

CARRIE NATION'S WILL

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The will of Carrie Nation, who died at Leavenworth, Kan., Friday night, was filed in the probate court here yesterday. The will was executed in 1907 and in it Mrs. Nation declared herself to be a resident of Washington. The estate disposed of by the will is valued at about $10,000, consisting of houses and lots in Guthrie and Shawnee, Okla., an account of $1,000 in an Alexandria, Va., bank and a life insurance policy. To the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the state of Kansas, Mrs. Nation bequeathed her book of "My Life," and all rights there under. She leaves $60 a month to Charlton A. McNab, the only child of Mrs. Nation, provided she is not in an insane asylum, but the provision is not to be allowed if she is so confined. In the event of the death of the daughter a house and three lots in Guthrie are to go to the Free Methodist church of Oklahoma. Mrs. McNab's children are to receive $500 each. The remainder of the estate is to be given to the Carrie Nation Home for Drunkards' Wives and Widows, at Kansas City for a home for children twelve years and under.

Sunlight Soap

Dainty garments—fine household linen—these are worthy to be cleansed only with the purest and safest of Soaps—Sunlight. First, soap the garment with Sunlight—then roll it up to soak. After a while, rinse well and the dirt just drops out. No weary, hurtful rubbing is at all necessary. Could safer, saner, easier, washing methods be devised? Just try a cake of Sunlight and see that what we say is true. Note, too, that "Sunlight" treats your hands kindly.

is undoubtedly the coming sire of P.E. Island. He will surely prove a Nutwood's horse. Just to see his first crop of colts one must be convinced. They are all large, perfect in conformation, smoothly finished, and a breed's appearance. All bays or chestnuts with white star, and hind ankles white, beautifully marked. His dam is Chestnut, one of the greatest producing mares on the Allen Stock Farm, her winnings selling for $500.00. All owners of his foals, who has a mare to breed, are breeding back to him again, and bringing a lot more with them. This is the highest mark of honor that could be paid him. If you are undecided where to breed your mare, go see one of his colts, and the question will be settled at once. He will be home until Tuesday morning June 20 when he will leave owners stables for John M. Nicholson's, Dundas, noon and over night, Wednesday morning June 21, to Hughie McMillan's, Head St. Peters Bay, noon, John Phelan's, Morell over night, Thursday forenoon to James Mooney's, Peakes Station, remaining until 6 o'clock Home again that night.
