

PRINCE EDWARD TO-DAY AND THURS

Happy Go Lucky

Go here waiting girls on a musical cruise to an island of romance! We've got grand, glorious hunt for sweeties with a capital G!

MARY MARTIN
BETTY POWELL
EDITH HUTTON
EDDIE BRACKEN
RUBY VALLEE

Added to Program
"CORVETTE PORT ARTHUR" Canada's Navy in Action; Donald Duck Cartoon IN A GARDEN, Another Popular Animal Short
SHOWS 3.15-7-9-COME EARLY

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a nature which may be inserted at five cents a word, strictly payable in advance.

CRASWELL for photographs.

CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE.

MOORE & McLEOD LTD. will be open today, Wednesday, until 12.30 p.m. 10-6-43

HALF HOLIDAY Wednesday starting Oct. 6 our store will close at noon 12.30 p.m. instead of all day Wednesday. Frowse Bros. Ltd. 10-6-43

POLICE COURT—Two cases of drunk and incapable and one drunk and disorderly were remanded at yesterday morning's Police Court.

MRS. GORDON MacLEOD, Brookfield, announces the engagement of her daughter Hope MacLeod to John Arnold, son of Mr. E. N. Easter, North Westville. Marriage to take place in the near future. 10-6-43

FROM THE ISLAND—Mrs. A.E. Strubel, accompanied by little Marie Chaplin, have returned from Bay Fortune, Prince Edward Island, where they spent a most enjoyable holiday at the summer home. —Sydney Post Record.

ENGAGEMENT—Mr. John A. Rose of Surrey, announces the engagement of his daughter Edith to William Stewart, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John S. Pierce of Charlottetown. Marriage to take place the latter part of October. 10-6-43

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION—On Thursday Sep. 30th, Margaret, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCordie of Kinkora celebrated her seventh birthday by having a number of her school chums invited to her home, after being nicely entertained with ice cream and cake were served by her mother.

TO ACT AS INSTRUCTOR—Mr. Edward Pineau left Saturday morning for North Weymouth, Mass., after spending his vacation with his mother, relative and friends. Mr. Pineau is employed with the Hingham Shipyard and on his return will be transferred to New Orleans, where he has taken a position as instructor in the shipyard there. Mr. Pineau is a son of Mrs. S. Pineau, 31 Euston St.

ON WEDNESDAY evening of this week at 7.30 o'clock the Bible Class, conducted by the Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, will be resumed in St. Paul's Parish Hall. The first series of studies will be a meditation on the Old Testament Tabernacle. All interested in studying the Word of God are cordially invited to attend this class. A special invitation is extended to the students. The Bible has one main road for getting home to God—let us study His Holy Word. 10-5-43

GILLESPIE—MILLS—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, on Thursday, Sept. 2nd when Jean Adelaide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gillespie, Debert, became the bride of Albert Edward son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mills, Sussex Eng. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. E. McLennan. The bride was attired in a suit of teal blue with British Tan accessories and corsage of yellow roses. She was attended by Miss Viola Jay who wore navy blue with a corsage of pink roses. L. A. C. Vic Milton supported the groom. Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple went to the Queen Hotel where relatives and friends enjoyed a wedding supper. Shortly after the supper the happy couple left on a wedding trip to Toronto, and other points of interest. Prior to the wedding the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her Aunt, (Mrs. J. Dennis) and was the recipient of many valuable and useful gifts. She also received lovely gifts from the Staff of S. A. McDonald's where she was formerly employed.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding of local interest took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Halifax, on September second, when Hilda Evelyn, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. William Butler, York Point, Prince Edward Island, was united in marriage to Gerald Lloyd Harper son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper of Dresden, Ontario. Rev. T. Savory officiating, the bride looked very charming in a street length dress of Queen's blue with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of beautiful red roses. The room looked very smart in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Miss Helen Blackburn of Halifax was the bride's attendant, wearing a street length dress of golden tan with matching brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. George Hartson of Windsor, Ontario, was best man and also in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Sgt. William Butler of the Royal Canadian Air Force, brother of the bride was present at the wedding. Following the wedding the young couple left on their honeymoon for York Point, Prince Edward Island, home of the bride's parents. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Harper will reside in Halifax where the groom is stationed at present.

