Second Year—Bessie Conrad.
Primary—Beverley VanIderstine.
Elementary—Olive Keeping and Norma Dalziel.
Junior—Dorothy Keeping.
Intermediate—Louise Cox.
Senior—Audrey Gillis.
Theory—Teresa Donahoe.

The audience last night was delighted with the fine performance of the pupils and was enthusiastic in its applause. Tonight there will be a program of pianoforte and vocal music presented by three young ladies, pupils of miss McKenzie.

Forty young men enrolled at the agriculture short course which opened at St. Dunstan's University yesterday. Classes will occupy two week and will include instruction in purely agriculture subjects and lectures on leadership, soil analysis, co-operative principles, credit unions, farm book keeping, home making, and education. Dr. M. M. Coady of the extention department of St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, will lecture on leadership and Mr. James McIntyre, Moncton, will give instruction in soil analysis. Other lecturers will include officials from the Federal and Provincial Departments of Agriculture. Several afternoons will be spent on the College, Falconwood and Experimental Farms where classes will be supervised by agriculture experts. Saturday morning will be spent in Davis and Frasers' packing plant where the short course students will see hog grading demonstrations.

WEDDING BELLS — The Manse at Dundas was the scene of a happy and pretty marriage ceremony on June 16th when Margaret Anna Bell Acorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Acorn of this place, was united in marriage with Nelson C. Acorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Acorn, who are also residents of Dundas. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alexander Firth. A host of friends are extending congratulations and best wishes.

Mr William Mellett of Wetaskiwin, formerly of Souris, P.E.I. passed peacefully away at his home Sunday morning, 23rd, at the age of 83 years. The funeral was conducted from the First United Church of which he has been the senior elder since the Union. The choir singing his favorite hymns and the solo was Peace Perfect Peace. At his request his five sons and son-in-laws were pall bearers. He leaves to mourn his loving wife, nine sons and two daughters, and 20 grandchildren, one great-grandchild, also two brothers in Boston, and one brother and two sisters on the Island. The funeral was largely attended.

SUPREME COURT HEARS CASE—Held en camera, the trial of Richard Gauthier, charged with rape, occupied yesterday's sitting of Queen's County Supreme Court with Mr. Justice A. C. Saunders presiding. The case will be continued today. Mr. D. Edgar Shaw, K.C. and Hon. Thane A. Campbell, K.C. appeared for the Crown and Mr. R. R. Bell was defense counsel. WEDNESDAY

On Friday, May 21, the people of St. Peter's Island and vicinity were saddened to hear of the death of a well known and highly respected resident in the person of Mr. Daniel W. Taylor at the early age of 64 years. He always enjoyed good health until about a year prior to his death when he was stricken with paralysis from which he never regained his former health.

—BODY FOUND AT TIGNISH—The body of Leo MacRae, who was drowned about two weeks ago at Tignish was found yesterday morning on the shore of what is known as The Green, about two miles from where the accident occurred, by Mr. Ralph MacInnis when he was hauling kelp. An inquest on the body of the seven year old boy, who was the son of James M. MacRae of Tignish, was found to be unnecessary.

"The greatest anarchist in modern civilization is alcohol", Mrs. H. B. Newcombe of Halifax declared in an address in Prince of Wales College auditorium last night. The only difference between anarchy and democracy is the degree of responsibility of the average citizen to his citizenship, the speaker declared. "You can't say I'll obey all the laws except the temperance law and I consider it a foolish one and I'll not obey it. If you continually break one law you weaken all laws. Such an attitude introduces into the body politic a rotten spot which will eventually destroy all laws", Mrs. Newcombe declared.

Premier Thane A. Campbell presided last night. Others who spoke briefly included Rev. Dr. Ellsworth of St. Dunstan's University, Rev. G. C. Webster, honorary president of the Temperance Federation and Hon. B. W. LePage, president of the executive council.

In spite of the wet night and the bad condition of the roads there was a very large attendance at the annual meeting of the East Prince Liberal Conservative Association which met in the Town Hall, Summerside, last night. All polls were represented and the optimism and enthusiasm of the delegates and speakers showed that the spirit of the Conservative Party is now stronger than ever.

