

Whooping Cough This is the Children's Complaints where Griffiths' Menthol Liniment is so very valuable. Don't load your child's stomach with cough mixture, they won't do any good. Just rub Griffiths' Liniment on the throat and chest night and morning, and the coughing immediately becomes easier. It is pleasant to use.

About Coffee

A pretty good way to test any store is by the coffee it sells. We're willing for you to test us by our coffee any time. We wish you would try some of our 4oz. Mocha & Java. We'd be glad to sell it to you and you'd be glad you'd tried it—its such a fine coffee. Blended skillfully and just roasted enough. Freshly Ground when ordered.

An interesting feature of the program was a recitation by some little girls under the charge of Miss Mellish. Some extracts from a report of the Bishop of Saskatchewan were then read by Mr. W. Cotton after which Mr. A. J. B. Mellish gave a very interesting account of what he had seen of Church work among the natives in South Africa. After some remarks by Mr. J. D. Collier a very pleasant meeting was brought to close with prayer and the benediction.

BOSTON POST:—It is understood that the fine Plant line steamer Olivette that has not been seen much in these waters since the Spanish war is due at Lewis' pier next Wednesday from the southern route of the line to re-enter the one between here and the British Provinces, in which trade she in years past proved a favorite with the travelling public. She has been running between Florida and Cuba for some time, and while she was away the fast, large and commodious steamer Grand Duchesse took her place. The Olivette will share honors with the Halifax and Yarmouth, which will be run on the same service, with different ports of departure on the other end. This trio are noted for comfort, speed and seaworthy qualities. Agent E. H. Downing will have his hands full in the hot months in caring for the thousands of passengers and the large amount of freight that will come and go on the steamers and Special Officer Flint will earn his wages in keeping the pier free of loiterers.
