THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

City Court meets at ten o'clock this morning.

Chas Boyver, has returned to Mt. Stewart after a few days visit at Covehead.

A furnished house with modern improvements is wanted. See classified column.

Miss J. Mahar, Pleasant Grove, has returned after an extended visit to Georgetown and this City.

Miss Laura E. West, Little York, has returned home after a pleasant visit with friends in Pownal.

Persons desiring information by phone about the Guardian's Big Free Trip are requested to ask Central for 132-2.

Jos. J. Doucett, Choir Master of Rustico, has returned home after a pleasant visit to his daughter, who teaches in Lake Verde.

Rev. Edwin Smith, M. A. will deliver his illustrated lecture on "Ye Ancient Colony"—Newfoundland, in the Baptist Schoolroom, on Monday, March 8th. Don't fail to hear this eloquent speaker and see the splendid views.

Now that the Arena Rink managers have been so kind as to give the rink and music free for the Y. M. C. A. skates on Friday night, the friends and members of the association should show their appreciation by turning out in large numbers and making it an eminently successful affair.

A telegram was received in this city Monday night, announcing the death in Boston, on the same day, of Dennis Murnaghan, of Donagh, Lot 35. No particulars were given, but as his father had a letter from him a few days ago, and he was then quite well, it is supposed he met with an accident. The remains accompanied by two cousins, left Boston Monday night. The deceased is a cousin of John Murnaghan of this city.

A painful accident occurred at Margate on Feb. 27th in which Floyd, youngest son of Wm. M. Howard, got his arm broken between the elbow and wrist. Both bones were broken one of them penetrating through the flesh. Medical aid was immediately summoned the bones being skillfully set by Drs. James and Brskine Kier. The accident occurred while threshing, his mit coming in contact with the pulley of the drum which at the time was running at high speed. He has the sympathy of his many friends and schoolmates.

The following clipping is from the "Statesman Index" printed in Colville, Wash. Mrs. Acorn is well known in the Province, having taught for some time at Pownal. She married J. H. C. Acorn and resided in Pownal for several years. Some time ago they moved to Colville where the above interesting event took place. Among the contestants were teachers, lawyers, editors &c., 11th and 12th Grade Pupils, but they all had to go down before the P. E. Islanders. The prize was a souvenir spoon. The Guardian heartily congratulates Mrs. Acorn and her little daughter on their success. "Well, the 'poverty soshul' happening at the high school building, and a very enjoyable as well as profitable affair it was too, something over $30 being cleared for the piano fund, "Bled shirts" and baked boots with all sorts of jewelry and fancy articles of dress paid roundly for their presence there. A new amusement called a "hold up game" by the gentleman fortunate enough to be chosen "it," was indulged in by a number of the young ladies. It consisted in the young ladies surrounding some fellow whom they imagined had a nice fat pocket book. When they had his attention fixed and he was innocently laughing and joking with his fair captors, a member of the "kompetent committee" arrived on the scene and demanded of him five for each "old maid" with whom he was flirting. About ten o'clock a ten cent lunch consisting of hot coffee and a doughnut was served. A short program was rendered. Then came the event of the evening when the Misses Mary Ide and Leonora Thomas chose up sides and an old fashioned spelling bee was on. First honors in the Match were won by Mrs. Cameron Acorn in the "grown ups" contest and by little Lillian Acorn in the children's contest held down stairs.

"For Sale, 42 shares P. E. Telephone stock par value $25.00 a share. Will sell for $27.50 a share nearly pays 6 p. c semi annually. This equals 1.2 P. C. on the investment. P. O. Box 1042, Charlottetown, P. E. I. 2-25d6ipa.

Jos. Peters, Rustico, was in the City yesterday.

There were no cases tried before the City Police Court yesterday.

Miss Amy R. West, Little York, spent Sunday with friends in Pownal.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.17 and tomorrow morning at 9.58.

Chas. Hynes and family of Darnley are not leaving for Western Canada until June.

Eddy J. Vessey, Little York, spent Sunday at Pownal the guest of William H. Drake.

Guardian readers are pleased to learn that Michael Murphy of this City is steadily improving in health.

J. A. McLaren, City, sailed from St. John Friday by the G. P. R. Empress of Britain on a trip to the Old Country and Europe.

A writer to the Wesleyan says, Rev. Mr. Pascoe of Petitoctiac, well known in this Province, is much missed in Salisbury, N. B., his former charge.

Everyone should reserve Tuesday evening March 9, for Rev. T. Campbell's lecture—Subject "Institutions of Chivalry" in Knights of Columbus Hall.

The fourth regiment band have kindly volunteered to give their services free for the Y. M. C. A. benefit skate and band concert on Friday night.

Miss Carrie Morrison, Darnley, is leaving shortly for Western Canada to open up a large dressmaking and millinery establishment. She will be greatly missed by her many friends as she is a great favorite and leader in social matters.

The Rev. J. K. King, of Boietown, N. B., well known in this Province, has been visiting the lumber camps and preaching to the men says the Wesleyan. His services are appreciated as evidenced by the fact that the men recently made him a donation of $20.50.

Rev. D. R. Chown of Pownal will preach at Vernon River Methodist Church, Sabbath morning, March 7th and at Cherry Valley in the afternoon, exchanging with Rev. George Orman who will preach at Pownal in the morning and at Mill View in the afternoon of that day.

Alex Gillis local manager of the Earl Co., St. John, arrived in this City yesterday from Georgetown. Mr. Gillis received a telegram on Saturday advising him of the illness of his father, Neil M. Gillis of Orwell, and left immediately for home. Mr. Gillis however peacefully passed away on Sunday last, before his son could reach his bedside. The Guardian sincerely sympathizes with the bereaved relatives.

There was a good attendance at the City market yesterday, the principal change being in pork which sold at eight and one half to nine cents per lb, eight dollars per ton was asked for pressed hay, forty cents per bus, for white oats and forty two for black, butter per lb twenty three to twenty four cents, pressed straw per ton five dollars and loose straw per cwt. twenty-five to thirty, geese one dollar to one twenty-five each, chickens and ducks seventy-five to one dollar per pair and turkey per lb sixteen to eighteen cents.

The lovers of turf sports in French River can be seen every evening enjoying a drive behind their speed marvels on the good ice. Among those worthy of mention are Elmer McLeod's pacing filly Park Rita and Edward Stewart's trotting colt Lost Heir, both of these colts show extreme futurity speed at their respective gait. Of the matured class some speedy ones are now to be seen and feared; in the Whirlwind Trotter Happy George owned by Geo. Campbell, the sensational Lady Sims owned by Jas Sims, and the grandly galloping trotter, Brazallan Boy owned by Boyce Harding, last but not least is the pacing Stallion Parkmonts, the property of George McKenzie, and the sire of the above mentioned colts. These horses will be looked upon to uphold the equine speed reputation of this place, in the events of a meeting of the local horsemen taking place on the ice in the near future. Com.

"A good lecture for a good cause. Hear Rev. T. Campbell in Columbus Hall on Tuesday evening March 9th. Subject "Institutions of Chivalry."
