was becomingly attired in a gown of brown silk velvet with metallic trimmings and was attended by her sister, Miss Ada MacKinnon dressed in wine crepe. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Lionel Ford of Emerald. After having supper in town, the party motored to the bride's home, where they were met by a merry band of charivariers, who, after extending their best wishes, bounced the groom and partaking of the generous treat provided for them, proceeded quietly to their homes wishing the popular young couple every happiness. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home, which was tastefully decorated with flowers and plants and an arch of autumn leaves. The bride's dress of russet shade blended perfectly with the background of autumn foliage. Assisting the bride in opening and arranging the many and beautiful gifts were the Misses Margaret MacLeod, Josie Ready, Jennie MacKay, Winnifred Orsborne, Kathryn Coiley, Evelyn Brown and Mrs. G. Bowness, while Miss Robina Whitehead read the verses. The gifts included a sum of money from the Women's Institute of which the bride was a member. The bride, in her usual charming manner, thanked all for their lovely gifts, after which "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" was sung. A pleasant evening was then spent in music and social intercourse.

WEDNESDAY

Miss Katie Aiken, a member of the staff of the Protestant Orphanage, has recently been operated on for appendicitis in the P. E. Island Hospital. It is pleasing to report that she is making a speedy recovery.

—GOES TO THE POLLS ON 87TH BIRTHDAY—Mr. Charles Wright of Cape Traverse celebrated his 87th birthday by going to the poll on the 14th and voting for J. F. Arnett and supporting R. B. Bennett. Mr. Wright received many congratulations on reaching such an advanced age and enjoying such very good health. His many friends irrespective of their politics wish Mr. Wright many happy returns.—S.

THEFTS FROM CARS—Two valuable shot-guns were stolen from the car of William Tuplin, parked on Richmond street last night and were later recovered by Sergeant William McInnis and Constable Ben McEachern in a yard further down the street where they had been concealed. The guns left in the car after Tuplin had returned from a hunting trip were valued at $400. Members of the R. C. M. P. also arrested a man last night who will be charged with stealing a camera and a rug from a car on Prince street.

—BAD FIRE AT ELLERSLIE— The large barn and warehouse of Mr. Peter McCaull, at Ellerslie was completely destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. The fire was discovered about 2.30. A high gale was raging at the time and for a while it looked as though Mr. McCaull's residence and store would also be destroyed. Many neighbors gathered and by strenuous efforts with such means as were available prevented the fire from spreading. The barn destroyed contained a large quantity of lumber, shingles, feed, etc.

There passed away at Freetown, P. E. Island on Aug. 30th, a man who was very highly esteemed, in the person of Charles Beairsto. He was born at Spring Valley, 82 years ago, and spent his boyhood days on his fathers farm. When a young man he learned the tailors trade, which he followed until some five years ago. The late Mr. Beairsto, was a man of genial temperament, of a religious turn of mind, sociable and kindly. His company was much sought after on account of his musical talent, as well as for his other accomplishments. For many years he conducted an old time singing school, and acted as precentor in the Presbyterian Church, of which he was a loyal member.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith, East Royalty, sympathize deeply with them in the loss of their beloved daughter, Olga Mae, who passed away Sept. 29th at the P. E. Island Hospital at the early age of nine years. Death was due to injuries received in an auto accident while on her way home from school and the best of medical skill and nursing was unable to save her life.

—ELECTS TO HAVE SPEEDY TRIAL—In the case of the King vs. Charles J. U. Hickey on a charge of breaking and entering and theft the prisoner was sent up to the Supreme Court a few days ago by John E. Campbell, J. P. On Tuesday the prisoner was taken before Judge Inman to make his election as to whether he wished to be tried under the Speedy Trials Act. He elected to take the speedy trial before a Judge and the date of hearing was set down for October 22nd. Mr. J. W. MacNaught is acting for the prisoner.—S.

