STARRING ANITA STEWART

Supported by An All-Star Cast

There is a "Kingdom of Dreams" in every woman's heart and this is the story of how one woman found her soul's mate through, A MARRIAGE OF CONVENIENCE.

The remarkable array of talent to be seen in this unrivalled photoplay was assembled for one purpose—to make, as nearly as humanly possible,

A PERFECT PHOTOPLAY

One of the best known of these artists whose early earnings run into five figures, appears in but three scenes but the portrait that he draws is the living image of a soul in distress.

TWILIGHT RECITAL.—The organists of the different Protestant Churches have kindly consented to put on a series of those Twilight Recitals which were so popular during the war, in aid of the Building Fund of the New Protestant Orphanage. The first one will be given early in November, the exact date to be announced later. 3349-10-29-21.

PAGENT OF CANADA.—The Women's Missionary Society and Mission Band of North River, held a very interesting and successful meeting Tuesday evening, Oct. 26th. The large choir furnished excellent music. The Band gave two choruses and a very pretty "Pagent of Canada" led by Miss Laura Bain. Pastor Mellick took the audience on a trip through Canada pointing out the various mission fields and the classes of people the societies are helping. Mrs. Mellick gave some very interesting reminiscence of life in Western Canada. She also read an extract from the published records of her father, Rev. Dr. Isaiah Wallace, who was a prominent Home Missionary in the Maritime Provinces. Miss Clementine Drake gave a very impressive Scripture reading. The Secretary, Mrs. Garfield Warren, called the roll and responses were given by those called repeating a passage of Scripture or a verse of a hymn. A Thank Offering of about $30.00 was given. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and potted and cut plants. —Com.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Anna Luella Bearisto and Mr. George Poole Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Thompson of Montague, P. E. I., took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bearisto, Malpeque, on Wednesday, Oct. 20th. Rev. John Murchison performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, entered the beautifully decorated drawing-room to the strains of the Lohengrin Bridal chorus, wearing a travelling suit of navy blue serge, beaver furs and black hat trimmed with ostrich sprays and carrying a bouquet of American beauty roses. After congratulations, luncheon was served, autumn leaves and flowers decorating the dining-room. The happy young couple left by motor in the midst of a shower of confetti, on a honeymoon trip to Halifax and the Annapolis Valley—followed by the good wishes of scores of friends. On their return they will reside in Montague. Many beautiful gifts were received including silver, cut glass and several substantial cheques from the numerous friends of both bride and groom.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parmenas Orr of that place and Mr. Harold Laird, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Laird, Kelvin. The church which was filled to overflowing by the friends of the popular bride and groom was tastefully decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves and potted plants. The bride, gowned in duchesse satin and georgette crepe trimmed with silver and pearl wearing the conventional veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of ophelia roses and maiden hair fern, entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Bessie Johnstone, Long River. Miss Jeanette Orr, sister of the bride acted as maid of honor, while Miss Daisy Orr and Miss Hattie Laird, sisters of the bride and groom respectively, performed the duties of bridesmaids. The groom was ably supported by Mr. W. R. Shaw of Moncton, with Messrs Wm. Profit and Percy McMurdo acting as ushers. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties being present. After a dainty supper had been served, and the large body of serenaders who had gathered to pay PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED.—Mrs. Clarence Hardwick, 5 Park Street, Haverhill, Mass., gave a surprise party last Wednesday evening in honor of her mother, Mrs. Malcolm MacLeod. The house was beautifully decorated with autumnal foliage and cut flowers. The hostess served tea, cake, coffee and mints. Solo dances given by Mrs. McNeill and Miss Florence McNeill, were much enjoyed as were the violin solos played by Mr. Hollis Bruce. Victrola music was also enjoyed. The honoree was surprised with a beautiful silver butter dish and knife. Mrs. McNeill making the presentation speech. Mrs. McLeod, who has been visiting her daughter, left Thursday for her home in Montague, Prince Edward Island. Those present beside the honor guest and hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. Froelund, Mr. and Mrs. Angus, the Misses Margaret and Mabel Hamford, Florence McNeill, Margaret, Len and Elizabeth Murchison, Kate MacDonald, Gertrude Noyes, Sarah Graham, Florence, Grace, Alice, Helen and Natalie Hardwick, Lella and Nina Nealey, Mrs. Cyrus Bruce, Mrs. Currie, Mrs. McNeill and Messrs. Sam Barlow, Dick Sinclair, Fred Landers, Hollis Bruce and Roland Skofitz. All left after a most pleasant evening wishing Mrs. McLeod a safe journey.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian Church at Kensington on evening of October 14th, when the Rev. T. W. Goodwill joined in wedlock, Miss Elsie Orr,

