THE UNREADY STANLEY.

SIR.—The Patriot says that there are 60 cars of freight at Pictou for P. E. I. What an inconvenience this is to merchants! Why was not the Stanley ready for service last week when the summer boats had to lay up? Why is she now sent to Summerside when she should be plying between Charlottetown and Pictou where she would be some use in conjunction with the Minto and giving all P. E. I., including Summerside, a daily instead of a tri-weekly mail and passenger service and an up-to-date freight service? Why is the Charlottetown Board of Trade not heard from and how long will this inconvenience continue?

An Emergency Medicine.

For sprains, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one third the time required by the usual treatment. As it is an anti-septic all danger from blood poisoning is avoided. Sold by all druggists.
