A very serious typographical error occurred yesterday in the advertisement of the Great-West Life Assurance Company, making the percentage of increase in business for 1910 over 1909, read five per cent, when it should have read fifty per cent. In justice to the Great-West Life the ad. is repeated correctly this morning.

A. W. Hafl, No. 12 Fulton Market, New York, gives personal attention to consignments of fresh fish, lobsters, smelts and eels from this Province, as well as seen by his ad. elsewhere. Mr. Hafl's large experience enables him to carry on a most successful business, and shippers will find it greatly to their advantage to ship direct to the transfer agents, S. B. Wiley & Sons, Boston.

R. K. Jost of Boston, spent Sunday in the city as the residence of W. B. Knight, on the corner of Charlottetown, where he accompanied the remains of his mother, who died at his home in Boston on the 24th inst. Mrs. Jost was the widow of the late Jeremiah Jost, who some years ago was pastor of the Methodist Church here and was a daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Knight and a sister of W. B. Only a few fans turned out on Saturday night to see the wrestling bout in the Cecil Theatre between Dan McDonald, the Cape Breton wrestler, and three local men, Longley, McGrath and Whiteshane. McDonald undertook to throw the three men in forty-five minutes, and he completed his task in a little less time. McDonald had little difficulty in throwing either of the three and merely toyed with them. After the bout he demonstrated some of his best wrestling holds.—St. John Ex.

The annual meeting of the Wood Islands congregation was held on Monday, January 2nd, at eleven o'clock a. m. Rev. D. Mackenzie, the pastor, occupied the chair. The secretary, William M. Crawford, read the minutes of the last annual meeting, which was sustained. Daniel McLaren, treasurer, gave in his report, which was full, clear and showed the congregation was in good condition financially. All obligations during the past year have been fully met and the congregation begins the new year clear of debt. The Ladies' Aid and Christian Endeavor have done excellent work. Grateful mention was made of the bequest of the late Mrs. McLean, who died during the year. John Beaton was appointed care-taker for the ensuing year in place of John Young. The meeting was large and representative, and it was felt by those present that it was one of the best annual meetings ever held in Wood Islands Church.

We have a few nice packages of perfumes and chocolates left which will make acceptable New Year's gifts. Liberal discounts will be given on some for a few days. You should call early as these goods are being picked up quickly. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

The last issue of St. Dunstan's Red and White is perhaps one of the best of the College Quarterlies the staff has yet produced. In it there is discussed in a manner exhibiting close attention to the transpiring events of the day topics relative to current happenings. The subjects are all treated in a manner which would reflect credit on statesmen. The attractive little volume is replete with original articles suiting varied literary tastes and is deserving of a place in any library.

A Guardian representative was shown a line of calendars, wall pockets and novelties by the Bonnell Advertising Agency. This line was supplied principally by the Novelty Manufacturing Company of Toronto, and is truly a remarkable showing. Many facsimiles of famous water color and oil paintings, small and large are shown—articles of utility and beauty. Included in the showing are true works of art, exquisite color designs and creations, harmonious color schemes and unique creations that characterize their line as a really distinctive, high-class work with the finger prints of artists of renowned ability. A representative of this firm is now calling on the trade, and will no doubt, meet with the success such a line deserves. This popular local firm kindly requests business men to hold their order until they see their samples.

Railroad officials, engineers and conductors are giving a hearty welcome to the NEW HOWARD RAILROAD WATCH. The HOWARD balance is of steel—specially hard tempered. It will not knock out of true when the engine slams her flanges against a curve at top speed. It pulsates steadily despite the quiver of a train doing a sixty mile clip. HOWARD special Railroad dial has minute numerals from 1 to 60 running around the dial. A single glance tells the number of minutes past the hour. Price fixed by a printed ticket attached at the factory, 50c to 1.50.00. Let us show you this distinctive watch.

GOOD AND POOR FOOD

Some Questions and Their Answers

Why is it that one housewife can make a good loaf of bread from a standard brand of flour, while another makes a very inferior article? It is because one woman "knows how," while the other does not. The same thing is true in making biscuits; a very great deal depends upon the baker. The J. A. Marven Limited have in their employ one of the very best bakers in Canada, a man of successful experience, whose specialty is making White Lily Cream Sodas, which are "simply delicious." Put up in Airtight packages. Ask your grocer for them.
