Lenten Pastoral Letter Arouses Ire of Hun Governor

LONDON, March 23.—Governor General Voyn Bissing, according to a letter to Cardinal Mercier regarding the latter's Lenten pastoral to which allusion has already been made in despatches, says Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent. The German general's letter is as follows: "There can be no doubt that I never prevent your eminence from communicating to your flock whatever the Holy Father wishes them to know through you, but besides indulging in political statements against which I decidedly protest. It is quite inexcusable that your eminence should raise unjustified hopes regarding the issue of the war.

"Thus for instance, your eminence has mentioned inaccurate utterances of persons who are not in touch with the events and who certainly cannot be called experts. You speak of the possibility that a decision such as you desire could be expected by the spreading of diseases. By such arbitrariness you cause among a creditable population noxious excitement and induce them to oppose the administration work of these who are in occupation of the country. Especially inadmissible in a pastoral letter is a hint at menace to the religious liberty of the people of the occupied territory. Your eminence knows best how completely unjustified is this suspicion.

"In these circumstances I shall henceforth sternly prosecute any political activity and any stirring up of hostile sentiment against the authority of the occupying powers, which is legitimate, according to international law. It hitherto I submitted offences of the clergy to your eminence for punishment I must desist from this procedure, because your eminence sets an example of insubordination and therefore no success can be expected from your intervention.

"Your eminence will once more reply that I misunderstood individual passages of the pastoral letter. As such a controversy is wholly fruitless I have no intention to reopen it, no more over. I am firmly resolved now more to allow your eminence to abuse a high office by political agitation for which ordinary citizens will be called to account. I warn your eminence to desist from political activity."

One of the most severe storms of the spring months will occur during the first week in April. Among its features will be heavy rains followed by a cold wave that will carry frosts as far south as northern Texas, middle Arkansas, western Tennessee, northern Georgia, northern Alabama and middle north Carolina.

ed was born at Kelly's Cross, where he resided and carried on farming very successfully until 1902, when he removed to Souris and purchased the splendid property known as the "Park Farm." Here, as at his former place of residence, his thrift, industry and good management was rewarded with success and soon placed him among the leading farmers of King's County. Sober, upright and honorable, he was a good citizen, a worthy member of St. Mary's parish, a good neighbor, a kind husband and loving father, and was deservedly respected by all who knew him. His funeral on the 11th inst. to St. Mary's Church, was largely attended, the Benevolent Irish Society of which he was an esteemed member, marching at the head of the procession. Requiem Mass was sung by the Pastor, Rev. R. P. McDonald. Rev. John A. McDonald officiating at the grave. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing wife, five daughters, Mrs. Joseph Boulaime and Mrs. J. The pall bearers were: Dr. Sullivan, Messrs. Bernard Creamer, Edward Paquet, John Truett, an, John Cummings and Daniel McIsaac. May his soul rest in peace.

IN MEMORIAM

PATRICK MALONE

The many friends of Mr. Patrick Malone, Souris, will regret to hear that he departed this life at his home "Park Farm," on the 9th inst. in the sixty-ninth year of his age. Although the deceased had been in delicate health for some months he was not confined to his room and his family and friends cherished the hope that he would regain his health and strength but, sad to say, these fond hopes were not to be realized. On the 5th inst. the deceased's illness took an acute form to combat which the best medical skill was unavailing and four days later, after being fortified for his last rites by the Holy Church, administered by Rev. John A. McDonald, and surrounded by his family and friends, he peacefully breathed his last. His death coming in one short month from that of his lamented son, Ambrose, adds to the poignancy of the blow to his bereaved wife and family, who have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their double bereavement.
