PUPILS FROM P. E. I.—James Pearson, superintendent of the School for the Deaf, has received from the deputy minister of education for Alberta, a letter desiring to be informed if he can receive a number of pupils from that province. The school has opened with gratifying enrollment, including a number of new pupils from Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island.

Y. M. C. A. STUDENT WORK.—The students of the Prince of Wales College who are members of the Young Men's Christian Association of Charlottetown had a meeting a few nights ago in order to organize a student department in connection with that association. The following officers were appointed: General chairman of the Student Dept., Sydney Bonnell; Secretary, Percy Keating; Chairman of Committee on Religious meetings, Sydney Bonnell; Chairman of Committee on Bible Classes, A. Webster; Chairman of Social Committee, D. McPherson; Chairman of Physical Committee, V. McLean; Chairman of Music Committee, Alexander Murray. The chairman of each committee will select three or four other members to form these committees, and they are all to meet during this week at the meetings of the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Reiley, and discuss with him the plans for the work of the student department. While Mr. Reiley will be there in the nature of adviser, the lads will be left pretty much to their own in their organization of the work the idea being to teach them in self-reliance and self-management. Next Monday night there will be a meeting to which all the male students of the P. W. C. will be invited and at which the plans for the work of the student department, as arranged at the meetings of the committee, will be announced and the Bible classes formed. Similar organization will be effected among the Advanced Intermediates, and younger groups of boys of the Association.

Mr. Boudroux has been investigating the different fox propositions and has invested quite heavily in a number of the leading companies now being formed. Mr. Boudroux claims that the American people are becoming deeply interested in the P. E. I. Fox industry and states that there will be an enormous amount of American money come to the province within the next year.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD.—An old-time resident, Mr. George Heatherley, has recently passed away at the age of 73, while on a visit (accompanied by his wife) to relatives at Kensington and vicinity. He had been ailing more or less for years, but the end came very suddenly by failure of the heart's action on September 5th. He was brought home to North Wiltshire and interred in the cemetery of the Methodist Church there. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, September 7th, and was very largely attended. The funeral services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. George Orman. The choir of the church attended and sang several well known hymns. He is survived by his widow and one son, a daughter having predeceased him. Two brothers, William and John (the latter out West), two sisters remain, Miss Jane Heatherley and Mrs. Mary Ann Mathers.

FIRE REPARATION.—The work of reconstructing Mr. M. P. Hogan's lumber mill and wood-working factory, which was recently destroyed by fire, is now well on towards completion. The roof, which is of Amalite and fire-proof, has been put on and consequently not being retarded by wet weather the men can complete their work much quicker. The shingling has already been done and the windows are made and all ready to be put in. The men will commence laying the floor of the second storey today. The shaft has been hung and some of the pulleys put in. Monday the machinery, which will be mostly that used in the old mill, with a few additions. The new machinery will include a boring machine, sanding machine, small moulder, emery machine, rip-saw, etc. In rebuilding an improvement was made over the old building, the ground floor being entirely free from posts, the second floor being suspended from the roof by iron bars. The brick-work enclosing the boiler and the brick flue was completed yesterday. An iron partition shutting the fire-room off from the main building and making it fire-proof will be put up today. A new dry kiln larger than the old one has been constructed at the north of the mill, the dimensions of which are twenty-three feet long and fifteen feet wide. The mill will be completed and the business resumed in about two weeks.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.—The people of St. Andrews Parish are having a hot air system of heating installed in their church. AN INTERVIEW.—Mayor Morrison, Summerside, who was in Moncton Monday says an exchange, said conditions in Prince Edward Island are prosperous, the crop this season being an excellent one. Prince Edward Island's big industry being fur farming, which is increasing interest centres in it, and Mayor Morrison says prospects are considered by foxmen as very bright, large investments being made by outside people. Money is pouring into P. E. Island from the various provinces, the New England States and the British Isles. Many inquiries are coming in from abroad regarding Island stock. Telegrams had been received by him recently from parties as far away as Vancouver. Prince Edward Island fox breeders met recently in Summerside. The result of the meeting was the organization of the breeders of pure bred Island stock, for which there is a strong demand.

AN HISTORICAL PLACE.—Situated on the farm of Mr. John McKenzie, Scotch Fort, with the shadow of the trees that grows thereon almost resting on the placid waters of the Hillborough River, lies a burying ground that is known to many as one of the most, if not the most, historical spot on P. E. Island. One has merely to take a walk through it to have some of its history revealed to them. Instead of the marble and granite headstones of today the visitor finds the common red sand stone, which is so numerous in the eastern part of the Island, marking the resting place of people who have passed from this world to the great beyond, many, many years ago. Indeed there are dates to be found back as far as the year 1727, almost two hundred years ago. The cemetery which covers about a half an acre is looked after and kept in order by the people of Tracadie parish. There are numerous large trees in it principally all white and black spruce which have been underbrushed up a distance of about ten feet from the ground. There is also a wire fence surrounding it and special mention might be made of the large marble monument which was placed there in memory of the MacDonnells who were buried there. The base of this monument above the inscriptions weigh about two tons and the inscriptions which are on the four sides can be seen today almost as plain as the day they were put on. There has been no one buried in this cemetery for over forty years nor hardly ever will be again as this was said to be the first French Catholic burying ground on the Island, consequently it can be better imagined than described the many changes which have taken place since the first one was buried in it.—S