Now is the time when the "kids" have their fun As from doorstep to doorstep they gleefully run. With their weird jack-o-lanterns that give you a fright If you happen to meet them on Hallowe'en night.

A pumpkin-shell robbed of its pie-making part May be made to resemble a real work of art; With its near-human features grotesquely displayed, 'Tis a sight to make sinners like us feel dismayed.

Like an English bull-dog, the more ugly its face The better its chances for winning first place, And the greater the terror it strikes to the heart So the better 'tis fitted for playing the part.

If "just for tonight" we might turn our lives back To the days when with pride and with joy we would pack A pumpkin-shell carved like some monster of old, With a candle inside that turned pumpkin to gold.

And a broomstick attached to add terror and height As we marched through the streets at "the dead o' the night" How we'd value the chance with those "kids" to be seen And be sharing their happiness this Hallowe'en.

How our laughter would ring, how we'd shout with delight, When we gave some poor mortal a "terrible fright," How we'd race through the streets like a whirlwind of fun. And be filled with regret when our "child-night was done.

So enjoy yourselves "kiddies"; you live but one life For too soon comes the day when the troubles and strife Of the world will engulf you and you'll have at last But the mem'ry of Hallowe'ens far in the past.

their respects had dispersed, the happy couple departed on their wedding trip by motor to Borden en route to points in the United States. The bride's travelling dress was of nigger brown velour, with hat of duvetyl, and mink furs. Many of the bride and groom in the vicinity where a host of friends will reside at Kelvin where the bride wish them a long and happy wedded life. The groom's gift to the date farms in the province.

FOX NETTING

Manufactured by Rylands Brothers Ltd. Warrington England

FULL TO WEIGHT, TRUE TO MESH AND GAUGE STRAIGHT AND FLAT

For many years Rylands Limited have made a specialty of the manufacture of Galvanized Wire Netting, and they claim not only to be the leading manufacturers of this commodity in Europe, but also that their product is unsurpassed by that of any other manufacturer in the world.

Fox Netting being sold by length, it is difficult for buyers to make an accurate comparison between quotations, as the price per length is not a true guide; and we venture to draw your attention to the POINTS WHICH SHOULD BE LOOKED FOR in Fox Wire and which alone afford a real guide as to its worth.

1—The main factor in the cost of Fox Wire is WEIGHT, and weight in the same way is an important factor in its value to the user. This, therefore, is the first point to which a buyer should direct his attention, and we ask you to compare carefully the approximate weights of our Netting, with any Netting offered by our competitors.

2—Just as in the case of a chain the strength is that of its weakest link, so in the case of Fox Wire one thin or faulty wire may destroy the value of the roll. UNIFORMITY OF GAUGE is, therefore, of great importance. All the wire used in the manufacture of this Netting is drawn by a SPECIAL PROCESS, insuring the highest degree of accuracy and regularity both in size and temper.

3—REGULARITY OF MESH contributes much to the good appearance of Netting, and this is insured by the uniformity in gauge and temper of wire used in making this netting.

4—For ease in erection it is of great importance that Netting should run out STRAIGHT AND FLAT, and to this point the manufacturers have devoted particular attention. They have lately adapted IMPROVED PATENT MACHINERY, and their netting now is STRAIGHT and AS FLAT AS A CARPET.

5—In GALVANIZING, only the finest metal is used, and their long experience of galvanizing insures that in this respect this Netting is as perfect as possible.

We will be pleased to mail you price list and samples of this Woven Fox Netting on request.

We are selling large quantities of this celebrated Netting to all parts of Canada, and we strongly advise our customers to send us a list of their requirements at once, as the stock may be depleted in a short time. We have everything in stock to equip a fox ranch.
