THE Dominion Day races which will take place on the Summerside driving park next Monday will certainly be the sporting event of the season. There is an unusually large number of entries, representing the Island's best speed. The track is in excellent condition and some fast work may be looked for. All interested in horses and horse racing should attend the Dominion Day races next Monday.

THE examination of the Fanning school, Malpeque, took place on Wednesday. Dr. D. J. McLeod, Superintendent of Education, and about fifty parents and visitors were present. The examination was conducted by the Superintendent and R. B. Murphy, teacher, Sea View and others. The pupils acquitted themselves admirably and received much commendation from the visitors. The Cumberland Scholarship was won by Miss Lucy Montgomery, daughter of the late John Montgomery Esq. The number of cash prizes were distributed by the trustees of the Cumberland Trust. The examination was pronounced a very satisfactory one and Principal Shaw and Miss MacKelvie, his assistant, were highly complimented on the excellent standing maintained by the school. The pupils presented the Principal with a handsome gift accompanied by an address.
