Smith-McCourt Wedding

—St. James Church, Summerfield, beautifully decorated for the occasion, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday, July 6th at 8 a.m. when Mary Beatrice McCourt, daughter of Mr. Louis and the late Mrs. McCourt, Emerald, became the bride of John Reginald, son of Mrs. Smith and the late Bernard Smith, Emerald. Rev. Eugene Murray performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The double ring ceremony was used. The wedding march was played by the groom's sister, Miss Kathleen Smith and the girl's choir sang several appropriate hymns. Entering the church on the arm of her father the bride was most charming in her wedding gown of white satin made on princess lines falling in graceful fullness to the floor. The bodice was fastened with a row of tiny covered buttons down the back and the sleeves were long. Her tulle illusion veil was floor length and was fastened with a coronet of pearls. Her ornaments were a double strand of pearls and matching earrings, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Mrs. Helen McCarville, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and she wore a dress of orchid moire taffeta made similar to the bride's. Her poke bonnet and mitts were of the same material as her dress. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. A tiny niece of the bride, Beryl McCourt, was flower girl, looking sweet and demure in her floor length white dress and veil and carrying a basket of flowers. The groom was Harold McCourt, brother of the bride was groomsman. The ushers were Mr. Lloyd McCourt and Mr. Gerald Hickey. After the ceremony a reception and wedding breakfast for the immediate relatives was held at the bride's home. The bridal couple were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. Emmet Clow, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Thomas Hamill, cousin of the bride. The dining room was decorated in pink and white streamers and a profusion of cut flowers. A beautifully decorated two tier wedding cake centred the table. The cake was cut in traditional style by the bride and groom. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Father Murray to which the groom fittingly responded. The bride's father added his blessing in a brief speech. Before leaving by the Wood Islands ferry for a wedding trip through the Maritimes the bride and groom called on the bride's sister, Rev. Sister Mary Bernard in Charlottetown. For travelling the bride wore a blue dress and hat and beige coat. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCourt when she was the recipient of a beautiful array of costly and useful gifts from friends and relatives showing their love and esteem for a very popular young lady. On their return they will reside in Emerald where the groom operates a prosperous farm. A host of friends unite in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Smith many years of wedded bliss.—K.

BOSOM BUDDIES

Jumbo, 5-year-old Saint Bernard, and Mabel, 5-week-old fawn, have become bosom buddies. Mabel's mother had wandered and abandoned her on a farm near Stockton, N.J., where Jumbo discovered her. The Saint Bernard's owner brought the young deer to a vet for treatment. But Jumbo got so lonesome for his new girl friend that Mabel was finally brought home again to keep him company.

ALPHA W. I. MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Alpha Women's Institute was held on Tuesday evening, July 5, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Crockett. The meeting opened with "O Canada" and the Creed; the roll call was responded to by 16 members. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Peter Proud and Mrs. Allan Swan were the appointed delegates to the Women's Institutes convention. It was also decided to hold a picnic at the picnic grounds the first week in August. A contest was then put on by Miss Frances Vessey. The meeting closed with "God Save The King". Lunch was then served by the hostess and all departed thanking Mrs. Crockett for a lovely evening.

YOUR CHILDREN WILL EAT WITHOUT COAXING!

When you serve...
Aylmer Catsup
...makes foods tastier

A pure catsup, like Aylmer, is wholesome eating for the children, say nutritionists. For Aylmer makes it "home-style" — from Canada's finest, red-ripe tomatoes. Children love its "true tomato flavor" and need Vitamin C. 75
