Radway's Ready Relief

Chas. H. Billings, of 240 W. 37th St., writes: "For years I have been suffering from asthma and bronchitis. A week ago I purchased a bottle of Radway's Ready Relief and have taken a teaspoonful in water before retiring each night. The relief I have experienced is marvelous. I most heartily indorse R. R. R."

CURES ASTHMA

The specifics for this disease are the Ready Relief, the Resolvent and Radway's Pills. The Relief must be rubbed on the chest and throat until a burning sensation is produced, and the pills must be taken frequently to keep the bowels thoroughly open. The Resolvent must be given at short intervals, in small doses, and a deserspoonful on retiring to rest. Give a teaspoonful of the Resolvent whenever a paroxysm occurs. RADWAY & Co.

LOUIS ALEXANDER AND OLIVE LOGAN AT B. F. KEITH'S, BOSTON

Louise Alexander, creator of the "Apache Dance" and the "Vampire Dance" with Anna Held in "Miss Innocence," and one of the most graceful and skilled of all exponents of modern society dances, comes to B. F. Keith's Theatre the week of May 4th. At a time when there is such a tremendous craze for the tango and the hesitation waltz, and when all Boston dance-mad, the appearance of Miss Alexander and Miss Logan, with their own orchestra and corps of dancers, is most timely. Miss Logan is the American girl who made famous the afternoon Tango Teas at the Ritz-Carlton in London. They will be seen in a series of modern terpsichorean creations. This remarkable feature will be but one turn in a great bill of star attractions. Gus Edwards' "Matinee Girls" is a miniature musical comedy presented by Will J. Ward, the popular comedian. Irene Martin, a well-known Boston girl, for several seasons leading lady with Rus Edwards in his Song Revue, and a bouquet of dashing American beauties. This production is in two scenes, one showing a New York roof garden at night, and the piece abounds in good, clean fun and catchy musical number, with numerous costumes. Cedora, the girl who defies death twice daily by riding a motocycle upside down inside a giant golden globe, will present her sensational specialty, and other features will be Mack and Walker in a musical flirtation; Mullen and Coogan, the original Mantell and Coogan of "Wine, Woman and Song;" Minnie Allen in a novel turn; Flanagan and Edwards in their comedy of life behind the scenes called "Off and On," Hal and Francis, in the musical comedy, "The Stock Farm," and Over and Over, offering a European novelty act.

CABINET AND THE ULSTER PROBLEM

LONDON, Eng., April 30.—The Cabinet met to-day to discuss the Ulster crisis, for the fifth time in as many days. Premier Asquith told his colleagues of the orders issued by the War Office and the Admiralty to check "Gun Running" by smugglers, carrying arms for the Ulster Volunteers, and informed them that no further action would be needed at the present time.

The effective blockade established by warships, off the coast of Ireland, will be sufficient, the Premier believes, to prevent munitions of war from reaching the opponents of Home Rule.

It is understood that John Redmond, leader of the Nationalists, is being sounded as to what terms of compromise in regard to Ulster, will be acceptable to him.

The proceedings in Parliament last night gave still another turn to the Home Rule kaleidoscope, and the general opinion of the House, at the conclusion of the debate on Austen Chamberlain's motion for an inquiry into the alleged "plot" against Ulster, was that a highly important forward movement in the direction of peace had been made on both sides.

The features of the night's debate were a friendly speech by Sir Edward Carson welcoming Mr. Churchill's offer of a compromise under a federal system; a magnificent and touching oration by ex-Premier A. J. Balfour telling of the fight of his long lifetime against Home Rule, but keeping a compromise in vision; the endorsement by Andrew Bonar Law, the Unionist leader, of Sir Edward Carson's approval of Winston Churchill's settlement suggestion; a promise from Mr. Bonar Law to accept a renewal of the private conferences, if offered by the Government, and at the close an emphatic declaration by the Prime Minister that the door to settlement by compromise was unclosed and that it would remain open, so long as there was any chance of a reasonable settlement. The Nationalist members, however, took no part in the debate.