IN MEMORIAM SERVICE—A solemn In Memoriam service in connection with the death of Lieut. William A. Johnston, R.C.N.V.R. in the torpedoing of H. M. C. S. Ithaca, was held in St. Paul's church yesterday morning, attended by the officers and men of H. M. C. S. "Queen Charlotte", the widow and parents of the Lieutenant and a large and representative congregation, including His Worship Mayor Holman and Mr. J. A. Fullerton, City Clerk. The Chaplain, Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, recited the service assisted by Rev. Ronald Noble, Baptist Church, who read the introductory sentences, while Lieut. Charles F. McKenzie, ship's Commander, read the lesson, 2 Corinthians, chapter IV. The hymns sung were: "Unto the Hills do I Lift up My Eyes"; "For Ever With the Lord"; "My Faith Looks up to Thee"; "O Love That Will Not Let Us Go"; and "Eternal Father Strong to Save". The Chaplain preached an eloquent and impressive sermon on the words found in Hebrews XII, and I, emphasizing that believing Christians do not die but merely change the earthly body for the heavenly body, and were cognizant of what was transpiring here as were those still in the flesh.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—On Friday evening, Sept. 24th a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pursey, North Rustico, to tender their daughter Eva, a miscellaneous shower. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with blue and white streamers. When all had gathered, to the strains of the bridal chorus played by Mrs. Ira McCoubrey, the bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor, by Mrs. Newton McLure who ushered her to a gaily decorated chair. The bride was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Mrs. Joyce Warren, while Mrs. Roy Woolner and Mrs. Lorne Houston brought in a nicely decorated basket of gifts which were opened by Mrs. Newton McLure, and the accompanying verses read by Mrs. W. D. Stevenson, and placed on the table by Mrs. Roy Woolner. Eva in a few well chosen words, thanked her friends for all their kindness. When the bride was bidden all joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was served by Mrs. McLure, and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and social intercourse. Everyone joined in wishing her every joy and happiness in the future.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Ovenshield United Church, Mainville, Wednesday, Sept. 2nd when Hilda Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper of Dresden, Ontario, was united in marriage to Gerald Lloyd Harper son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper of Dresden, Ontario. Rev. T. Savory officiating, the bride looked very charming in a street length dress of Queen's blue with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of beautiful red roses. The room looked very smart in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Miss Helen Blackburn of Halifax was the bride's attendant, wearing a street length dress of golden tan with matching brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. George Hartson of Windsor, Ontario, was best man and also in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Sgt. William Butler of the Royal Canadian Air Force, brother of the bride was present at the wedding. Following the wedding the young couple left on their honeymoon for York Point, Prince Edward Island, home of the bride's parents. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Harper will reside in Halifax where the groom is stationed at present.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—On Friday evening, Sept. 24th a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pursey, North Rustico, to tender their daughter Eva, a miscellaneous shower. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with blue and white streamers. When all had gathered, to the strains of the bridal chorus played by Mrs. Ira McCoubrey, the bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor, by Mrs. Newton McLure who ushered her to a gaily decorated chair. The bride was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Mrs. Joyce Warren, while Mrs. Roy Woolner and Mrs. Lorne Houston brought in a nicely decorated basket of gifts which were opened by Mrs. Newton McLure, and the accompanying verses read by Mrs. W. D. Stevenson, and placed on the table by Mrs. Roy Woolner. Eva in a few well chosen words, thanked her friends for all their kindness. When the bride was bidden all joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was served by Mrs. McLure, and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and social intercourse. Everyone joined in wishing her every joy and happiness in the future.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding of local interest took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Halifax, on September second, when Hilda Evelyn, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. William Butler, York Point, Prince Edward Island, was united in marriage to Gerald Lloyd Harper son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper of Dresden, Ontario. Rev. T. Savory officiating, the bride looked very charming in a street length dress of Queen's blue with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of beautiful red roses. The room looked very smart in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Miss Helen Blackburn of Halifax was the bride's attendant, wearing a street length dress of golden tan with matching brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. George Hartson of Windsor, Ontario, was best man and also in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Sgt. William Butler of the Royal Canadian Air Force, brother of the bride was present at the wedding. Following the wedding the young couple left on their honeymoon for York Point, Prince Edward Island, home of the bride's parents. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Harper will reside in Halifax where the groom is stationed at present.