Town bills were passed as follows: Paid bills $2,286.59; unpaid bills $1,099.91. Electric light paid bills $457.02; unpaid bills $4,421.01. The following motion was passed with regard to that section of Beaver Street at the north of School: "That it is the unanimous opinion of the Council that a clearance of at least 25 feet be allowed between the south side of Beaver Street and the north wall of the new school building." Moved by Coun. Nicholson and seconded by Coun. MacKay. Council then adjourned until Monday next.—S.

Charlottetown mourns the loss of one of here most estimable citizens in the person of Mr. E. R. Brow, who passed away early yesterday morning after a week's illness.

Mr. Brow, who was in his 80th year, was born at Carleton, but for many years has been a resident of Charlottetown. He was in the insurance business for about thirty years being at one time Manager of the Sun Life. Later he specialized in fire insurance. He also carried on farming at Charlottetown Royalty and was the first importer of pure bred Guernsey cattle to this province. He sold out his farm to Mr. John B. Roper, and his stock to the Roper Brothers.

He was also one of the pioneers in the fox industry, being President of the Fox Breeders' Association of Prince Edward Island.

Mr. Brow was a gentleman of the highest integrity, and his passing will be deeply deplored in the community.

He was a member of the Masonic Order.

There are left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father his wife, two sons, Dr. G. R. Brow of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, at present in Charlottetown, Prof. J. B. Brow of the Prince of Wales College staff, and one daughter, Miss Nan Brow.

The friends in Charlottetown and vicinity gathered at the home of Mrs. A. MacWilliams, Elm Ave., on Oct. 3rd, to do honor to Miss Marion MacNaughton prior to her marriage to Mr. Lorn Scott, Marshfield. The room was tastefully decorated for the occasion in pink and white. The bride to be was ushered into the room by Miss Ellen Mosher and a heavily laden basket was then taken in by Misses Violet and Katie Matheson which was refilled several times. Miss Violet Matheson opened the parcels while Miss Lorane French read the accompanying verses which were witty and numerous, while Miss Ellen Mosher arranged them on the table. Marion in her usual good manner thanked the donors for their lovely gifts and invited them all to visit her in her new home. After singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" and bouncing of the bride-to-be refreshments were served by the hostess. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing and after wishing Marion many years of happy wedded life all wended their way home.

On the morning of Thursday, Sept. 26, 1935, Mrs. Isaac Smith passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Bowman, North Wiltshire, at the age of 87 years.

Mrs. Smith had not been in good health for some time, but was able to sit up until less than two weeks before the end came.

Of a quiet, retiring disposition, she lived a quiet Christian life, being a member of the United Church at North Wiltshire and of the Women's Missionary Society.

She is survived by her aged husband, two sons and six daughters, Alice having predeceased her. These are: Henry of Viscount, Sask.; Arthur, N. Wiltshire; Mary J. (Mrs. Benj. Matheson) of Brookfield; Katie (Mrs. A. Bowman) Joanna, Maggie (Mrs. K. Heatherly, Susie (Mrs. George Godfrey) all of N. Wiltshire, and Beatrice (Mrs. Harry Thompson) of Duval, Sask.; also four sisters, Mrs. D. McLeod, Sask.; Mrs. E. S. McLeod, Bridgeport, N.S.; Mrs. Livingston, Hunter River, and Mrs. George Chandler, Wheatley River.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on Saturday and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. E. Boothroyd. The pall bearers were H. Balderston, D. J. McLean, Walter Deacon, Edwin Edwards, E. N. Easter, W. R. Clark. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining the church, there to await the Resurrection.

THURSDAY

TO CONDUCT RETREAT—Rev. Fr. Augustine, C. P., Toronto, arrived in Charlottetown last night and is a guest at St. Dunstan's Basilica Priests Residence. He will preach services during the retreat which opens at St. Dunstan's Basilica next Sunday.

ATTENDED FUNERAL.—Out of respect for the memory of the late E. R. Brow, the Board of Fire Underwriters, in a body, attended his funeral yesterday. Mr. Brow was the senior member of this Organization, having been associated with the Board for many years.

