IF YOU WANT TO YOU CAN WIN A PRIZE

It is only a matter of making up your mind if you want to win a prize. You can secure any prize in life by applying your faculties and it is only in this way that you will develop and gain commercial experience or knowledge. The object of this election contest is to train as many as possible into the school of salesmanship and no experience could prove more profitable or useful during your whole lifetime.

There's going to be no end of fun and experience in this election contest. Only candidates of good character will be admitted. You will therefore have the satisfaction of knowing you are associated with the cleanest, liveliest, straightest and fairest crowd of young people that could be gathered together in the Lower Provinces.

It will be your pleasure and opportunity to associate yourself with young men and women of the highest calibre--young men and women who will be lending in business and society in the years to come--men and women who will play the game fair and, win or lose, will show every consideration to their election companions and opponents. You will form associations that will last your lifetime.

In short, it is your opportunity to make friends--to gain experience--to acquire a knowledge of psychology--to make money with the investment of a little time and effort. IT IS YOUR CHANCE, YOUNG MAN OR WOMAN, TO SHOW WHAT YOU CAN DO, to show that you can measure up to the expectations of your friends. It is your chance to step out of the ranks and be a leader, and thereby receive well-merited recognition in plaudits and prizes.
