

IF YOU WISH TO BE A JUST MAN,

Give Your Stomach a Chance to Do Its Duty.

Don't Drive it to Death—Take a Couple of Boxes of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and You Needn't Worry—They Cure Any and All Stomach Diseases.

All the doctors of all the countries in the world were to meet in consultation and, after due deliberation, draft a prescription for the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Waterbrash, Foul Breath, Colic of the Stomach, their experience would not produce a better remedy than Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are Nature's Medicine. They are what Nature uses to cure the diseases named. They never fail—they always cure.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure stomach diseases by digesting the food in the stomach. Food must be digested. The stomach ought to digest it. But if the stomach can't do so what happens?

What does a sensible man do when he falls sick and can't do his own work? He gets another man to do it for him.

Exactly. And that's what you do, if you are sensible, when your stomach gives out, and can't digest the food—get Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets to digest it. They'll do it—quickly, faithfully, naturally, and effectually.

There is only one way of curing Dyspepsia, Indigestion, etc. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure it in that way. Therefore, if you have Indigestion, Dyspepsia, etc., and want to be cured, you must use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The small, brown Tablets found in each box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets they cure any case of Stomach Disease. If you don't believe it—test them. They'll convince you by curing you.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists, at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or will be sent, on receipt of price, by The Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

TURGENEFF ABHORS SPORT.

How a Dying Pheasant Influenced His Whole Career.

The celebrated Russian novelist, Turgeneff, tells a most touching incident from his own life, which awakened in him sentiments that have colored all his writings with a deep and tender feeling.

When Turgeneff was a boy of 10, his father took him out one day bird shooting. As they tramped across the brown stubble a golden pheasant rose with a low whirr from the ground at his feet, and with the joy of a sportsman throbbing his veins he raised his gun and fired, wild with excitement, when the creature fell fluttering at his side. Life was ebbing fast, but the instinct of the mother was stronger than death itself, and with a feeble flutter of her wings the mother bird reached the nest where her young brood were huddled, unconscious of danger. Then, with such a look of pleading and reproach that his heart stood still at the ruin he had wrought, and never to his dying day did he forget the feeling of cruelty and guilt that came to him in that moment, the little brown head toppled over, and only the dead body of the mother shielded her nestlings.

"Father, father," he cried, "what have I done?" as he turned his horror-stricken face to his father. But not to his father's eye had this little tragedy been enacted, and he said: "Well done, my son. That was well done for your first shot. You will soon be a fine sportsman."

"Never, father, never again shall I destroy any living creature. If that is sport, I will have none of it. Life is more beautiful to me than death, and since I cannot give life I will not take it."—Atlanta Constitution.

Indifferent as to the King. He was a fragile youth and didn't dance all the dances.

"Let's sit it out," he said to his pretty partner.

"Where?" she asked.

"On the stairs."

So they went up a little way and sat down.

"Wh-why, what's the matter, Mr. Stackpole?" cried the fair young girl, for the young man had hastily risen and was gasping for breath. He could not reply. His face was livid. His eyes were rolled up, and with one shaking hand he clawed feebly at the skirts of his tuxedo.

"What kind of an attack is it?" she gasped.

At this question his voice came back to him.

"What difference does that make?" he harshly growled. Then, without a word of apology, he dashed up the Arithmetic and Medicine.

It is an honest quackery that confesses its own blunders, still ignorant that they are nothing worse.

A whaling skipper, in the old days, carried a medicine chest and a table of directions. One of the rules ran, "For sore throat with fever, give a tablespoonful of No. 15."

"Well, it so happened," explained the captain, "that No. 15 was all used up, so I gave the man a dessertspoonful of No. 5 and another of No. 10, and I don't think the chap that drew up the table could have been good at figures; or else, what's just as likely, the medicines were all shams. Either way, it was hard on poor Bill. He died in half an hour, with a dreadful pain in his inside."—Exchange.

To "knock the spots off anything" is an allusion to the traditional skill of western cowboys and famous rifle shots, who would shoot the spots out of a card held between the fingers of a friend.

MANY YEARS A DYSPEPTIC.

Mrs. Joseph Tennier, Hopetown, Que., could get no relief until she tried Laxa-Liver Pills, which cured her.

Another sufferer freed from Dyspepsia by Laxa-Liver Pills.

Another one who tried all sorts of remedies and doctors' treatment without avail, and who had to come to Laxa-Liver Pills at last for a cure.

Mrs. JOSEPH TENNIER, Hopetown, Que., recently wrote as follows: "For several years I had been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache, and could get nothing to do me any good, until I tried Laxa-Liver Pills. I had taken many remedies and was attended by different doctors without being cured, and had given up all hope of ever getting well, when a friend advised me to take Laxa-Liver Pills. I have used in all seven bottles, and I have made a complete cure. I have told hundreds of people that Laxa-Liver Pills are the best medicine in the world." Price 25¢.

CABOT'S CREOSOTE SHINGLE STAINS

These stains give a remarkably artistic coloring effect, especially adapted to the shingle work of the modern style or house, whether on 100 of sides, an effect that can be got in no other way. It is rich and soft and very different from the gloss and glare of paint.

The stains can be applied with a brush as paint is, after the shingles are laid, or the shingles can be dipped in the stain. 1 Gallon will cover 150 square feet.
