GEN'L MANAGER

M. C. DELANEY, M. L. A.

Mr. Delaney has recently purchased the general retail business of Lord & Co., Ltd., Albany Station. This along with his regular business at North Tryon, where he resides, gives him a much larger field for his enterprises. The advantages of having a warehouse and other conveniences at a Railway Station cannot be overestimated. Mr. Delaney, when quite a young man, began farming on a small scale, but a fire burned all his buildings and left him practically penniless. This was his opportunity, and he was not slow to take advantage of it. He began merchandising in the most modest manner possible and has succeeded to a greater extent than ever anticipated, at the present time having two successful places of business as above referred to, besides being a member of the Provincial Legislature.

DASH FOR LIBERTY KILLS INSANE MAN

HAMILTON, Ont., March 25—A sensational dash for liberty, which had a fatal termination, was attempted on Wednesday by a patient named Lockhart at a hospital for insane on the mountain. Lockhart took advantage of the temporary absence of his guards to remove a window in a bath room on the second story, dropping a distance of thirty feet to the ground.

He evidently threw out his arm to break his fall, but his arm went through a window of the ground ward and the arm was almost cut in two. In the morning the man's body was found lying under some trees in the garden of the institution, where he must have made his way after he fell. He had evidently bled to death. The body was frozen, having lain there all night.

CLUB SAYS MAN BUT FAIRLY MATURE AT 50

CHICAGO, March 24—The Anti-Forty-five Year Age Limit League, educational and social, received a charter today from the secretary of state. The founders, William F. Black and Edward C. Cecil, say they tried to make the name self-explanatory.

They are "anti" anything which even intimates that 50 is more than a fairly mature age. "We hope," said Mr. Cecil, "to nip in the bud this idea that men are in any way incapacitated at such a trivial age as 45. You know the imaginations of people are wonderful things, and if you just tell them often enough that a man's no good after he reaches 45 they'll get to believe it pretty soon."

FIND CASH TIED TO ANKLE OF DEAD MAN

TOLEDO, O., March 24—The body of a middle aged man, believed to have been N. E. Hilliard, an oil well driller, who lived at Cygnet, O., was found at the bottom of Swan creek.

A roll of $100 in currency was found wrapped around the dead man's left ankle under the sock, and $80 was in a similar position around the right ankle. A purse, empty, a bill book and blank checks were found on the river bank, leading the police to believe that the man had been the victim of thugs.

LONE TRAIN ROBBER ESCAPES

DENISON, Iowa, March 25—A masked man, who climbed aboard the rear of train No. 8 on the North-western last night, forced the flagman, a point of a revolver, to go ahead into a sleeper. The stranger held up A. C. Hanson, of Olympia (Wash.) for $14 and a diamond ring, and received J. W. Hendell, of Wichita (Kan.) $35 and a gold watch. He then jumped the train and escaped.

Could Not Rest at Night. Back Was So Weak.

Weak, lame and aching backs are the primary cause of kidney trouble. When the back aches or becomes weak it is warning from the kidneys that everything is not right with them. Heed the warning: cure the weak, lame, aching back and dispose of any chances of further trouble.

If you have this, serious complications are very apt to arise and the first thing you know you will be troubled with Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease, the three most deadly forms of Kidney Trouble.

On the first sign of anything wrong Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go to the seat of the trouble and strengthen the kidneys, thereby strengthening the back.

Mrs. John Puigh, Parkdale, Man., writes: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and find nothing to beat them. I could not rest at night my back was so weak. I tried everything, but could not get anything to do me any good until I was told by a friend to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I tried them and I am not the same weak woman I was before. I am very thankful to have found so speedy a cure."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. M. Burns Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

Do You Care For Your Hair?

If you keep it clear from dandruff. That is one of its greatest enemies. It is not merely an unsightly nuisance, it's a real menace. It indicates a diseased scalp, and a diseased scalp can't nourish the hair properly.

Dandruff, sluggish circulation of the blood through the scalp, impaired vitality of the hair follicles and the hair dies.

Nyal's Hair Restorer gets at the root of the trouble by overcoming the dandruff. After a few applications the dandruff is seen to be greatly diminished in quantity, and continued use banishes it entirely.

GLAD IN NIGHT CLOTHING DRIVEN OUT BY FLAMES

Mar. 25—A fire, which at 4 o'clock this morning drove the family of Frank Watts out of their rooms into the exposure of a biting north wind, where they were forced to dress on the top of a flat-roofed verandah, makes the second narrow escape of this family within three years from the same premises at 1214 Yonge street, North Toronto, from the same cause.