Mr. Hugh F. Morrison presided and welcomed the delegates and Hon. Dr. MacMillan, leader of the Conservative Party in the province.

Dr. W. P. MacBride, Kensington, was elected president, Major F.F. May, St. Eleanors, vice-president and Roland Phillipson, Summerside, secretary. Executors for each district are: third district—Frank Simpson, Malpeque; J. F. Arsenault, Mont Carmel. Fourth district—Reginald Dickson, Tryon; James Pendergast, Kensington. Fifth district—Dr. E. T. Tanton, Summerside; Arsene Poirier, Miscouche.

ISLAND LADY DEAD—Word has been received in this city of the death in Boston, Mass, of Minnie Cheverie, dearly beloved wife of Thomas Smith. Mrs Smith is a sister of Matthews Cheverie and Mrs. William Hennessey of this city.

Previous to their departure for their new home in Summerside the community of Kinkora gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McIvor to tender them an affectionate farewell. Mr. and Mrs. McIvor have been almost life long residents of Kinkora and their departure is keenly felt by young and old. The following address was read by Mr. Linus Mulligan and the presentation made by Mr. V. C. Duffy. Mr. and Mrs. McIvor replied very feelingly to the kind words and tangible expressions of good will. Lunch was served and a social hour and dance followed, which was enjoyed by all.

Following is the address:

BRING VERDICT OF GUILTY—Richard Gauthier was found "guilty" of a charge of rape by a jury of Queen's County Supreme Court yesterday. A "strong recommendation for mercy" was made in the verdict. The trial was heard in camera. At 4:20 p. m. the jury retired and at 5:50 reported a disagreement to Mr. Justice A. C. Saunders. He asked them to deliberate farther and at 7:15 p. m. they returned the verdict. Jurymen were detained in the Supreme Court Building for the night when the court adjourned Monday [illegible] that it had been forty years since a [illegible] County jury [illegible] detained in a jury room while hearing a case.

—PRETTY WEDDING—A pretty June wedding was solemnized at the United Church at Bideford, on Wednesday, June 16th at seven p. m. when Miss Edith Grigg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grigg, Poplar Grove, was united in marriage to Mr. James Williams, son of Mr. L. W. Williams also of Poplar Grove. The church was prettily decorated with ferns and leaves and potted plants making a perfect setting for the bridal party. Rev. Mr. Nicholson of Tyne Valley performed the ceremony in the presence of a large congregation of friends of the bride and groom. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, to the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Helen Morrison. The bride wore a lovely white satin dress made on princess lines with insets of lace. Her veil was fastened with a coronet of orange blossom. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Her only sister, Miss Glen Grigg was her bridesmaid, and wore a dainty dress of blue organdy with hat to match. She carried a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations. During the service the choir rendered sweet music and while the register was being signed, Miss Doryse MacNeil played very exquisitely on her violin "Love's Greeting." The ushers were Messrs. Newcombe and Phillips, cousins of the bride and groom. After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride for ninety guests. After a honeymoon in the Maritimes, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside at Poplar Grove. The Guardian joins a host of friends in happy felicitations.—S

THURSDAY

One of the prettiest and most interesting events of the season took place on Thursday morning at eight o'clock at the Immaculate Conception Church, Wellington, when Miss Mary Bernice Gaudet, R.N., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gaudet, Wellington, was united in marriage to Dr. Raymond A. Reid of Wellington, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Reid, Amherst, Magdalen Islands.

The annual meeting of the West Prince Liberal Conservative Association was held yesterday afternoon in O'Leary Hall. Notwithstanding the bad state of the roads, every Poll was represented and there was a large attendance.

Mr. A. A. Ramsay retiring President, gave an excellent address.

On the afternoon of May 3rd death came peacefully to Hugh P. McEwen, aged 71 years, at his home in Grand Tracadie. Deceased had been in failing health for some months and with medical attention and tender nursing he gradually improved and was able to be about when he was stricken with flu, to which he succumbed. Mr. McEwen was a man of staunch christian character, exemplary in his devotion to prayer and other duties of his Catholic faith. His excellent qualities and simplicity of life endeared him to a wide circle of friends which was evidenced by the many Mass offerings and letters of sympathy.