IN MEMORIAM SERVICE—A solemn In Memoriam service in connection with the death of Lieut. William A. Johnston, R.C.N.V.R. in the torpedoing of H. M. C. S. Ithaca, was held in St. Paul's church yesterday morning, attended by the officers and men of H. M. C. S. "Queen Charlotte", the widow and parents of the Lieutenant and a large and representative congregation, including His Worship Mayor Holman and Mr. J. A. Fullerton, City Clerk. The Chaplain, Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, recited the service assisted by Rev. Ronald Noble, Baptist Church, who read the introductory sentences, while Lieut. Charles F. McKenzie, ship's Commander, read the lesson, 2 Corinthians, chapter IV. The hymns sung were: "Unto the Hills do I Lift up My Eyes"; "For Ever With the Lord"; "My Faith Looks up to Thee"; "O Love That Will Not Let Us Go"; and "Eternal Father Strong to Save". The Chaplain preached an eloquent and impressive sermon on the words found in Hebrews XII, and I, emphasizing that believing Christians do not die but merely change the earthly body for the heavenly body, and were cognizant of what was transpiring here as were those still in the flesh.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—On Friday evening, Sept. 24th a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pursey, North Rustico, to tender their daughter Eva, a miscellaneous shower. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with blue and white streamers. When all had gathered, to the strains of the bridal chorus played by Mrs. Ira McCoubrey, the bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor, by Mrs. Newton McLure who ushered her to a gaily decorated chair. The bride was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Mrs. Joyce Warren, while Mrs. Roy Woolner and Mrs. Lorne Houston brought in a nicely decorated basket of gifts which were opened by Mrs. Newton McLure, and the accompanying verses read by Mrs. W. D. Stevenson, and placed on the table by Mrs. Roy Woolner. Eva in a few well chosen words, thanked her friends for all their kindness. When the bride was bidden all joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was served by Mrs. McLure, and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and social intercourse. Everyone joined in wishing her every joy and happiness in the future.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding of local interest took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Halifax, on September second, when Hilda Evelyn, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. William Butler, York Point, Prince Edward Island, was united in marriage to Gerald Lloyd Harper son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper of Dresden, Ontario. Rev. T. Savory officiating, the bride looked very charming in a street length dress of Queen's blue with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of beautiful red roses. The room looked very smart in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Miss Helen Blackburn of Halifax was the bride's attendant, wearing a street length dress of golden tan with matching brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. George Hartson of Windsor, Ontario, was best man and also in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Sgt. William Butler of the Royal Canadian Air Force, brother of the bride was present at the wedding. Following the wedding the young couple left on their honeymoon for York Point, Prince Edward Island, home of the bride's parents. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Harper will reside in Halifax where the groom is stationed at present.