PAINFUL INJURY—While coming from school Tuesday afternoon, 10-year-old Lauretta Vail left a group of her companions and started to run across the street directly in the path of a car driven by Mr. Harry Mortimer. The little girl was carried by the driver into the Polyclinic. She was later removed to the P. E. Island Hospital. Although her injuries are not serious, she will be a patient there for a day or two.

—POST NUPTIAL SHOWER— Mrs. James Hunter was hostess this week for a post nuptial shower in honour of Mrs. Fred Bingham (nee Thyra Clark), a recent bride. The bride was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Music and games made the time pass pleasantly. At the close of the evening a dainty lunch was served and the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bingham many years of happy wedded life.—S.

—GRAND LODGE VISITATION—Captain Ernest Kemp, Grand Master of the Freemasons of Prince Edward Island paid an official visit to the Summerside Lodge on Monday evening. Accompanying Captain Kemp were Grand Secretary, Mr. Williams, Past Grand Master Gregg, Deputy Grand Master Ward and Mr. Fielding one of the Grand Officers. There was a very large attendance of members. Some very instructive addresses were given and a very profitable evening spent. At the close of the business section a smoker was enjoyed.—S

JUDGMENT DELIVERED IN SUPREME COURT — Judgment was delivered in the Supreme Court yesterday in the case of the Provincial Sanatorium respondent vs. Creelman MacArthur, appellant, being an application to the Supreme Court of this Province for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada. Chief Justice Mathieson and Mr. Justice Arsenault gave judgment refusing permission to appeal, while Mr. Justice Saunders dissented. H. F. MacPhee appeared for the respondent, and Hon. Thane Campbell and David L. Mathieson for the appellant.

Many friends will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Austin MacLellan who passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Tuesday evening.

Mr. MacLellan was the son of the late Archibald MacLellan of Indian River. He was 62 years of age and was a successful fox rancher and farmer.

He leaves to mourn his widow, formerly Maggie Campbell and three children, Donald, Mary and Allan, also two brothers, John L. MacLellan in Maine, U. S. A.; and Alban in Indian River; and two sisters, Mrs. James MacDonald of Glenfinnan, P. E. Island; and Mrs. MacDonald of Butte, Montana, to whom much sympathy is extended.

F. Herbert Toyne, distinguished gray-haired British educationist likes his morning cold bath. Here with a party of educationists on a lecture tour of Canada sponsored by the National Council of Education, the Chief Education Officer for Brighton, England, says he will plunge into the near-frigid water of Charlottetown harbor this morning and its not the result of an election bet either.

"Despite warnings, I took a morning plunge at Halifax and the water here should be warmer," he remarked to astonished Charlottetonians last night.

Mr. Toyne, who is Honorary Secretary to the Association of Directors and Secretaries for Education, came here yesterday by aeroplane from Moncton, N. B. He was accompanied by D. D. Anderson, who is Inspector of Schools under the Scottish Department of Education.

Friends of Miss Mary MacDonald gathered at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacDonald, Travellers Rest, recently to bid her farewell on the eve of her departure for the United States.

After greetings had been exchanged the following address was read and a well filled purse presented to Miss MacDonald on behalf of those present.

Miss MacDonald in her usual charming manner thanked the guests for their tangible expression of good will and assured them that her friends in Travellers Rest would always have a warm corner in her heart.

After a very pleasant social evening, a dainty lunch was served and the guests departed wishing Miss MacDonald every success in her new home

In a news item from a Banff paper, Master Bob Crosby, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crosby of Banff, Alberta, is listed as being the largest winner in the school athletic meet, winning six firsts and one second, out of the seven events run off. Young Crosby has won many honours in the field of sport and last year captured the junior skating championship for Edmonton. His father is well known in Charlottetown as an athlete.

Douglas Crosby, Bob's older brother, who is attending Toronto University as an exchange student from Alberta, won the Banff golf championship, and his sister, Marion, came second in the Ladies championships. Every member of the family carried off more than one prize during the golfing season.

