"I bought a polywog for little sister, mamma," was the greeting of four-year-old Violet Ethel Blain to her mother on arriving in Canada after traveling across the ocean alone. She had been living in Killeen, County Down, Ireland, for the past year and came out, fearlessly enough on the S. S. Regina, sailing from Belfast. Her "little sister" whom she had never seen, is only three months old.

Special mention must be made of the excellent address given by the Diocesan President, Mrs. Fred Conroy, which follows:
Reverend Fathers, invited guests, lady delegates, and members.—The passing of a year brings us again to a convening. With pleasure I greet you here this evening on the occasion of the first Diocesan Convention of the Catholic Women's League in Kensington. We are come with a common interest, the work of the League; a common desire, the progress of the League; and to perfect the results of this united interest and desire, we are here. The development of the C. W. L. in this diocese has been rapid, and wherever a sub-division has been formed there has been constant interest taken, and creditable work done. Truly, it has been as the mustard seed. From its origination when it was sanctioned by the church, it has become, not sub-divisional, but diocesan, not diocesan but Dominion-wide; not Dominion-wide, but international, until now, it stands as a prime, recognized force. We are proud that we are privileged to belong to this great society of which our work is part program. Being Catholic in its administration, it embraces all in its charity and help, thus making us participants in a nation-wide movement for God's honor. The thoughtful and sacrificing workers who let not the left hand know what the right hand is doing in the eye of the all-seeing Father, and shall not go without his reward, for the work we do today may reap fruit unto generations to come, and how many lives of the desperate and sinful and their destinies therefore, have been turned by care, love and assistance from one of His workers. Oh, we cannot limit the application or results of words of Suffice it be that we do our part in sacrifice for God, nor shall we try, our diocese and sub-division with the proper spirit.

It was my privilege this year to attend the Dominion convention of the C. W. L. at Ottawa, where I beheld the centralization and came in contact with the leading workers, and promoters of the League. There I realized the magnitude of the work being done over the Dominion by intelligent workers through this agency and what an essential the organization is—to make our sub-divisions active and perfect their work is our aim, to find out just where we are needed and to be there is our determination. So it is that we are all here today, to check over last year's work, and perhaps with a certain amount of justifiable satisfaction, we agree we have done well. Let us hope and strive for greater results in the future. I know we shall enjoy being here in the town of Kensington, and shall return to our homes and take up our duties with renewed energy. Therefore, I welcome you and pray God to bless us in our endeavors and convention, so that the year coming may be the most fruitful in its work in the history of the Catholic Women's League in this Diocese. In closing, I wish to add, while at the Dominion convention, I had the pleasure of recommending Mrs. William McIntyre, Charlottetown, to the office of Convenor of the Child Welfare Committee. We are proud to be so represented on the Dominion Executive, and are sure the position will be capably and creditably filled by Mrs. McIntyre.

The vocal solos rendered by Madame St. Coeur were masterpieces of the highest vocal order, and were keenly appreciated by the audience. The accompanist was Mrs. James Campbell, Burlington, who performs with an ability that displays the true artist. Bouquets were presented to Mrs. Conroy and Madame St. Coeur by infant Erna Hughes.

All present were kindly treated to lunch by the ladies of Kensington Sub-Division, which was followed by a most enjoyable hour of social intercourse between delegates and visitors.

On Wednesday morning High Mass was sung by Rt. Rev. Maurice McDonald, who delivered a sermon emphasizing the importance of religious in connection with education. The sermon was most practical and must appeal to all intelligent minds.
The visiting delegates were taken for a drive to Malpeque, where they visited the Presbyterian Church and the Soldiers' Monument. In Malpeque the visitors were most favorably impressed with the magnificent appearance of the church and grounds, which are maintained in the most approved manner. They returned by way of Indian River where they visited St. Mary's church, through which they were most kindly shown by the Pastor, Mgr. Gillis, who made the delegates most welcome.
The business meetings were well attended at both morning and afternoon sessions, and all matters of importance and business dealing with the C. W. L. affairs were very satisfactorily disposed of.

The election of officers resulted as follows:
Pres.—Mrs. W. J. McIntyre.
1st Vice-Pres.—Mrs. F. J. Casey.

2nd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Amelia McGrath.
3rd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. (Dr.) E. G. Gillis.
Treasurer.—Mrs. A. J. Bernard.
Corr. Sec.—Mrs. (Dr.) J. E. Blanchard.
Rec. Sec.—Mrs. Jas Pendergast.
Councillors: Mrs. Charles Fisher,

Mrs. J. B. Cunningham, Mrs. Wm. Pendergast, Mrs. Francis Hagan, Mrs. Mary J. McAulay.
On Wednesday evening the delegates and executive were most pleasantly entertained at a card party at the residence of Mrs. (Dr.) E. G. Gillis. The prize winners were Mrs. Fred Conroy, Past President, and Mrs. Thomas Bolger. The Kensington Sub-Division gave a most enjoyable social in the C. M. B. A. Hall, where the delegates and visitors met with the members of the O'Keefe. An invitation was most cordially extended to the delegates to hold the next convention at St. Peter's. This was presented to Miss Mary McAulay.

ant and satisfactory in the history of C. W. L. conventions in this province. The card winners were Mrs. John T. Mullin and Mrs. Andrew O'Keefe. An invitation was most cordially extended to the delegates to hold the next convention at St. Peter's. This was presented to Miss Mary McAulay.

Quality That Endures

THE fruits of twenty-one years of experience in building motor cars are evident in the world-wide public acceptance of Ford quality as an enduring characteristic.

Enduring quality has enabled the public to buy these products just as it buys other products of established reputation—with the assurance of receiving good value and lasting satisfaction.

Only enduring quality could instill such confidence in the public mind. More than twelve million owners testify that this confidence is well founded.

Corns Soften In Foot Bath

Hot water extraction of corns and callouses offers the only perfect way to rid yourself of these painful troubles. Take just a minute or two and spread a few drops of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor over the sensitive surface of the corn or callous, and the pain is stopped at once. Then you will forget your corns, because they will not pain. Later you use a hot foot bath for five or ten minutes. Corn crumples up and drops off, it is a grand and glorious feeling that you get from Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It costs but little, and is sold by all druggists.
