ECHOES FROM ST. CHARLES NEE MANSFIELD.

On the evening of the 18th ult., the rate-payers of the Mansfield school district met at the school house for the purpose of changing the name of the place. At half past seven, the house was called to order by P. McLellan who acted as chairman for the committee. The following resolution was then put before the house and unanimously adopted: Resolved that the place now bearing the name Mansfield be henceforth known as St. Charles. The object of this change was that the name Mansfield bore such a similarity to that of Marshfield, that mail matter intended for either place often miscarried, causing great delay and inconvenience.

T. R. Gorman, a student of St. Dunstan's College, has been here spending his Christmas holidays, the honored guest of W. McCarthy. We were all glad to see Mr. Gorman in our midst once more. And when he took his departure on the 11th inst. to resume his studies he carried with him the good wishes of his many friends here.

J. L. Kennedy has come amongst us once again to instruct the youth of this place. The people of St. Charles are to be congratulated in having secured the services of Mr. Kennedy, as he is a gentleman and quite capable of discharging the many duties imposed upon him.

Among the visitors to St. Charles last week were E. Dickson and G. Burke. Among the many ways of passing an enjoyable winter evening here may be found a well organized debating society, which is at present in a flourishing condition. The writer had the good fortune of attending one of the meetings of the society and feel him- self justified in saying that the people of St. Charles should be proud of their debating society. I will here give a brief account of the meeting. The house was called to order about seven o'clock with P. A. Cahill in the chair. T. R. Gorman was then called upon to open the meeting by explaining the subject which was brought up for discussion. The subject was "who gains the more information the reader or the traveller." Mr. Gorman having explained the subject in an eloquent manner also congratulated the society for the success with which the meetings were progressing. The side of the reader was strongly upheld by J. L. Kennedy, M. Power, Neil McIsaac and others. The opposite side was more strongly defended by T. R. Gorman, J. Shea, J. Gorman, William McCarthy and M. Gorman. After many beautiful and edifying orations on both sides the votes were taken that of the traveller ruling by an overwhelming majority.

DISLOCATED HER SHOULDER.
Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Ferguson Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. For sale by all druggists.

At it again harder than ever.—E. Cameron.

STARTLING STORY OF MRS. ADAMS

Stricken With Bright's Disease, all Hope of Life was Abandoned.

Her Restoration to Health Causes a Sensation in the Medical World.

Doctors Gave Her up, but Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her Completely.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont. Jan. 18.—(Special.)—While Canada stands aghast at the terrible inroads Bright's Disease is making on the ranks of the brightest and best of her citizens; while the medical profession stand helpless before the dread destroyer of life, Collingwood has among her citizens one who knows all its terrors, who has been carried down by it till the portals of death were open to receive her, and who today is a strong, healthy, happy woman—a woman who knows Bright's Disease in all its hideousness, but who fears it not, because she knows its cure.

Mrs. Thomas Adams is this lady's name, and she has now been a resident of Collingwood for a year and a half. Before that she lived in Burk's Falls, where she is widely known and highly respected. Mrs. Adams feels it her duty to speak of the good news all over Canada, all over the world, that she has found a cure for Bright's Disease, and that cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

MRS. ADAMS' STORY.

"Yes," she said, when interviewed regarding her case, "my friends can tell you how terribly ill I was. My doctor pronounced it Bright's Disease and Sciatica, but I got no relief from anything he gave me. It was Dodd's Kidney Pills that drove away the terrible disease, raised me from my bed of suffering, and made me a well and happy woman."

"I was for years troubled with a pain in my back, at times I would have to keep my bed. In March, 1900, I got so bad with pains in my back and hip that I was more helpless than an infant, and at times gave up all hope of getting well. I had no power of my back or limbs."

"I was for eight months an invalid, and my sufferings during that time were something too terrible for words to describe. My doctor said I had Bright's Disease, but he could do nothing to give me relief."

HOW THE CURE CAME.

"I was then a friend of my husband induced me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I had no faith in them, for I never expected to get better. But I tried them, and I thank God that I did. They brought me relief almost from the first, and after taking three boxes I was able to do my own work and look after my children."

"It is twelve years since I started using Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I have not had a return of my trouble since. When I feel a little cut of sore I just get a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and they drive all the poisons away."

It is needless to say Mrs. Adams' friends all use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They find that a remedy that cures Bright's Disease is equally effective of all the earlier stages of kidney complaint.