Mr. Louis Crosby is a son of Mrs. Albert Crosby of Summerside and a brother of Mr. Percy Crosby, St. Eleanors.—S

"It is just possible that the teachers might succeeed where politicians have failed to bring about a friendly spirit among the nations of the world," D. D. Anderson, M. C., M. A., a distinguished British educationist said last night in an address on "Scottish Education," before a large audience in Prince of Wales College Auditorium. In conclusion the speaker said "we must show the world an example within the British Commonwealth of Nations, of brotherhood and perhaps supply the leaven which will do something to bring about the day when 'man to man the world o'er shall brothers be for a' that.'"

Mr. Anderson, who is His Majesty's Inspector of Schools under the Scottish Education Department and F. H. Toyne, Education Officer for Brighton, England, who spoke on "General Education" were welcomed to Prince Edward Island by Hon. Mark MacGuigan, K. C., Minister of Education for this Province.

The death occurred at Santa Cruz, California, May 21, 1935, of James T. MacDonald, formerly of Montague, P. E. I. Mr. McDonald was 79 year sog age and had lived in Santa Cruz for sixteen years. He was a companion of the late James J. Corbett and of Rex Beach, noted author. He spent seven years in the Klondyke during the gold rush and was before retiring from active business, a concrete contractor. For many years he was connected with the United States government in construction work. Before going to Santa Cruz he resided in San Francisco. He was married in that city. In his youth he was a boxer of note and knew Jim Corbett intimately. While in the Klondyke he became acquainted with Rex Beach and was the hero of his book "King of the Klondyke."

Death occurred quite suddenly while he was listening to the radio at his home. Mr. McDonald was held in the highest esteem by his neighbors, in his church and community. He was devoted to his wife, Mrs. Virginia McDonald. He also leaves three sisters who reside in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Margaret Lemon. Mrs. Florence Campbell and Mrs. Effie McLeod and a brother, John McDonald, who lives in Montague, P.E.I.

The funeral of E. R. Brow, which was attended by a large number, was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 88 Upper Prince Street. Service at the house was conducted by Rev. J. W. Barbour, assisted by Rev. J. M. McLeod, who also conducted the service at the grave.

The honorary pall bearers were: Judge W. S. Stewart, Col. Cecil Stewart, Capt. T. G. Taylor, Dr. G. F. Dewar, Messrs. Geo. Wakefield, H W. Longworth, Arch. Irwin and Chas. Chandler.

Mr. James T. McKee was honored recently by employees of the Maritime Electric Company on the occasion of his retirement as superintendent after serving the company efficiently for the past eighteen years.

Every employee, with the exception of those on duty at the plant was present at the function which took the form of a banquet in the Blue Room of the Old Spain. Mr. Ernest Bell, chief engineer, presided.

During the course of the evening Mr. McKee was presented with a handsome club bag by the employees. Mr. Reg Cox, who made the presentation, in a brief address referred to the friendly relationship which had always existed between the employees and the "boss."

In reply Mr. McKee thanked them for their kindly remembrance and referring to Mr. Cox, line foreman, and Mr. Bell, asked them to continue giving their hearty cooperation to those officials. He complimented the office staff on their efficiency and assured them that his successor, Mr. Ainsworth, was experienced and in addition a "good fellow." Mr. McKee said he had no fear for the success of the Maritime Electric with such competent employees.

Shortly after, another presentation was made to Mr. McKee, who is an ardent angler. This was a large rubber fish, the handiwork of the "men in the plant."

A pleasing feature of the evening was a complimentary address to the guest of honor, read by Mr. Ernie McKay, on behalf of the linemen.

The employees also presented Mr. Elmer C. Harris, formerly of Summerside and now a member of the new business department, with a handsome present, the recipient having recently joined the Order of the Benedicts. Mr. Harris graciously acknowledged the gift.

The sing-song was capably led by Mr. Aubrey Ward, with Professor A. Roy Kendall, accompanist.

