Resume Negotiations With Russian Union

(Special to The Guardian.)
PARIS, Feb. 10.—The Supreme Economic Council today received a report from its permanent committee of measures taken to improve the resumption of economic negotiations with the central union of Russian co-operatives. The report showed that the co-operatives at Moscow have been exchanging messages with their representatives at London, three of whom left for Moscow to make a practical study of the situation with respect to exportation. The central union has shown a desire to send representatives to England and France and while anxious to hasten exchange of merchandise the Supreme Economic Council is considering the question of receiving delegates which, however, will be submitted for the approval of the Allied governments.

EVERY DAY LOST MENACES PEACE

PARIS, Feb. 9.—There is no doubt of the powerful effect Viscount Grey's letter has exercised in the highest and most influential circles of France. Striking proof of this is to be found in the following statement made by Senator Alexander Ribot, one of France's most distinguished and responsible elder statesmen, who has been twice Prime Minister, as well as filling other most important offices of state. Ribot says: "I share the views advanced by Lord Grey in his letter. The moral force of the treaty with Germany runs more risk of annihilation by prolonging discussion regarding the proposed reservations than by those reservations themselves. Under the actual conditions, every day lost prejudices the cause of general peace and compromises the interest of nations. It does not want to be dragged against their will into new conflicts. It naturally place the United States of America in the first rank of these nations. If intervening in the war in a deliberate and spontaneous manner, and by contributing with decisive effect to the triumph of right, the people of the United States have assumed liabilities to themselves as well as to their associates that their honor and their consciousness of the importance of the role oblige them to fulfill even outside of any written stipulation of the treaty."

AN INCONTESTABLE RIGHT

"That their representatives make reservations to maintain its full integrity the incontestable right of the United States Senate to be closely associated with the execution of a treaty, would only quiet us if we had any reason to doubt the people's will to remain faithful to the thought which never ceased to inspire them during the war, and which it is their pride to keep intact through all the incidents of political complications. It is not for me to discuss the terms of agreement which were arrived at between the parties in the United States Senate to ensure prompt ratification of the treaty. A quick agreement is the essential point."

"The victors of yesterday continue to weaken their victory to what a severe verdict of history they are exposing themselves."

Con Jones will sail for England shortly and will represent the Canadian governing body in complete the deal for this tour.

NEW YORK FUR AUCTION OPENS MONDAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—About ten million dollars worth of raw furs from all parts of the world were placed on show here yesterday preliminary to being sold at the fifth annual midwinter auction in the Masonic Hall, beginning on Monday next. The offering contains more than two and a half million separate pelts, including about eighty distinct varieties. Among them are over a hundred tons of rabbit skins from the Antipodes. The general collection which will require nine days to sell, is the largest and most valuable event offered to the trade by the New York Fur Auction Sales Corporation.

WASHING TON, Feb. 10.—Actual relinquishment of government control over railroad operations has already begun.

Equipment of the various roads is being kept for each line, and all traffic is being given to and routed over and in so far as possible by the originating carriers. Exception has been made in the case of displacement of traffic as the result of the coal situation. Railroad systems which have been divided, part in one region of federal operation and part in the other, are to be operated in the future as units, lines or systems. My March 1, it is expected the operation of the carriers will be back to a comparatively simple basis though representatives of many of the railroads feel that they will never recover traffic diverted to other lines by the government. Straightening out of the financial angle of the roads is another matter, however, and it will take months if not years for the consummation of the adjustment of the accounts and claims.

VOTED AGAINST MILITARY TRAINING

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Democratic members of the House, meeting in party caucus tonight refused to forego an expression of their position on universal military training in the face of an appeal from President Wilson that action be held, so the party's candidate might be left to its national convention. By a vote of 128 to 17 they went on record against universal training, adopting a resolution declaring it is the sense of this caucus that no measure be passed by this Congress providing for universal compulsory military service or training.

ECONOMIC REVIVAL NOTED IN BELGIUM

BRUSSELS, Feb. 10.—According to an inquiry made in Belgian economic and industrial circles, it appears that Belgium is accomplishing her economic reconstitution with more rapidity than France. It is only fair to state that the situation of the two countries differs widely. Belgium has suffered far less materially than France from the war. Only a limited part of her territory was submitted to the horrors of devastation as compared to the regions of France. Her mines have been, on the whole, untouched, and although a large number of her factories and industrial concerns have suffered important deprivations, they were not, like the factories of the north and east of France, absolutely destroyed.

THE ICE KING RELEASING HOLD ON NEWFOUNDLAND

The prevailing southwest and west winds of the last couple of days did something to relieve the ice blockade around the coast of Newfoundland. After being frozen in on the north coast for a couple of weeks, the steamers Eagle and Diana got clear and reached St. John's safely. The coastal steamer Prospero is still caught in the ice and the steamer Terra Nova has been sent north to her relief with coal and provisions. Two of the Reid steamships, the Argyle and the Glencoe, have also just got out of the ice in Placentia Bay, and are now resuming regular service. The tie-up of these ships has not only meant tremendous inconvenience to the whole country, but meant extreme jeopardy to close on a million dollars' worth of Newfoundland shipping.