That there was no loss of life is undoubtedly due to the prompt action of Constable Smith, 412, who, seeing the flames in the shop beneath the rooms where the four people were sleeping, at once broke the window, gave the alarm and got the people into a way to make their escape. As it was, all natural means of getting out of the building had been cut off by the flames, and the family had to crawl out of an upper window on to the roof of the balcony verandah and wait there until they were lifted down by the firemen.

Mr. Watts, his wife, a small daughter, aged eight and niece Muriel Clayton, were the occupants of the rooms, and so soundly were they sleeping that the first intimation they had of any danger was the pounding of the policeman. The fire had broken out in Mr. Watts's barber shop beneath, from some cause as yet unknown, and by the time the alarm was given, had worked as far as the only stairway which led to the living rooms above.

"I saw there was no chance of getting down that way," stated Mr. Watts this morning, "as it was, when I went near I felt the flames hot on my back. Mrs. Watts and I each ran to the rooms where the girls were sleeping, we each grabbed one, and when my wife went to the stairway I had to pull her back or she would have been scorched by the blaze. We climbed through the window upon the roof and stood there shivering for a few minutes until I went back into the house and picked up a few pieces of clothing."

Mr. Watts is suffering from a cold today as a result of his exposure, and he still shivered as he told of the unpleasant experience of the wind whipping about their scanty garments. By the time the occupants had dressed, the fireman had arrived, and they were carried down the ladders. The constable had some difficulty in persuading Mrs. Watts that there was no necessity for her to jump before the brigade arrived.

The family were taken in at the Rosedale Hotel, where they spent the rest of the night. Mr. Watts's barber equipment will be a complete loss, as well as all their furniture and clothing, except the few articles which were saved when he ran back into the room. The loss is estimated at nearly $4,000, on which an insurance of $2,000 is carried, a thousand each in the Queen City and the Merchants Fire. The building is owned by Nicholas Garland and half of the lower floor is a candy and fruit store. The loss to this stock is placed at $250. In addition, the flames worked their way through the hall to the south, into the grocery store of N. Carmichael, at 1212, and did considerable damage to the stock, both from smoke and water. The wall was burned through in two large holes, but the firemen did good service in covering the goods with tarpaulins. As Mr. Carmichael carried a large stock, and the upper floor was used as a store-room, he has placed his loss from deterioration of value at about $1,500. This building is owned by T. G. Crown, and is also covered by insurance.

Mr. Watts recalled that a little less than three years ago, his barber business was burned out and he and his family living above had a similar disagreeable time in making their escape.

IN MEMORIAM.

On March 10th, 1911, Mrs. Lucy Ann MacNeill, widow of the late Alexander Marquis MacNeill of Cavendish, Prince Edward Island, entered into her rest, after a long, useful and honored life of nearly eighty-seven years. Mrs. MacNeill was born in Dunwich, Suffolk County, England, and came to Canada when she was twelve years of age. Her parents, Robert and Sarah Woolner, settled at Rustico. There at the age of nineteen their daughter, the subject of this sketch, was married to Alexander MacNeill, son of William MacNeill—"Old Speaker MacNeill"—of Cavendish. She came as a bride to the old homestead where she lived until her death, sixty-eight years afterwards. Mrs. MacNeill—"Aunt Lucy" as she was affectionately called by the whole community, whether relatives or not—was beloved and respected by all who knew her, and her spirits, industry, bravery, and unflinching kindness will never be forgotten. She preserved all her faculties to a wonderful degree to the last. On March 5th—the very date on which her husband died thirteen years ago—she became ill with pneumonia and on the following Friday peacefully breathed her last.

The funeral took place on Monday, March 13th, and was largely attended. The service was conducted by the Rev. John Stirling, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Sables, William A. Houston, Alex. C. MacNeill, Russell MacNeill, Malcolm MacNeill, George B. MacNeill, and Ernest Webb, bore their old friend to her last resting place beside the bridegroom of her youth in Cavendish Cemetery.

Mrs. MacNeill is survived by five of her six children—Rev. L. G. MacNeill of St. John, N. B.; Chester A. MacNeill of Vancouver, B. C.; John P. MacNeill of Cavendish, P. E. I.; Mrs. John Campbell, of Park Corner, P. E. I., and Mrs. John Montgomery, of Princeton, P. E. I. One daughter, Clara, wife of the late Hugh John Montgomery, sleeps beside her parents. Miss L. M. Montgomery is a grand-daughter of Mrs. MacNeill and was living with her at the time of her death.

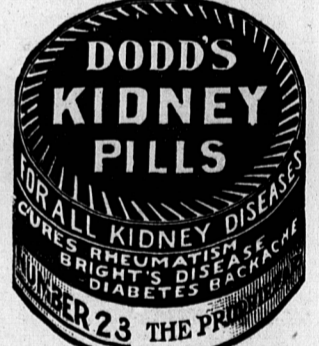

"Say not good-night but in some brighter clime Bid me good-morning."
