In Memoriam

THE LATE JOHN W. BRADLEY

The citizens of Kelly's Cross and vicinity were shocked and saddened to hear on the evening of January 20th of the very sudden death of one of its most prominent and most highly respected citizens in the person of John W. Bradley of that district. Mr. Bradley who had not been feeling in his usual good health for a few days previously, had on that day felt much better and had decided to come down to the living room. He was seated comfortably in the fire chair with his wife and daughter when he was suddenly seized with a heart attack and passed away almost immediately. Rev. Fr. Keefe, his pastor was hastily summoned and administered to him the last holy rites of the church.

The death of the late Mr. Bradley, coming as it did so suddenly, will leave a vacancy in the parish and community which will be very difficult to fill, while within the home there will ever be a vacant chair to remind his loved ones of a good and noble father and an ever true and loyal husband. In the community and parish he was ever an energetic worker and was always a champion and leader of anything that tended to the further and better the welfare of the parish. In the school, in the church, and in the community hall he was ever present and always willing and able to take his place and help for the general welfare of all. He was a man of sterling character, a hard worker, and while his chief interest lay where it rightly should, namely with his home and family, he nevertheless always found time to help anyone who needed his assistance and it is not an exaggeration to say that his passing so suddenly is a severe blow not only to his immediate family but to the whole community.

His funeral was held to St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross, on February 2nd, and in spite of a bitterly cold day was one of the largest seen there for some time. The pallbearers were Messrs. James A. Bradley, Charles Woods, John H. Nantes, Edmund Monaghan, J. P. Carragher, Fred Bradley. There are left to mourn, besides his sorrowing widow, nee Stella Trainor, the following sons and daughters:

Tommy, teacher in Queen Square, Charlottetown; Peter and Lawrence at home; Austin, a student at St. Dunstan's; Rita, teacher in Emyvale; Theresa in Charlottetown and Mary at home; also his sisters, Miss Mary and Annie (Mrs. Bartholomew) Boston, Mass., and his brothers, Frank, of South Melville, and Stephen, of the Department of Education, Charlottetown. May he rest in peace.

The following are a list of the Masses offered, messages of sympathy, etc.
