MOVE BY OTTAWA IS OPPOSED

Apple Growers Against Abandonment Of Preference In U. K. Market.

KENTVILLE, Nov. 10—Joining in a veritable gale of protest, fruit growers and shippers throughout Nova Scotia's great apple belt today expressed themselves unanimously against abandonment of the preference they have enjoyed in the United Kingdom market.

Their expressions followed Ottawa reports that the preference would be abandoned in order to facilitate an Anglo-American trade agreement.

Industry In Jeopardy

Such a move by the Canadian Government will mean the preference of four shillings six pence per hundredweight or $1.50 per barrel secured by Canada under the 1937 Empire Trade Agreement at Ottawa will be wiped out in whole or part. For the Annapolis Valley—the greatest apple producing section of the British Empire and one of the great basic industries of this province—a trade that annually brings into Nova Scotia from overseas five to six million dollars is in jeopardy.

present conditions of legislation affecting the status of women.

Sixty years ago women could not control their own property; they could not collect their own wages. There was no protective agency over women's labor. Mothers had no right to the guardianship of their children. There were no pensions for mothers and money for the aged. Women had no right to serve in professions.

Now they are on School Boards, Municipal Boards and in Parliament. We have women doctors, women lawyers and women police officers.

There was the beginning of a Woman's Suffrage Society, but the right of women to vote was denied them because they could not fight. In the irony of fate it was the Great War that gave the wives and sisters of soldiers the franchise and later all women qualified.

A man had the right to will away his unborn child and the mother had no rights of guardianship. Now both parents have equal rights of guardianship.

Much interesting and detailed information was given by Mrs. Pugsley and it was moved and carried that this paper be put in the Essay Bureau.

In the span of sixty years, looking down the vista, from candle-light days when a woman's interests were chiefly within the home, to the present, when women have distinguished themselves in matters of Provincial, National and International import, we see the fight against the evils of Alcoholism has been waged all down through the years, and while many agencies have assisted in the reforms of the past sixty years, it is the Woman's Christian Temperance Union that has been the driving force behind every notable advance achieved—not in one country, not on this continent alone, but in almost every land and among people of almost every race.

SUNDAY AS HE FOUND IT

Rev. George G. Webber, Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance speaking on the work of the Alliance, declared that in the two months since he had come to Ontario he had found conditions here worse than in any province in the West. While we cannot in 1937 reproduce the Sunday of 1837 we can endeavour to preserve certain moral ideals and ethical standards. We cannot build a Christian civilization without the Christian Sabbath and without the Christian people realizing the value of the Sabbath for rest and worship. The Sabbath is the day when the Christian gains fresh visions of God and fresh experiences of divine grace and power.

Never in the history of the world has there been such a determined effort to shut God out of His world. We must bring God into the thoughts of men, who not only deny Him, but many who believe in Him, yet live as if He did not exist.

If we are to develop the highest personality one day in seven is needful to study Divine interpretation of life.

MOLYNEUX IS CREDITED WITH TUNIC REVIVAL

Molyneux started something when he revived the tunic dress, and designers have gone right along making more tunics with and without the slide fastener. With their definitely moulded lines they had a very youthful character, but this has been modified and now there are tunics for mature women, a little longer, a little less fitted, and with a dash of embroidery to give them a formal look.

W. C. T. U. Notes

FOR THE FALLEN

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children, England mourns for her dead across the sea, Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit, Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres, There is music in the midst of desolation And a glory that shines upon our tears. They went with songs to the battle, they were young, Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow. They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted, They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old; Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, At the dawn of morning, We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again; They sit no more at familiar tables of home; They have no lot in our labour of the day-time; They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound, Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight, To the innermost heart of their own land they are known As the stars are known to the night. As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust, Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain, As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness, To the end, to the end, they remain. —Laurence Binyon.

THE PEACE GARDEN

The work of the Governments of both countries is supplementary to the main work, which will be carried on by private endeavor. The Garden project calls for an expenditure of five million dollars. One million will be used to develop the Garden and four millions will be set aside as an endowment to perpetuate its maintenance for all time.

It might be of interest to you to know how it is proposed to raise this money. Every person in Canada and the United States—man and woman, boy and girl—will be given the opportunity of subscribing what they can afford to give.

The central feature will be a Peace Fountain with a large revolving globe. Surrounding this centerpiece will be a large circular area with boulevards radiating north, south, east and west. At the end of the north and south boulevards, and beyond the circular garden, memorial flags will carry the flag of both nations. The north and south boulevards will be known as the Avenue of the Provinces and the Avenue of the States. The one running along the east and west will be named the Avenue of Peace. At its western end is another circular area to be known as the Court of Peace, in the center of which will rise the Peace Tower, a monument resting half on Canadian and half on United States soil.

In Canada and the United States who have reaped the fruits and benefits of the spirit of tolerance and co-operation between nations, let us become active messengers of that spirit. Let each one of us proclaim it incessantly until all barriers between the nations of the world have been broken down and the seeds of international goodwill sufficiently they will take root on the ground in Europe, just as they have here in North America.

Let us say to other nations that we realize that they have just the same right to live and the same right to enjoy the benefits of the earth as we. When the Commandment "Love Thy Neighbor" is no longer made to halt at National Boundaries—to be distorted into hatred by the folly of man—then, and only then, can we expect the blessing which it intended.

In this Commandment lies the strength which will sustain the Peace Garden Pledge: "To God in His Glory we two nations dedicate this Garden and do pledge ourselves that as long as men shall live we will not take up arms against one another."

Mrs. Wm. Pugsley sketched a contrast of conditions when the W. C. T. U. was organized with
