In Memoriam

MR. JAMES B. HUGHES

A large number of residents of this city, and throughout the province, learned with regret of the death of Mr. James B. Hughes, well known insurance man whose death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital early Sunday morning at the age of 77 years.

Born in Millcove, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hughes, the deceased spent some time in St. John's, Nfld., where he represented the Singer Sewing Machine Co. Later removing to Charlottetown, he became associated with Hyndman & Co., Ltd., and for over thirty years was one of their most untiring agents.

Some months ago ill health forced him to retire and about a week ago he entered the hospital where he failed to rally.

He is survived by his widow, a brother, Thomas, of Bedford, and one sister, Sister Michael, Mother Superior of St. Mary's Home, Moncton, N.B., who visited him a short time before his death.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held from his late residence, 154 Dorchester Street yesterday morning to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. P. McMahon, who also conducted service at the grave.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. J. A. Griffith, Albert Wilson, Alban Farmer, Thomas McAvinn, Stanley Matheson and Harold Partridge.

Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

MR. J. WATSON HUNTLEY

"A link with the past has been severed."

Those words were never more fitting than in the passing of J. Watson Huntley at the home of his nephew, Mr. Herman MacDougall, Lower Newtown, on Aug. 25 at the advanced age of 88 years.

Mr. Huntley was born in Vernon River in the year 1858, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huntley. He was one of a family of nine children, only one of whom now survives. Mr. B. D. Huntley of Claresholm, Alberta.

Mr. Huntley's wife predeceased him 25 years ago and 10 years later he moved to Lower Newtown where his health remained excellent until perhaps six weeks ago, and during the last two weeks it was evident that the end of his earthly course was fast approaching. During this period he was tenderly cared for by Mrs. MacDougall and members of the family.

Mr. Huntley was possessed of an unusually keen intellect and was an authority on happenings and dates relative to his earlier life spent in and about Vernon River.

The funeral was held Monday, Aug. 26th, to Vernon River cemetery, interment being in the family plot. The service was conducted by Rev. E. C. Evans of Belfast, assisted by Rev. A. S. Weir of Orwell-Vernon charge.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. J. D. MacDougall, John Rooney, Wilfred MacLean, Wm. MacDonald, Wilfred Furness, and Warren Enman.

Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. A. S. Weir.

DISCOVERED GUNPOWDER

Although the Chinese used gunpowder for flares, Friar Roger Bacon of England discovered its explosive qualities hundreds of years later.

When D. C. Coleman, C. M. G., chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway and Mrs. Coleman met Field Marshal Montgomery at Windsor Station, Montreal, before he boarded the special C. P. R. train for Ottawa, the distinguished soldier autographed one of her most prized possessions. It was a picture of their son, Lt.-Col. Rowan C. Coleman, D.S.O., M.C., being decorated with the Military Cross by Monty during the Italian campaign. Col. Coleman was second-in-command of the famous Princess Pats and was wounded shortly after the Italian campaign was launched. Later he was put in command of the Loyal Edmonton Regiment and when transferred to Northwest Europe took over command of the Lincoln and Welland Regiment. Left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, Brig. W. J. Home, M.C., D.O.C. Military District No. 4; Viscount Montgomery and an R. C. M. P. constable. — (Canadian Army Photo by Lt. Alex. Dare).
