DOROTHY DIX SAYS—GIRL AFFLICTED WITH FIRST LOVE NEEDS REAL GUIDANCE

Mothers Must Give Careful Attention When Daughters Reach the Age of Thinking About Marriage

Dear Dorothy Dix—While attending school in a large city last winter my daughter, 20 years of age, met a young man nine years her senior with whom she fell violently in love.

Answer: The only thing you can do is to quit opposing her, for every word you say just strengthens her in her determination to show you and alienates her from you at a time when you are most needed.

Stop preaching reason to her, for it is useless. When a girl is crazy about a boy she is just as much out of her senses as any lunatic locked up in an asylum.

In reality, the very best thing that she can do is to go to this man's home town and find out for herself how hopeless her passion is.

She must be convinced beyond all possibility of doubt that she does not love him, but that she is only pursuing a dream.

But it must be said in justice to the youthful philanderers that they mean no harm. It is just a game they play with their partners.

But if she is serious, she must be convinced that she does not love him, but that she is only pursuing a dream.

And he doesn't expect the girl to take it seriously. He thinks she knows enough of boys to take his wooing at its true value which is nothing more than a pleasant pattern to pass an evening, with no harm done to any one and no hearts hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hogan arrived home last evening from Halifax where they were guests at the wedding of Mr. Hogan's brother, Mr. Jeffrey Hogan and Miss Dorothy Hart of Halifax.

As guest of King George and Queen Elizabeth at Buckingham Palace, Queen Wilhelmina is busy directing the Queen's tour of the island, and aiding her subjects who have escaped to Great Britain.

My trouble is that my maid calls me "Miss" and I don't like it. I don't like it, but when I told her that she must address my daughter as "Miss" she gave me the worst talking to I ever got in my life.

It is a terribly sad and we could weep tears of pity over the poor foolish child, for a girl loves a man because she is sure of it, and she is certain that her life is blasted if her love is unrequited and believes that she will never care for any one else.

My trouble is that my maid calls me "Miss" and I don't like it. I don't like it, but when I told her that she must address my daughter as "Miss" she gave me the worst talking to I ever got in my life.

"No; possibly not," the Major responded with a judicial air. "But I thought perhaps..."

"Not from anyone in particular," she returned. "But there ought to be a proper acknowledgment of the debt, for all that."

"I don't mind of course," she responded, regarding him oddly.

"Well, it has been a lovely day," Diana declared, gazing sternly at the Major.

Helpful Hints For The Women Folk

IN ALL THE WIDE WORLD

In all the wide world I allow there are no sweeter sounds than these: A ploughman whistling at the plough, A blackbird singing in the trees.

When knitting a boy's jersey, if the sleeves are finished with two strands of wool instead of one the cuffs will last the life of the jersey.

Tiny stripes breaking the print in many of the season's new fabrics, give the appearance of fine pleats, and slim the figure. Becoming for the more mature figure.

Cracks in doughnuts show the little more milk should be added making the doughnuts. They should be as soft as can be handled.

A Bengal girl passed the intricate examination of the University of Calcutta at the age of 10 years seven months.

It has been estimated that approximately one-half of the fishermen of the world are Japanese.

A good way to paint a flight suit which is in constant use is to paint every other strip. These are drying up in the room or walnut ketchup or other ones.

Scratches can be successfully removed from walnut furniture by cutting a walnut or a hazel nut kernel in half and rubbing it vigorously with the fresh cut nut. The oil from the nut will refresh the wood.

If you prefer uncut plants in the summer, place plants in artistic metal hanging on each side of the window and shelves of plants beneath it. There are narrow ones and these usually come in sets of three or more on a metal frame to extend entirely across the window. Shelves like these are small potted plants and corner glass fixtures.

A Morning Smile

Dear Miss Dix—I am a mother, aged 45, and I have a 13-year-old daughter.

"My dear good ma," he said hurriedly, "the other boys? You misunderstand. I sent fair boots—you know fair boots!"

"And then he went out and wiped the cold sweat from his brow."

Relieve Tension, Acquire Poise

Do noises get on your nerves? Do you jump at an auto horn?

This very sensitiveness, which has you a prey to ugly sounds, could make you charming and vital if you understood your nerves.

But with your keen, high-strung nature you must guard against a tendency to live too much on your emotions. If you let your feelings get involved in all your relationships, nerves suffer.

Devote a little time each day to some impersonal activity—growing flowers or modelling in clay. See how quickly it relaxes you.

Non-competitive sports like swimming are good, too.

Understand your nerves. If you are a poor sleeper, take a hot not hot bath, a glass of warm milk before retiring.

A well-balanced diet will also benefit your nerves. Include plenty of proteins, iron, calcium.