Two months illness resulted in death for Neil Charles MacLeod at his Sunny Brae home Wednesday morning. He was seventy-seven years of age and was one of the most highly esteemed residents of Moncton where he had lived for the last half century. For many years he had conducted a blacksmith trade but had retired about a year ago. Since then he had lived with his son, Charles.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Andrew Blackmore, Quebec City and three sons, Rev. A. A. MacLeod, of Kingston, N. S., John W. of Shirley, Mass., and Charles Robert, of Sunny Brae. A brother Alexander resides in Prince Edward Island.

Mr MacLeod was a valued member of the congregation of the Humphrey Memorial church and will be missed in that organization.

The funeral will be held at three o'clock Friday afternoon from the chapel at Tuttle Brothers funeral home. Interment will be in Elmwood cemetery.—Moncton Transcript.

RODD-BEER—A quiet but very pretty wedding ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian Manse at Charlottetown on Wednesday evening, May 26th at 6 p.m., when Reta Rebecca Rodd, daughter of Mrs. Malcolm MacSwain and the late Bruce Rodd, was united in marriage to Mr. James Frederic Beer, son of Mr. Frederic Beer and the late Mrs. Beer, Clyde River. The Reverend G. C. Webster officiated. The bride was very prettily attired in a rose suit with brown accessories. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Doris Rodd of Milton, who wore blue. The groom was supported by Mr. Clifford Rodd, only brother of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride where a dainty supper was served to the bridal party, after which a host of serenaders gathered from far and near to congratulate them and wish them a long and happy married life. After a very pleasant evening spent in games and music the happy couple departed for their new home in Clyde River where the groom is a very prosperous farmer. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Beer wish them every happiness. Previous to the wedding the people of Kingston tendered the bride a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Adam Livingston, consisting of many useful and costly gifts which gave testimony to her popularity.

Mrs. L.B. Mellish, Montague, was elected president of the Prince Edward Island Women's Institutes at the closing session of the 24th annual convention yesterday. Mr. Dawson was a most exemplary citizen, always ready to help those who were in trouble and most kind and hospitable in his home.

He leaves to mourn their loss, his widow, formerly, Christie McKinnon also four brothers, George, Fred, Bradford and W .E. all residing in the United States, to whom much sympathy is extended.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED — On May 24th, despite the very disagreeable weather over one hundred guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Livingston, Kingston in honour of Miss Reta Rodd who was one of this season's popular brides. As the wedding march was played by Mrs. Livingston, Eleanor Willis and Erma Newson escorted the "bride-to-be" to the seat of honour which was decorated with white streamers and bells. Joyce MacSwain and Lewis MacFadyen cutely dressed as bride and groom wheeled in a decorated carriage laden with gifts and after a few remarks by Mr. George Beer the parcels were opened by Eleanor Willis while Erma Newson read the accompanying verses of good wishes, some of which caused much laughter. Vera Livingston arranged the presents on the table. Miss Rodd thanked her many friends for so many nice gifts also Mr. and Mrs. Livingston for so kindly opening their home for the occasion. All joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Luncheon was served and a very enjoyable evening spent (Patriot Please Copy).

Mr. Lyster MacInnis, who underwent an operation in the City Hospital Wednesday, is progressing satisfactory.

A very interesting wedding was solemnized at Howlan in the presence of immediate relatives and friends, on Wednesday, June 23rd, Rev. A. F. Baker of O'Leary officiating, when Miss Linnie Adelaide daughter of the late Mr. James Platts and Mrs. Platts became the bride of Samuel Sterling Beaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Beaton of North St. Eleanors.

The bride descended the stairs on the arm of her brother Frank to the strains of the Wedding March from Lohegrin rendered by Mrs. (Rev.) A. F. Baker.

The bride's costume was of powder blue vy-el'a flannel with matching accessories and carried a boquet of Talisman roses and maiden-hair fern.

Immediately following the ceremony a delicious wedding luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left by motor amid showers of confetti and good wishes on an extended honeymoon trip to Toronto and other Canadian cities. On their return they will reside in North St. Eleanors where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

The bride is a graduate of the P .E. I. Hospital and prior to her marriage held the position of operating room supervisor.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the Nurses Home where she was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.
