After the ceremony the reception was held at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Morris are residing in Amherst, Nova Scotia, where Mr. Gordon is employed as an Aeronautical Inspector, at the Canadian Car and Foundry Co. Ltd.

The death occurred Saturday last of Mrs. Albert Rowe, wife of the C.N.R. agent at Port Hill. Mrs. Rowe had been in poor health all summer and had been under treatment in the Prince County Hospital but had recently returned home. Besides her husband there are several small children left to mourn her loss. Mrs. Rowe was formerly Miss Alice Taylor of town and was buried yesterday at Summerside near Preetown. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

A very enjoyable evening was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Newell, Brackley, when their many friends gathered in a farewell party for their son Gavin Newell, who was leaving for Ontario to complete his training prior to going overseas and to present him with a wrist watch as a memento of the esteem in which he was held. The presentation was made by Mr. Raymond Sellick and the address read by Mr. George Jackson. Unfortunately Mr. Newell was unable to be present due to being in the service of his country at his former occupation of shipwright at an Eastern Canadian Port.

ST. ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH was well filled yesterday evening when Rev. O. T. Hughes preached his sermon. Mr. Hughes stressed the friendly feeling which existed between pastor and people. He spoke of the many friends he had made in other churches and said he would always think of Montserrat as his home. He also spoke of Brooklyn Messrs. Munroe, Bruce and Bears rendered two very lovely numbers which were deeply appreciated by the large congregation. The close of the service Mr. Hughes was presented with an address read by Mr. R. G. McLaren and a sum of money. The choir also presented Mr. and Mrs. Hughes with a little gift in appreciation of their services to the choir. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left on Monday for Ontario where Mr. Hughes has accepted a charge.

McGowan thanked his many friends for their thoughtfulness and for the lovely gift.

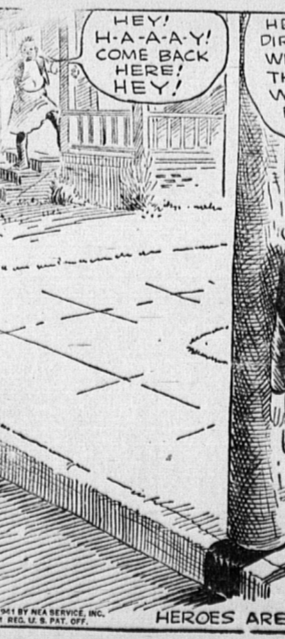

THURSDAY - Sgt. Pilot Elmer Bagnall Muttart of Cape Traverse is missing after air operations in Europe his father Mr. L. H. Muttart has been informed. There were no details, except that the airman failed to return to his base.

Sgt. Pilot Muttart is a graduate of Acadia University. He graduated with a bachelor of science degree in 1939. He was employed with the Storms Construction Company prior to the time he enlisted with the Royal Canadian Air Force in June, 1940. He received his wings at Saskatoon and was transferred overseas two months later for advanced training at Amberley, England, where he was working in conjunction with the shunting engine.

PRESENTATION - On Tuesday Oct. 15th a large number of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Joseph Peaters, Gaytown, for the purpose of bidding farewell to Mrs. Peaters, who is going to reside in the city. Mrs. Peaters then read an address while Mrs. Bernard Barry presented Mrs. Peaters with an overnight grip. Although taken completely by surprise Mrs. Peaters in her gracious manner thanked her many friends for their kind remembrance and well wishes. All joined in singing For She's A Jolly Good Fellow. The ladies then served lunch while the rest of the evening was spent in music and dancing.

Woolner - McLure Nuptials - The marriage of Lucy Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Woolner, North Rustico and Mr. Newton S. McLure, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McLure, North Rustico, was solemnized at the Manse, Cavendish on August second at seven o'clock. The Rev. G. W. Tilley of Cavendish United Church officiated. The bride was charmingly gowned in Jubilee dress with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and snap-dragon with maiden hair fern. About thirty five of the immediate relatives and friends sat down to the gay bridal repast. Shortly after a gay bunch of serenaders arrived and after congratulating the bride and groom, nuptially departed. The newweds will reside in North Rustico where the groom is erecting a beautiful new home. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower at her home previously decorated in pink and white by her girl friends. With streamers held by Isabel Woolner and Nan Coles, the bride-to-be by her cousins Margaret and Miriam Woolner. The City Council decided by a unanimous vote to purchase a triple combination pumper costing $9,750 for the Charlottetown Fire Department at a special meeting last night. The order authorizing the purchase was sent to Bickley-Seagrave, Limited, immediately following the meeting to avoid the 10 per cent tax on such machines which is being put into effect today by the Dominion Government.

We the jury impaneled to inquire into the death of one Harold Jordan, find that the said Harold Jordan came to his death on the night of October 14, 1941, while on duty in the yard of the Canadian National Railway, Charlottetown, by being crushed by the wheel of a railway freight car, after having lost his footing. The losing of his footing we consider was partly caused by inadequate lighting facilities in the area in which he was working in conjunction with the shunting engine.

Woolner - McLure Nuptials - The marriage of Lucy Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Woolner, North Rustico and Mr. Newton S. McLure, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McLure, North Rustico, was solemnized at the Manse, Cavendish on August second at seven o'clock. The Rev. G. W. Tilley of Cavendish United Church officiated.
