The Central Guardian Farewell Message From Lieutenant Governor DeBlois

Then, the crowning event of my Term of Office was the visit of Their Majesties last June. We all experienced the joy of this occasion (notwithstanding the inclement weather) and no words of mine are needed to describe the graciousness of Their Majesties and the significance and far reaching effect of the event.

During the past five years we have entertained many notable personages, among them the Chief Scout of the World—Lord Baden-Powell and Lady Baden-Powell, the Governor General of Canada, Lord Bessborough and the Lady Bessborough; and the present Governor General of Canada, Lord Tweedsmuir. All these, in addition to countless other men and women of note from England, France and the United States and Canada, left with us many happy and treasured memories.

In January, 1936, the passing of the Honourable Walter M. Lea, late Premier of this Province, in the prime of life, brought to all our people a very real sense of sorrow and loss. We are proud of all the splendid record of wise leadership and unselfish service.

Several British, Canadian and French warships have visited our port during the past five years, and their flags floating over our waters lifted us from the level of preoccupation of local affairs to a realization that small though we may be in size, yet we have our part to play among the world powers of today.

Another notable guest last summer was the United States battleship, the U. S. S. "Hamilton", the first warship from this great Republic to visit our shores for over fifty years. I need not say that it was wholly a friendly call for the Officers and men were heartily welcomed and entertained.

Being a matter of Provincial interest, perhaps it would not be out of place for me to quote the following from a letter received a few days ago from Lieutenant Commander Evans who was in command of the U. S. S. "Hamilton" on her visit here in July.

"During the visit of the U. S. S. 'Hamilton' to Charlottetown on July 14-21 of this year, the reception accorded to the officers and men of the ship was so cordial and the stay was so pleasant that I feel it would be fitting to express my appreciation to the people of Prince Edward Island, that it seemed appropriate to commission a memento of our appreciation. The officers and men of the Hamilton have therefore caused to be made, and are forwarding under separate cover, a metal plaque, mounted on a mahogany base and engraved as follows:

Commemorating the visit of the U. S. S. Hamilton to Charlottetown, P. E. I., 14-21 July, 1939, on the occasion of the 75th Anniversary of the Dominion of Newfoundland. Presented by the officers and men of the U. S. S. Hamilton."

It may be a lasting reminder of a most enjoyable visit, and of the good-will, good fellowship, and lasting friendships which resulted therefrom.

We have had several noteworthy celebrations, one of the most outstanding being in August, 1934, when we celebrated the Four Hundredth Anniversary of the arrival on Canadian shores of Jacques Cartier, that hardy adventurer who was followed by a host of Frenchmen whose loyal descendants are so solid and patriotic a part of our country today.

The second outstanding Celebration was our Seventy-fifth Anniversary as a nation when we paid public honour to that group of statesmen whose vision and courage in the face of strong opposition founded the Dominion of Canada.

I am most happy to have been able to participate in these great events. Since assuming the high office I am about to relinquish, I have tried in my feeble and humble way to further the interests of all Civic, Provincial and Philanthropic organizations working to the best of my ability for the uplift of mankind in general, the betterment of this Province and, above all, for the strengthening of the link that binds the Crown and the people together. If I have succeeded even in a very small way, then my reward is great indeed.

The Boy Scouts and the Red Cross have appealed to me strongly, the latter because of its work of mercy and trained helpfulness in time of widespread distress, for it is quite evident that without the service of the Red Cross we would be helpless in times of war, epidemics and disaster. The Boy Scouts have enlisted my interest because I am convinced that the outdoor life and training with the lessons of discipline, service, courtesy, and little acts of human kindness which these young minds and bodies receive, cannot fail to produce the highest type of manhood. I like the Scout Promise. There is something about it that inspires one with confidence and courage every time you hear it repeated. "On my honour, I promise to do my duty to God and the King, to help other people in times of need, to obey the Scout Law; that is the promise that every boy must take to become a Boy Scout. I for one firmly believe that these boys will develop into men who will carry our civilization to the highest point it has ever reached."

Feeling that the aesthetic side of a country, as well as that of an individual, should receive constant attention, in 1935 I instituted a campaign for the beautification of homes and gardens in the City and throughout the Province by the planting of trees, shrubs and flowers, and by offering special prizes at the Exhibitions held each year at Charlottetown, Egmont Bay, Alberton, Souris and Georgetown. The response has been most encouraging, and I hope that the project will be carried forward until Prince Edward Island will become one of the most beautiful spots in the whole world.