IN MEMORIAM SERVICE—A solemn In Memoriam service in connection with the death of Lieut. William A. Johnston, R.C.N.V.R. in the torpedoing of H. M. C. S. Ithaca, was held in St. Paul's church yesterday morning, attended by the officers and men of H. M. C. S. "Queen Charlotte", the widow and parents of the Lieutenant and a large and representative congregation, including His Worship Mayor Holman and Mr. J. A. Fullerton, City Clerk. The Chaplain, Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, recited the service assisted by Rev. Ronald Noble, Baptist Church, who read the introductory sentences, while Lieut. Charles F. McKenzie, ship's Commander, read the lesson, 2 Corinthians, chapter IV. The hymns sung were: "Unto the Hills do I Lift up My Eyes"; "For Ever With the Lord"; "My Faith Looks up to Thee"; "O Love That Will Not Let Us Go"; and "Eternal Father Strong to Save". The Chaplain preached an eloquent and impressive sermon on the words found in Hebrews XII, and I, emphasizing that believing Christians do not die but merely change the earthly body for the heavenly body, and were cognizant of what was transpiring here as were those still in the flesh.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—On Friday evening, Sept. 24th a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pursey, North Rustico, to tender their daughter Eva, a miscellaneous shower. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with blue and white streamers. When all had gathered, to the strains of the bridal chorus played by Mrs. Ira McCoubrey, the bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor, by Mrs. Newton McLure who ushered her to a gaily decorated chair. The bride was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Mrs. Joyce Warren, while Mrs. Roy Woolner and Mrs. Lorne Houston brought in a nicely decorated basket of gifts which were opened by Mrs. Newton McLure, and the accompanying verses read by Mrs. W. D. Stevenson, and placed on the table by Mrs. Roy Woolner. Eva in a few well chosen words, thanked her friends for all their kindness. When the bride was bidden all joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was served by Mrs. McLure, and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and social intercourse. Everyone joined in wishing her every joy and happiness in the future.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding of local interest took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Halifax, on September second, when Hilda Evelyn, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. William Butler, York Point, Prince Edward Island, was united in marriage to Gerald Lloyd Harper son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper of Dresden, Ontario. Rev. T. Savory officiating, the bride looked very charming in a street length dress of Queen's blue with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of beautiful red roses. The room looked very smart in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Miss Helen Blackburn of Halifax was the bride's attendant, wearing a street length dress of golden tan with matching brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. George Hartson of Windsor, Ontario, was best man and also in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Sgt. William Butler of the Royal Canadian Air Force, brother of the bride was present at the wedding. Following the wedding the young couple left on their honeymoon for York Point, Prince Edward Island, home of the bride's parents. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Harper will reside in Halifax where the groom is stationed at present.

IN MEMORIAM SERVICE—A solemn In Memoriam service in connection with the death of Lieut. William A. Johnston, R.C.N.V.R. in the torpedoing of H. M. C. S. Ithaca, was held in St. Paul's church yesterday morning, attended by the officers and men of H. M. C. S. "Queen Charlotte", the widow and parents of the Lieutenant and a large and representative congregation, including His Worship Mayor Holman and Mr. J. A. Fullerton, City Clerk. The Chaplain, Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, recited the service assisted by Rev. Ronald Noble, Baptist Church, who read the introductory sentences, while Lieut. Charles F. McKenzie, ship's Commander, read the lesson, 2 Corinthians, chapter IV. The hymns sung were: "Unto the Hills do I Lift up My Eyes"; "For Ever With the Lord"; "My Faith Looks up to Thee"; "O Love That Will Not Let Us Go"; and "Eternal Father Strong to Save". The Chaplain preached an eloquent and impressive sermon on the words found in Hebrews XII, and I, emphasizing that believing Christians do not die but merely change the earthly body for the heavenly body, and were cognizant of what was transpiring here as were those still in the flesh.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—On Friday evening, Sept. 24th a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pursey, North Rustico, to tender their daughter Eva, a miscellaneous shower. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with blue and white streamers. When all had gathered, to the strains of the bridal chorus played by Mrs. Ira McCoubrey, the bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor, by Mrs. Newton McLure who ushered her to a gaily decorated chair. The bride was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Mrs. Joyce Warren, while Mrs. Roy Woolner and Mrs. Lorne Houston brought in a nicely decorated basket of gifts which were opened by Mrs. Newton McLure, and the accompanying verses read by Mrs. W. D. Stevenson, and placed on the table by Mrs. Roy Woolner. Eva in a few well chosen words, thanked her friends for all their kindness. When the bride was bidden all joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was served by Mrs. McLure, and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and social intercourse. Everyone joined in wishing her every joy and happiness in the future.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding of local interest took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Halifax, on September second, when Hilda Evelyn, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. William Butler, York Point, Prince Edward Island, was united in marriage to Gerald Lloyd Harper son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper of Dresden, Ontario. Rev. T. Savory officiating, the bride looked very charming in a street length dress of Queen's blue with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of beautiful red roses. The room looked very smart in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Miss Helen Blackburn of Halifax was the bride's attendant, wearing a street length dress of golden tan with matching brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. George Hartson of Windsor, Ontario, was best man and also in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Sgt. William Butler of the Royal Canadian Air Force, brother of the bride was present at the wedding. Following the wedding the young couple left on their honeymoon for York Point, Prince Edward Island, home of the bride's parents. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Harper will reside in Halifax where the groom is stationed at present.

