HOW TO STOP YANKEES IS A PROBLEM

National League Magnates Must Bolster Up For 1933 — The Great Ruth May Go To Boston Or Chicago Is Talk

(By Alan Gould, Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—It having been demonstrated in three conclusive, sanguinary engagements that the National League's baseball forces have no visible means of stopping the Yankees, the main task of doing something about this menace for 1933 now appears to devolve upon the American League rivals of the world champions.

Winnipeg Star With Moncton

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 4.—Foster Wooley, well known athlete of Winnipeg, has taken up residence here being transferred to Moncton by the firm with which he is employed, and which has branches all over the Dominion.

Member Of Olympic Team To Play With Hawks.

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 4.—Foster Wooley, well known athlete of Winnipeg, has taken up residence here being transferred to Moncton by the firm with which he is employed, and which has branches all over the Dominion.

The Babe Has A Talking Point

Ruth's record-smashing performance in the series, featured by his home run blast Saturday gives him a talking point when he discusses renewal of his one-year $75,000 contract with Colonel Ruppert next spring. Reminded of this the Yankee owner said: "We will have to see about that. I can't say what we would be able to offer Ruth next season."

Institute News

EAST ROYALTY INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the East Royalty Women's Institute was held in the hall on August 11 with seven members and two visitors present. Meeting opened in usual way with the President in the chair. The minutes of last meeting read and adopted.

BLOUSES FOLLOW MORE CONSERVATIVE LINES

Crepe satin and flat crepe in white eggshell and beige represent the silk costume blouses for fall. The styles follow conservative over-blouse lines, some of which have shaped hip sections, and others are cut on straight lines. V. necks are preferred by most women, and sleeves are of simple silhouette, with an occasional hint of width below the elbow.

Losers Get Nearly As Much As Champion Yankees in World Series Cut—Hornsby Left "Out"

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—There was only one solace left for the Chicago Cubs today as they tried to forget the past week. Twenty-four of them were assured of receiving a cheque of approximately $4,000 as their "cut" and that sum was only about $1,000 less than the individual plunder collected by the Yankees.

Has Filed Protest

Hornsby has filed a protest against his exclusion in the division to Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis, but there was little chance for it to be successful as no ineligible player for the World Series can be cut in. The "Rajah" was deposed as Cub pilot on August 2 and was not named on the list of Cub players eligible for the big show.

"Melon" Is Surprise

The player Melon, $363,822.27 wasn't as large as the record breaker of 1928, but it was surprising for this year because of business conditions. During the four games 191,998 fans crowded into Yankee Stadium and Wrigley Field and paid $713,377. The high receipts also were surprising for players of the second, third and fourth place teams of each league.

WERE WORLD SERIES LEADERS

New York (American) Batting—Gehrig, 529; Dickey, 438; Combs, 375; Ruth, 333; Sewell, 333; W. Moore, 333. Runs—Gehrig, 9; Combs, 8. Hits—Dickey, 7; Combs, 6. Runs Batted In—Gehrig, 8; Chapman, 6.

ENTHUSIASM IN RUGBY RUNNING HIGH

Enthusiasm is still dominant among the Abegweit rugbyists. The thought of Maritime play-offs has been an inspiration to the boys and the last three calls sent forth have brought sixteen or seventeen players to the C. A. A. Grounds each day. Not for years have as many red and black warriors turned out for practice, as appeared Monday and Tuesday evenings on the Abegweit Grounds.
