"Wintertime" Gay Musical

Set against the background of the snow-capped mountains of Canada, "Wintertime," 20th Century-Fox's new musical starring Sonja Henie, which will start its run at the Prince Edward Theatre today is a tuneful comedy that has plenty of laughs, pretty girls and lifting songs.

In addition to Sonja Henie, the cast includes Jack Oakie, with wise-cracks and advice galore; Cesar Romero, dashing after and away from the women as usual; Carole Landis, jovely and after her; and Woody Herman and his famous orchestra.

Featured among the skating routines is a dramatic number known as the Snowbird sequence. There is a chorus of 48 skaters who perform in this number with Sonja.

The girls do their dance on skates to the incomparable rhythms of Woody Herman's orchestra. Included among the songs penned by Leo Robin and Nacio Herb Brown, are "Wintertime," "Like It Here" and "Dancing in the Dawn." The title tune is a stand-out while the novelty numbers include "Dance and Dream" and "I'm All A-Twitter Over You." The best tunes, it is said, in many a moon.

Delinquency in "Kids" Film

With the question of juvenile delinquency so much a part of the newspaper headlines today, attention is naturally drawn to the picture that gives home the disturbing question being raised on all sides: where are our children?

The monogram film starring the East Side Kids shows what children do well-to-do homes can't see as well as what the unfortunate ones with no social background, Johnny Duncan, who plays the role of boy Corcoran, is a wealthy insurer. The boy seems excited by mingling with gangsters who commit street robberies.

Thanks to the intervention of the East Side Kids, who have less advantages but more character, the boy is finally brought back to his home, and is made to see how foolish he was in the selection of his companions.

Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell and Billy Benedict star in the film. Others in the cast are Louise Currie, Herbert Hayes, Noah Beery, Sr., Stanley Brown, Iris Adrian and Patsy Moran. The picture was produced by Kitzman and Jack Dietz and was directed by Wallace Fox from an original screenplay by Frank H. Young.

MARCH 23, 1940—Dominion election advance voting for Canada's 82nd general election ended. Hun-Canadian Premier Count Teleky arrived in Italy for conferences with Premier Mussolini. German planes made reconnaissance flights over Scottish east coast.

"The Black Hangman Strikes"

Four American flying cadets, Danny Collins (Johnny Downs), Screpper Mackay (Ward Wood), Jinx Roberts (Bobby Jordan) and Zombie Parker (Billy Benedict) seek the identity of masked killer calling himself the Black Hangman.

Two murders are committed by the slayer in the opening chapter of Universal's thrilling new 13-episode serial, "Adventures of the Flying Cadets," coming today to the Capitol Theatre.

When the boys' benefactor is next doomed, it becomes obvious that the Hangman is intent on wiping out members of an expedition which sought a hidden treasure in Africa several years previously.

Anxious to warn their friend of his danger, sanny and Scrapper borrow a plane from the school. They run out of fuel and make a forced landing on a railroad right-of-way—as a crack train crashes into them.

MONTAGUE

The March meeting of the Young Women's Guild of the Presbyterian Church was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Claude Nicholson, 412 Queen St. East, on Tuesday evening, March 21st. In the absence of the president, Mrs. L. A. Green, the meeting was opened by the hymn "Bless Be the Tie That Binds." The Scripture Lesson was read by Mrs. Byron Stewart, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. During the business period, plans were made to have a supper later in the month. At the close of the meeting, lunch was served by Mrs. Nicholson.

Mrs. Eugene MacDonald, Charlottetown, spent the weekend in Montague, guest of Mrs. Harry MacLean.

Mrs. C. Hopkins, Charlottetown, spent the weekend in Montague, guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Green.

Miss Thelma Larter spent the weekend visiting her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Rendie Larter, Charlottetown.

The friends of Mrs. M. F. MacDonald are pleased to learn of her recovery from a recent accident.

MADAME MANNERS SAYS

A new respect for food is changing the rules of etiquette. It is no longer considered ill-mannered to tip the plate to get the last drop of soup. It's better to pick up a chop bone or a drumstick in your fingers than to waste the meat.

CO-OPERATIVE FISHING

Coastguard blimps now flash word to west coast fishing fleets when they spot schools of fish offshore.

at Easter. The making of crib quilts was discussed but nothing definite decided. As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.