IN MEMORIAM SERVICE—A solemn In Memoriam service in connection with the death of Lieut. William A. Johnston, R.C.N.V.R. in the torpedoing of H. M. C. S. Ithaca, was held in St. Paul's church yesterday morning, attended by the officers and men of H. M. C. S. "Queen Charlotte", the widow and parents of the Lieutenant and a large and representative congregation, including His Worship Mayor Holman and Mr. J. A. Fullerton, City Clerk. The Chaplain, Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, recited the service assisted by Rev. Ronald Noble, Baptist Church, who read the introductory sentences, while Lieut. Charles F. McKenzie, ship's Commander, read the lesson, 2 Corinthians, chapter IV. The hymns sung were: "Unto the Hills do I Lift up My Eyes"; "For Ever With the Lord"; "My Faith Looks up to Thee"; "O Love That Will Not Let Us Go"; and "Eternal Father Strong to Save". The Chaplain preached an eloquent and impressive sermon on the words found in Hebrews XII, and I, emphasizing that believing Christians do not die but merely change the earthly body for the heavenly body, and were cognizant of what was transpiring here as were those still in the flesh.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—On Friday evening, Sept. 24th a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pursey, North Rustico, to tender their daughter Eva, a miscellaneous shower. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with blue and white streamers. When all had gathered, to the strains of the bridal chorus played by Mrs. Ira McCoubrey, the bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor, by Mrs. Newton McLure who ushered her to a gaily decorated chair. The bride was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Mrs. Joyce Warren, while Mrs. Roy Woolner and Mrs. Lorne Houston brought in a nicely decorated basket of gifts which were opened by Mrs. Newton McLure, and the accompanying verses read by Mrs. W. D. Stevenson, and placed on the table by Mrs. Roy Woolner. Eva in a few well chosen words, thanked her friends for all their kindness. When the bride was bidden all joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was served by Mrs. McLure, and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and social intercourse. Everyone joined in wishing her every joy and happiness in the future.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding of local interest took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Halifax, on September second, when Hilda Evelyn, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. William Butler, York Point, Prince Edward Island, was united in marriage to Gerald Lloyd Harper son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper of Dresden, Ontario. Rev. T. Savory officiating, the bride looked very charming in a street length dress of Queen's blue with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of beautiful red roses. The room looked very smart in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Miss Helen Blackburn of Halifax was the bride's attendant, wearing a street length dress of golden tan with matching brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. George Hartson of Windsor, Ontario, was best man and also in the uniform of the Royal Canadian Navy. Sgt. William Butler of the Royal Canadian Air Force, brother of the bride was present at the wedding. Following the wedding the young couple left on their honeymoon for York Point, Prince Edward Island, home of the bride's parents. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Harper will reside in Halifax where the groom is stationed at present.

