HIS TERRIBLE ACCIDENT
Admitting Young Listener—And how did you lose your leg?
Old Salt—Well, young man one night in the dog watch, while I was carryin' the baby jib, I stepped on a starboard tack, and blood pisin ensued.

SPRAINED HER ANKLE.

"I slipped on an icy step and sprained my right ankle very badly," writes Miss Minnie Burgoyne of Glenwood. It swelled to a tremendous size and caused intense pain. I applied Polson's Nerviline and got prompt relief; the swelling was reduced, and before long I was able to use my foot. For sprains, swellings and muscular pains Nerviline is the one sure remedy. Strong, penetrating, swift to destroy pain—that's Polson's Nerviline. Fifty years in use.

THE WORLD OVER

Thousands of Mothers are using DR. CODERRE'S INFANTS' SYRUP

For Children's ailments, you cannot but admit the fact that this preparation is one of merit and is all that is claimed for it. It is safe, pleasant and soothing for children's teething, and a prompt checker of bowel and stomach troubles.

Physicians and Professional nurses recommend it. In purchasing, see that Dr. Coderre's signature and portrait is on every wrapper. Beware of the many SYRUPS put up in a similar form and made to look like Dr. Coderre's.

IF YOU ONLY KNEW

When your well stocked store was going to burn down, you could wait to insure until the week before, but

When it is Destroyed You are too late. Remember the old adage, "There is no time like the present," and no insurance like ours.

CHAPTER XXIV - Continue d

"Too many tickets had been distributed, and soon there was an elbow on every rib and a heel on every toe," as Mr. Greeley put it. Every miss and her mamma tiptoeed for a view of the prince and his party, who came in at 10, taking their seats on a dais at one side of the crowded floor. The prince sat with his hands folded before him like one in a reverie. Beside him were the Duke of Newcastle, a big, stern man with an aggressive red beard; the blithe and sparkling Earl of St. Germans, then steward of the royal household; the curly Major Teasdale; the gay Bruce, a major general, who behaved himself always like a lady. Suddenly the floor sank beneath the crowd of people, who retired in some disorder.

"Mrs. Livingstone is with her," said she, "and they will return together in April."
"Mrs. Fuller, did she send any word to me?" I inquired anxiously. "Did she give you no message?"
"None," she said coldly, "except one to her mother and father, which I have sent in a letter to them."

I left her heavy hearted, went to the reporter's table and wrote my story, very badly, I must admit, for I was cut deep with sadness. Then I came away and walked for hours, not caring whither. A great homesickness had come over me. I felt as if a talk with Uncle Eb or Elizabeth Brower would have given me the comfort I needed. I walked rapidly through dark, deserted streets. A steple clock was striking 2 when I heard some one coming hurriedly on the walk behind me. I looked over my shoulder, but could not make him out in the darkness, and yet there was something familiar in the step. As he came nearer I felt his hand upon my shoulder.

"Better go home, Brower," he said, as I recognized the voice of Trumbull. "You've been out a long time. Passed you before tonight?"
"Why didn't you speak?"
"You were preoccupied."
"Not keeping good hours yourself," I said.

"Rather late," he answered, "but I am a walker, and I love the night. It is so still in this part of the town."
We were passing the Five Points. "When do you sleep?" I inquired.
"Never sleep at night," he said, "unless uncommonly tired. Out every night more or less. Sleep two hours in the morning and two in the afternoon—that's all I require. Seen the hands of that clock yonder on every hour of the night?"

"Here, boy, I'll take those papers," says gave Trumbull a cheery "Hello, cap!" We passed wharfs where the great sea horses lay stilled, with harnesses hung high above them, their noses nodding over our heads. We stood awhile looking up at the looming masts, the lights of the river craft.

"WEEKLY" CHANGED TO "TRI-WEEKLY"

The "Weekly Edition" of "The Charlottetown Guardian" was changed on July 1st to a "Tri-Weekly Edition." This was done because it is considered that the "Weekly" is too slow for a province with so many daily and tri-weekly mails as that of Prince Edward Island. In the past, four or eight pages have been printed on Friday, eight on Saturday or Monday and these twelve or sixteen pages have been held until the following Wednesday when eight more have been printed and then the entire twenty or twenty-four pages have been mailed as one paper to all subscribers. Thus the news of about two thirds of the issue is so old as to be of very little value when it reaches its destination the week following its actual publication. Now each section is mailed on Monday, Wednesday and Friday as soon as off the press. All the news is thus fresh, and each section of ads. and reading matter much more likely to be read thoroughly than if the entire twenty to twenty-four pages arrived but once a week, and all at one time. All advertisements will appear in but one section of each entire week's issue as in the past, unless it is desired that they appear more frequently, in which case arrangements can be made with the management. Regular advertisers in the past have been required to have "changes" in not later than Saturday, and by the time the paper reached subscribers the following week it was often desirable that other goods arriving in the meantime be advertised. Under the three-a-week issue "changes" received up to either Tuesday, Thursday, or Saturday at ten a. m. will be printed in either the Wednesday, Friday or Monday issue respectively, and thus reach readers when new and fresh. Transient advertisements can appear either once, twice or thrice a week as arranged for. It is believed that all readers will appreciate the change, as they will in future receive a paper, issued each Monday, Wednesday and Friday of every week instead of twenty to twenty-four pages issued but Wednesday of each week. Advertisers very much prefer that their ads appear but once a week in a tri-weekly rather than in a Weekly of two or three times the size, as they are much more likely to be read carefully.

BE DONE WITH CATARRH!

Why allow this filthy disease to poison your system. It dries your strength, ruins digestion, pollutes the breath, makes you repulsive. The one certain cure is Catarrhoxone, it cures because it destroys the cause of the disease, cures thoroughly because it cures wherever the catarrh is, cures every case because its vapor destroys the catarrh germ instantly. To get well and stay free from catarrh get Catarrhoxone and use it; satisfaction guaranteed.