After the tables were cleared, introductions were in order, after which the toast to "The King" was responded to by the National Anthem.

FRIDAY

ISLANDER DEAD—Mr. W. E. Scantlebury, city, received a telegram conveying the sad news of the death at Boston, of his brother George. There were no particulars. The funeral was held at Medford, Mass., yesterday.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Henry took place this afternoon from her late residence, 306 Richmond St. The pall bearers were: Mayor Kennedy, Judge C. G. Duffy, Peter McCarron, Guy Dalling, Fred Waller and John Sims. Services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Barbour.

—RECOVERING — It is pleasing to report that little Ruth Huestis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Huestis of Beaver Street, Summerside, is making a good recovery from her unfortunate accident on Wednesday. The little girl, who is not yet two years old, fell down the cellar steps at her home, striking her head on the concrete floor, causing concussion of the brain. For some hours her life hung in the balance, but on Thursday she showed signs of returning consciousness, and it is expected she will soon be quite recovered.—S.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY — Mr. Don Baker was given a surprise party at his home on Eustane Street, Summerside on Tuesday in honour of his birthday, October 14th. This being election night the boys figured Don would be too busy keeping track of the returns so the party was arranged for the following evening. At the appointed hour his friends called and surprised the genial "Don" with gifts and hearty good wishes for many more happy returns. A jolly evening was spent in music and singing. A sumptuous supper was served by the ladies and the evening closed with singing "For he's a jolly good fellow," and "Auld Lang Syne".—S.

BOY SCOUTS EXECUTIVE—A meeting of the Executive of the Boy Scouts Association was held on Wednesday in the office of the President, Mr. J. O. Hyndman, who presided. A great deal of business was transacted. Mr. R. C. Parent, Secretary, submitted a report of the Conference of Secretaries held in Quebec, and stated that Mr. Greenway, from Ottawa, would spend a fortnight in organizing and training work here from October 28. It was decided to put on two Cub Leaders training courses, two days each, one for Charlottetown and vicinity, and the other for Summerside, Borden and Bedeque districts. Patrol Scout Leaders conferences will be held, conducted by Mr. Greenway and local staff, at Charlottetown, on November 2nd, and in Summerside on Nov. 9. Apple Day was definitely fixed for Saturday, November 16, with the same committee as last year in charge. A committee, consisting of Provincial Commissioner Morris, Messrs. Hallet and Parent was appointed to outline and report on the constitution and membership of the Provincial Council and the Executive. It was decided in future instead of having one Provincial concert and entertainment for raising funds, each troop or combinations of troops could arrange and carry through their own entertainments. The financial report showed that whereas the average expenses for the next four years would be about $1200 per year, all the revenue in sight was about $900 per annum. The preparation of the Budget was left to the incoming executive. The annual meeting was fixed for Monday, Nov. 4, at which the Provincial Commissioner's report and financial report will be submitted and the election of officer takes place.

—AUTUMN WEDDING — A very pretty autumn wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Campbell, Freetown, when their daughter, Miss Ina Martha became the bride of Mr. Isaac Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker of Kelvin. The reception room was very prettily arranged with autumn flowers for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Rhodes of Kensington under an arch of evergreens in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends. As the bride entered the room on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, Miss Olive Stavert played the Wedding March. The bride wore a lovely gown of white satin and flowing veil caught at the sides with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of gladiolus and fern. She was attended by her sister, Miss Doris Campbell, who was dressed in pink satin and carried an arm bouquet of autumn flowers. Mr. Walter Clark acted as groomsman. During the signing of the register, Mr. Ray Lidstone sang "O Promise Me." Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was served to the immediate relatives. Later in the evening a number of friends of the bride and groom held a charivari in their honor and were bountifully feasted before they left for their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Walker every happiness and good fortune. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower by her girl friends and received many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Walker will reside in Kelvin, where the groom recently built a lovely new home. The Guardian joins their many friends in heartiest felicitations.—S.

MRS. JOSEPH WISE
