WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Monaghan, Hazelbrook, it being the celebration of their eleventh anniversary. There were upwards of twenty-five guests and all seemed to possess that jolly spirit that accompanies such an occasion.

The evening was spent in dancing and singing, the music being very capably furnished by Mr. Alfred Stewart and Mr. Ewen Martin, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Alfred Stewart and Miss Annie Praught.

During the evening an address was read by Miss Belle Coady, and Mr. and Mrs. Monaghan was presented with a beautiful chair by Mrs. Alfred Coady.

The following was the address: Dear Mr. and Mrs. Monaghan:— It gives us great pleasure, we your friends and neighbours gathered together here this evening, to congratulate you on this the eleventh anniversary of your wedded life. We feel it would be out of place on our part, to let the evening go by, without expressing in some small measure, our gratitude for your kindness and hospitality, not only on this occasion, but at any time we have the privilege of visiting you. During your wedded life the harmony that exists in the home cannot but be admired. Please accept this small gift as a token of our esteem and friendship, and may your future years be as prosperous and happy as they have been in the past. Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Coady, Mr. and Mrs. William Coady, Joseph Driscoll, Leigh McEachern, Belle Coady.

Mr. and Mrs. Monaghan were greatly surprised and repelled in fitting terms, thanking the people for their kindness and expressing the hope that they would all meet again in some future time. An excellent supper was then served in Mrs. Monaghan's usual dainty style. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, when after singing God Save the King, all dispersed to their homes, feeling that a very enjoyable evening had been spent, and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Monaghan continued years of happiness.

FUR TRADE CONFERENCE

To be held at Montreal, February 19-20, 1920

The investigations of the Commission of Conservation have demonstrated the importance of Canada's fur trade and that the advancement of fur farming calls for a better understanding and regulation of this industry. For this purpose, a conference of fur farmers, trappers and fur dealers will be held at Montreal on Thursday and Friday, February 19 and 20.

The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father. She looked very charming in a brown charmeuse and georgette frock. After the ceremony which took place at two o'clock Mr. and Mrs. MacPhail left on the afternoon train for Borden from whence they will go to Halifax and from there to New York. The bride's travelling costume was a brown tailored suit while she wore a black velvet hat with gold trimmings and a set of Hudson furs, the gift of the groom. On Monday evening a large number of the friends of the bride met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Allen when she was the recipient of a flattering demonstration of popularity. The members of the Methodist Church congregation and choir were largely represented and testified keen appreciation of the bride's church work. The possessor of splendid vocal talent, her singing not only in church services but in all spheres of charitable and patriotic endeavor has been a valuable asset to the community. On behalf of the congregation and choir Rev. Mr. Rice extended thanks to the bride and also handed her a substantial cheque as a token of their appreciation of her services. The bride received a large and varied number of valuable and useful presents.

DESCRIBES ISLANDER AS A REMARKABLE PREACHER

(Sydney Post, 19th, inst.) There has come to Sydney lately a remarkable preacher in the person of Rev. Geo. B. McLeod, formerly of Westville and Truro, but recently of Deer Park Church, Toronto.

Mr. McLeod, is a native of Prince Edward Island. He was educated in Dalhousie where he graduated in Arts taking that degree. His theological course was wholly undergone in Princeton University.

The Reverend gentleman although supposed to be enjoying a much needed period of relaxation from his duties at the important charge in Toronto, has consented to occupy the pulpit of St. Andrews for the next three months, and this in accession to the request of the committee of the Forward Movement of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Yesterday Mr. McLeod, occupied St. Andrew's pulpit morning and evening at the first service his text was from 2 Cor. 5.7, "For we walk by faith, not by sight." The address was effective, illuminating and eloquent throughout, and the large congregation listened with eagerness and profit as he pictured the walk of faith.

In the evening a crowded church awaited Mr. McLeod and the worshippers were certainly gratified to the full. His text was from Psalm 119. 11 "Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee. After a particularly fine introduction, he proceeded to elaborate the subject. He stated that God's word is first, a Book of Laws, "God the Creator and Ruler of the universe has stamped his Law upon everything in it. Not a planet swings in its orbit but in obedience to His Law, and every atom is subject to its operation. The tiny pebble cast into the placid waters of the lake sends circling ripples shoreward, the splash of the paddle and the dip of the oar produce ruffles of the surface, and all are in obedience to some Law of the Creator."

Second, it is a Book of Liberty. It is "the great Magna Charta of Liberty of freedom to those who make it the span of their counsel." The historical "Magna Charta" a wrested liberty from King John for the Barons only though in time "the people" shared it, but the Bible proclaims liberty and freedom to all who come within its range. The superiority of race is to that never gripe, sicken or inconvenience one like Salts, Oil, Calomel or hush Pills. They work while you sleep.

under the auspices of the Commission

The meetings will be attended by the leading authorities on the fur trade and the most prominent fur farmers. Among the subjects to be discussed will be the regulation of the fur trade, protection of wild life, diseases of and feeding of fur-bearing animals in captivity, establishment of a herd-book for registration of foxes, and the best fur-bearing practice.

Fur farming has passed the experimental stage and is now on a solid commercial basis. Prices of furs are advancing some of them having made phenomenal gains. This will no doubt tend to increase the number of those engaged in the raising of animals for their skins, as well as to include in the industry many species not now reared in captivity. The Commission of Conservation extends an invitation to all interested to attend the conference.

holds, or were stranded in shoal waters. Indicating the stress to which the coast guard service has been put in, it was said that there was no cutting available when the Lake Harney called for help and the aid of private craft had to be secured.

Nantucket Island is reported cut off by ice, and a wireless message from the Holland-American liner Noordam states that she is putting into Halifax, her coal supply exhausted in her battle with the stormy Atlantic.

New York Harbor for the first time this winter was filled with floating ice. Snow accompanied by mist, made navigation hazardous and nearly every vessel that came in had her bows encrusted with ice from flying spray.

According to information received in Halifax early Tuesday morning, the five hundred passengers are still on board of the American army transport Powhatan, which is disabled two hundred miles south of Halifax. The weather was not favorable for the transfer of any passengers to the steamer Cedric on Monday. The Big White Star liner stood by the disabled craft all day, but was unable to make an attempt to take off the passengers.

It is reported that a fleet of American destroyers are racing full speed to the aid of the Powhatan and that they will reach the scene shortly.

According to information from a reliable source, these destroyers will take off the passengers. Whether the passengers will be brought to Halifax or taken to an American port, is not known.

The steamer Cedric having completed arrangements with the destroyers by wireless, and notified those aboard the Powhatan of the coming of the war craft, has resumed her voyage to New York.

Since early on Monday night, the wirelss aboard the Powhatan has been silent. The gale of wind, which has been blowing steadily for forty-eight hours is abating and milder conditions with some flurries now prevail.
