OPERA HOUSE.

Sadie Calhoun—Coming in Two New Plays "The Girl and the Boys" and "Pretty Peggy."

What the problem play is to the "mollycoddles" of a metropolitan drawing room, the real drama is to the people with real blood in their veins—the people that feel, and think and who wish to have in their entertainment all of the vivid and essentially human elements of humor, pathos, heart interest and dramatic situations.

It is for such audiences that Miss Sadie Calhoun, actress and playwright, has compiled her latest drama, "The Girl and the Boys," and it is to such audiences that she is portraying the leading role. In this, her seventh annual tour to this city, it is announced by Manager Crabbe that Miss Calhoun, supported by a carefully selected company, will be seen in this new play at the Opera House on next Monday evening and as Miss Calhoun has many friends and admirers here by reason of her former visits, her reception should be most enthusiastic.

The play is said to be a study in the evolution of a young girl, a product of the far West, who has not had the early advantages of her more fortunate sisters in more favored communities. She has, however, ambition and a determination to rise to better things, and how and by what means she does so furnish an exceptionally pleasant evening's entertainment, which must be witnessed, and not read about, to be appreciated. The plays and cast Miss Calhoun has this season are the best she has ever brought to the Province. Miss Calhoun will present "Pretty Peggy" on Tuesday.

Your Family Washing

Don't attempt washing in summer time—the steam, soap suds and warm weather will wear you down as nothing else. Then the ironing is simply dreaded by women. Even with another woman doing your washing there's that "rank" smell of "slush" and soap suds that will stick to the house for days. Have us tell you the cost of doing your family wash—for doing it well. The price will not permit you attempting it yourself. Phone 151 or call.