IN MEMORIAM SERVICE—A solemn In Memoriam service in connection with the death of Lieut. William A. Johnston, R.C.N.V.R. in the torpedoing of H. M. C. S. Ithaca, was held in St. Paul's church yesterday morning, attended by the officers and men of H. M. C. S. "Queen Charlotte", the widow and parents of the Lieutenant and a large and representative congregation, including His Worship Mayor Holman and Mr. J. A. Fullerton, City Clerk. The Chaplain, Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, recited the service assisted by Rev. Ronald Noble, Baptist Church, who read the introductory sentences, while Lieut. Charles F. McKenzie, ship's Commander, read the lesson, 2 Corinthians, chapter IV. The hymns sung were: "Unto the Hills do I Lift up My Eyes"; "For Ever With the Lord"; "My Faith Looks up to Thee"; "O Love That Will Not Let Us Go"; and "Eternal Father Strong to Save". The Chaplain preached an eloquent and impressive sermon on the words found in Hebrews XII, and I, emphasizing that believing Christians do not die but merely change the earthly body for the heavenly body, and were cognizant of what was transpiring here as were those still in the flesh.

ROLL OUT THE DOLLARS

.... and They'll Roll up the Axis!

The great attack is on. On every front our fighters smash into the Axis with every weapon we can give them. "Festung Europa" cracks under the might of their blows. Crack it wide open; help to send our boys in triumph into Berlin by lending your dollars to speed their Victory.

There's no holding back over there. Sailor, soldier, fier, they're giving you action with planes, ships, tanks and guns talking to the foe in the only language he understands. This is your chance to give them support. Buy bonds. Back our fighters as you've never backed them before. Lend as they fight—all out for Victory.

SPEED THE VICTORY

5th VICTORY LOAN

Sponsored by

PROWSE BROS., LTD.

TODAY ONLY — She Packs A Wallop In Laughs and Love

"LADY BODYGUARD"

Added Shorts — SHOWS 3.15-7-8.45

CAPITOL STARTS THURSDAY

It's A Gay Jamboree ... Of JOE-iviality!

JOE E. BROWN in The Daring Young Man

Plus "Snap Happy Daffy" — U. S. Service Bands
Chapt. 12 — Adventures of Smiling Jack

EMPIRE -- THUR. -- FRI. -- SAT.

BULLETS-TALKI FLYING WOODS THUNDER DOWN THE RANGE!

CHARLES STARRETT in The FIGHTING BUCKAROO

Plus Chapt. 3 — Dare Devils Of The West
COMEDY AND CARTOON

Listen Every WEDNESDAY

YESTERDAY - TODAY - TOMORROW

A LIVELY, LITING VARIETY SHOW

CFCY 9 to 9.30 p. m. A. D. T.
Sponsored by Radio Manufacturers Association of Canada

Music Classes

Piano, Organ, Singing and Theory.

A. ROY KENDALL, L.M.A.M., A.C.C.O., A.A.G.O.

Organ and Choirmaster
Trinity United Church
Studio: Heaz Memorial Hall

HANDSOME Everlasting Flowers

Apply
Mrs. Fred Driscoll,
St. Avars

National Film Board

Movies

HUNTER RIVER
Monday 7 and 8.30 p.m.
SOUTHPOLE
Tuesday 7 and 8.40 p.m.

YORK
Wednesday 8.00 p.m.
BORDEN
Thursday 10.30, 1.30, 8.00 p.m.
SUMMERSIDE HIGH
Friday 8.00 p.m.

CENTRAL BEDEQUE
Friday 8.00 p.m.
(E. Gillis)

CHARLOTTETOWN KENNEL CLUB

FIRST ANNUAL DOG SHOW

Under The Distinguished Patronage Of HIS HONOUR LIEUT GOV. B.W. LAPAGE.
CHARLOTTETOWN SPORTING CLUB

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1943

Entry Forms, Premium Lists and full information obtainable from Show Secretary.

We wish to inform our many Patrons that Ed's Taxi Service is now operating on a full time basis.

"To maintain the goodwill of those whom we serve is the goal for which we strive."

ED'S TAXI AND BUS SERVICE

PHONES 170-1010

War—25 Years Ago Today

By The Canadian Press. OCT. 6, 1918 — France taken by British and Franco-Americans smashed through enemy positions in the Champagne district, turning the German positions on the Reims heights. General Allenby marched 33 miles northwest past Damascus.