THE NATIONAL TROTTERING ASSOCIATION

Official Report of Special Meeting of the Board of Review Held at Canton, Ohio, January 31, 1920.

By Order of the President, a special meeting of the Board of Review was held at his office in Canton, Ohio, commencing at one p. m., Saturday, January 31, 1920.

The following officers and members were present: President, John C. Welby, Canton, Ohio; Chairman of Eastern District, Edward Moulton, Worcester, Mass.; Chairman of Central District, Henry B. Rea, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Chairman of Atlantic District, Ray M. Colby, Owego, N. Y., and the undersigned Secretary.

The President reported that inasmuch as there had been much criticism both for and against Rule 7, Sections 6 and 7, adopted by the Joint Rules Committee of the National and American Trotting Association, and adopted by the Congress of the National Trotting Association as one of its rules at its meeting held on December 2, 1919, that for the purpose of determining the wishes and desires of the members of The National Trotting Association he did, on January 16, 1920, submit to the members a referendum vote thereon and advising them that if a majority of the members are not in favor of said Rule that the Board of Review had full authority to appoint a Committee with power to revise and amend the Rules.

That in pursuance of said letter and referendum a large response was made by the members, and all of which responses the President submitted to the Board at its meeting this day held.

VANCOUVER DRIFTS WITHOUT RUDDER

The Marine and Fisheries Department at Halifax has received advice by radio from the Mauretania to the effect that the steamer Vancouver has lost her rudder and is in need of assistance. The position of the Vancouver is latitude 39.00 north and longitude 58.30 west, approximately 410 miles from Halifax and 100 miles south of the trans Atlantic steamship lane. The Vancouver is a French steamer of no listed tonnage. She sailed from Vancouver December 10 for Queens-town. She arrived at Colon January 22, resuming her voyage the following day.

C. P. O. S. METAGAMA ARRIVED IN ST. JOHN

The C.P.O.S. liner Metagama, from Liverpool, docked at West St. John Tuesday afternoon with about 1,500 passengers, mails and general cargo. The ship brought 567 cabin and 957 steerage passengers. The cabin passengers disembarked and were sent west on two special trains. The steerage passengers landed Wednesday morning about 8 o'clock, and all are about west. Among the party are about eighty household helpers, coming to Canada to secure homes.

THE MONTCALM DRIFTING EASTWARD WITH ICE

Although the vessel is in no danger chances of the government ice-breaker Montcalm reaching the Magdalen Islands seem very remote. The latest report to the Marine department states that she is now eight miles north of St. Lawrence on the St. John north of Cape Breton Island, drifting eastward with the ice.

MARITIME ELECTRIC CO., LIMITED

The Board of Review under authority of Article IX, Section 4, of the By-Laws appointed H. B. Rea, Edward Moulton and Ray M. Colby a committee with power to revise and amend Rule 7, Sections 6 and 7. This committee revised and amended this rule by striking out Sections 6 and 7 of Rule 7, adopted at the Congress, December 2, 1919, and inserted as an amendment and revision, the following in place thereof:

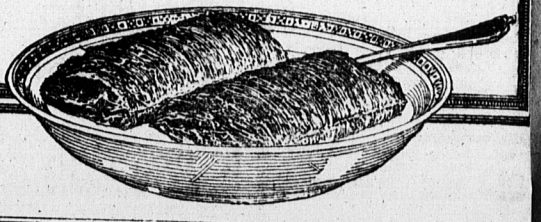

Sec. 6. After a horse has acquired a winrace, he shall be allowed, whether raced or not, two seconds for each calendar year until he reduces it, but the limit shall not exceed three years or six seconds. At the beginning of each year a horse is entitled to his full allowance, and can start in a class, to which he is eligible with said allowance added to his winrace. This allowance, however, does not waive the application of Rule 7, Section 2, after a horse has been given the benefit of the time allowance to which he is entitled, or allow him to start in a race after he has won in one second or more faster than the class advertised prior to the closing of entries. No other time allowances shall be permitted. A nominator is required to claim time allowance when making entry.

Sec. 7. When a horse with a winrace, made on a mile track, started on a half-mile track, and won within four seconds of same, he was entitled to any allowance under Rule 7, Section 6, he forfeits same just as a horse forfeits his allowance under the same rule on a half-mile track when he reduces his winrace on a mile track. He is, however, still entitled to the allowance between his mile and half mile track winraces when entering on a half-mile track.

No further business appearing, the Board of Review at 4.30 p. m.,