As I retire, may I say that my Term of Office has awakened in me an understanding of the value of the youth of today and of the importance of the faithful performance of public duty and service. In these dark days of uncertainty, of misadventure and disregard of human rights, surely, my friends, it is imperative for men to enter public life not for personal gain or personal glory, but for that unselfish and wise visioned public service which is so sorely needed today. We want to remember that men are elected to public office not to serve themselves, but rather to serve their country. I feel that the hope of the solution of present international difficulties and the attainment of peace and the salvation of Christianity rests largely upon the shoulders of the youth of the democratic nations of the world. Let us see that they are given a chance to make good.

Lastly, I want to thank the people of this Province for their hearty support and co-operation which I have received during my term of office. It has made possible whatever little results I have been able to accomplish and, knowing you as I have come to know you, I am certain that my successor in office, the Honourable B. W. LePage, will receive the same loyal support. He has my sincere good wishes as he enters upon his duties.

My earnest prayer is that God in His infinite love and wisdom may be with the Empire and the Allies in their fight for Freedom, Justice and Truth, and may He soon restore to us the Blessings of Peace.

GEORGE D. DEBLOIS.

Germany Wants Peace—On Her Terms (By Alvin J. Steinkopf Associated Press Staff Writer) BERLIN, Sept. 29-(AP)—Germany in effect told the world tonight she would accept the German-Russian division of Poland as a condition for peace.

As the German Foreign Minister, Joachim Von Ribbentrop, declared jubilantly from Moscow, "Hands off the Balkans" and "Let us deal in our own way with the Baltic States" were pronounced from the German government quarters.

Von Ribbentrop reported immediately to Fuhrer Hitler upon his return from Moscow with a German-Russian declaration placing peace argument before Great Britain and France; an accord partitioning Poland; and an exchange of letters projecting the trade of Russian raw materials for German industrial products.

No one made any effort tonight to conceal the Nazi satisfaction with events in Moscow. The open road to the east, it was claimed, nullified the British sea blockade and the trade agreement between Germany and Russia for raw materials.

Informed quarters said that with their aims in Eastern Europe [illegible] Germany hoped for speedy re-establishment of peace. Among the "new facts" which were said to strengthen the German hand was the information that under certain circumstances military cooperation between Russia and Germany was possible. It was pointed out in Nazi quarters for instance that if any power sought to reestablish the Republic of Poland, it would be opposing not only Germany, but also Britain, the United States and the Soviet Union. The whole matter and to decide whether Europe should have war or peace should be possible for the Western Allies without loss of dignity or honor, the Nazi spokesman said. In the opinion of informed quarters, Premier Mussolini appeared to have been chosen for the role of "peacemaker" because Italy ranked first among the "friendly powers" with which Germany and Russia proposed to cooperate in their peace manoeuvre. German troops had been expected to enter surrendered Warsaw today, but the entry was deferred until probably Oct. 2 as the removal of the Polish soldiers began tonight. As the first contingents of Poles estimated 120,000 disarmed Poles were reported to have begun marching into German captivity, it was believed two or three days would be required for the rest of the defeated defence forces to march out. LONDON (GP)—Not only peers, but persons appearing in the days in khaki in the peeresses' gallery in the House of Lords, Lady Trenchard and other women emergency butters frequently appear in uniform. France Not Deterred By Nazis-Soviets

PARIS, Sept. 29-(AP)—France gave every indication tonight that the German-Russian peace gesture would not alter her determination to fight on against Germany.

The Government received, and published, an official Polish appeal, which France and Britain reject any peace which accepts Poland's partition and continue their fight for reestablishment of Polish freedom and "just reparations."

France's official rejection of the Moscow peace move awaited receipt of some formal offer from the Eastern Powers, but it was strongly foreshadowed in semi-official utterances.

Diplomatic activity overshadowed operations on the Western front, but both President LeBaron and the Air Minister, Guy La Chambre visited the zone of combat.

The Polish Ambassador, Jules Laskowicz, presented the Foreign Ministry with a note demanding his Government would not accept the terms of the German-Russian accord. (A similar protest was made in London by the Polish Ambassador to Britain.)

Informed sources close to the Government left no doubt that the French and British aims included reestablishment of Poland as an independent state.

That French diplomats said automatically eliminated any chance of a German-Russian peace on the basis of the partition of Poland.

So forthwith to certify the result of the recount or final addition to the Returning Officer for Queen's County in said Province. Dated this 29th day of September, A. D. 1939 (Signed) J. A. MATHESON Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island.

Mr. Major Townsend very capably acted as chairman. After a few chosen remarks by the chairman, a beautiful bouquet of gladioli and asters were presented by little Miss Vera Rogers and Master Robert Linkletter, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Linkletter.
