DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

Furnished by W. S. Louson. SPRING TIME ON THE FARM.

O for the farm with the spring on the hills. And the valleys a-tinkle with ripple of rills. With the lilt and the song of the robin and wren. And the rollick of bobolinks up in the glen. A breath from the south with a sweet verdure hint. The leafing and budding and grasses a-glint. The warm loamy meadows have droning and hum. And whisper of billows of clover to whom.

O for the farm with the lilacs in bloom. Where the orchards are white with their wealth of perfume. Where a pink and white shower rains down on the grass. And carpets the turf at our feet as we pass. Where the cattle come down the long lane with a fret. And leave the lush pastures with munching regret. And the ploughboy goes whistling, his task to employ. There work becomes pleasure, and living a joy.

O for the farm and the wood, and its scent. And a hunt for the mosses with flowers besprent. The vines reaching out from the great spreading roots. The ferns reaching up with their soft plumes about. The tassels that fringe all the trees overhead. O give me the book, of old Nature instead. Of the narrow walled city, its problems and wants. And give me the music of Pan, and his haunts. I am tired of men, O give back the charm. And the sweetness and breath of the spring on the farm.

NAVY MANOEUVERS STOPPED BY FOG

LONDON, May 11—The great scheme of manoeuvres which had been planned to test the efficiency of the navy dwindled to two afternoons' gunnery practice owing to fog, and therefore was a comparative failure. The chief feature yesterday was the excellent results secured by the battleship Orion's 14.5 guns which made 21 hits out of 28 rounds. King George watched the target shooting with great interest and signalled his congratulations to the Captain of the Orions.

Cramps at Night Require Prompt Remedy

Agonizing Pain Prevented by Keeping Nerviline Handy on the Shelf. A Case in Point Illustrated

Deadly cramps—the symptoms are not to be mistaken. Suddenly and without warning the patient experiences such agony in the stomach as to contort the countenance and cause him to cry aloud for help. Then it is that the wonderful power of Nerviline can make itself felt—it cures so quickly. "Last summer I was stricken with a frightful attack of cramps. I feared the pain in my stomach would kill me. "My eyes bulged out and the veins in my forehead stood out like whiplashes. "My cries attracted a neighbor, who came to my assistance, and in a moment or two handed me half a teaspoonful of Nerviline in some sweetened water. "It seemed as if an angel had charmed away the pain. In ten seconds I was well. Nerviline has a wonderful name in this locality, and is considered best for cramps, diarrhoea, flatulence, stomach and bowel disorders. I urge all my friends to use Nerviline. "MANLEY M. LEGARDE, "Williamsburg."

No home is safe or can afford to miss the manifold advantages of having Nerviline on hand in case of accident or emergent sickness. Large family size bottles of Nerviline, 50c; trial size, 25c, all dealers, or The Catarhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada. "Brown has a hat to fit every head at a price to suit every purse. His hat department is the largest and best equipped in the Province. Derbies range in price from $1.75 to $3.00. Soft felts from $5.00 to $8.00. Brown's The Home of Good Hats. 5-13331.

The Gem Junior Safety Razor

is without doubt the best razor at the price $1.00 sold to-day in Canada. In fact it gives better satisfaction than many of the more expensive kinds and we know of cases where it is preferred to a Gillette. One of our customers was so pleased with its work, that he sent nine different men to our store, all of whom purchased one on his recommendation. You get one on ours, only $1.00 each.

MR. W. H. RIDDELL, OF WATERLOO, DEAD

WATERLOO, Ont., May 9—W. H. Riddell, assistant manager of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada, died here this morning after a few hours illness, death being due to apoplexy. Deceased was in his office as usual yesterday, but when leaving his residence to go to church last night was taken suddenly ill. He was born in Sparta, N.Y., of Irish parentage, on August 18, 1837. He was educated in the collegiate Institute, Collingwood and taught school for several years in the counties of Grey and Bruce, subsequently going into newspaper work in Toronto.

In 1870 he became an editorial writer on the Toronto press and in 1876 joint owner and manager of the Toronto Tribune. He joined the staff of the Mutual Life in 1882 as secretary which position he filled until 1907, when he was appointed assistant manager. It is worthy of mention that he had a part in the organization of the company, having been the founders in 1863, in securing the five hundred charter members requisite to its foundation. Mr. Riddell took a keen interest in the general affairs of his town, having been an active member of the Board of Trade, the Berlin and Waterloo Hospital, Board of Health, Library, and Board of Park Management. He was also a valuable member and past President of the Berlin Club, and an active member of the Canadian Club.

NATIONAL DISPUTE WOMAN IN THE CASE.

WARSAW, May 11—Miss Malecka an English woman was sentenced yesterday to four years penal servitude on a charge of being affiliated with the Polish revolutionaries. London, May 11—This morning's newspapers protest strongly against the sentencing of Miss Malecka declaring that she was convicted in lousy evidence. They demand that the British Foreign Office take strong action against the Russian Government on behalf of Miss Malecka. Miss Malecka, was arrested July 4 of last year charged with complicity in the plots of the Polish revolutionaries. The British Foreign Office made representations Russia to which that country replied that although Miss Malecka's mother was English her father was a Pole naturalized in England that the father never had received permission to change his nationality and that therefore in accordance with British law his naturalization was ineffective and his daughter is a Russian subject.
