HARD LUMPS CAME ON HER LEGS
Ankles and Feet Swollen with Rheumatism

Rheumatism sent this woman to bed with lumps, swellings, and inflammation. Yet these symptoms soon disappeared, as they always will do when the root cause is removed. This letter tells you the method she used—

"I was taken ill with terrible rheumatic pains in my legs. They were badly inflamed, swollen, and they were partly covered with red, hard lumps. To put my foot down to the ground was agony. After I had been in bed for 16 days, suffering agony all the time, my husband said, 'You can't go on suffering like this, let us try Kruschen Salts.' He got a bottle, and almost from the first I felt benefit. Before long, I was completely relieved—swellings inflammation, and lumps all gone—and I am up again and doing my housework."—(Mrs. E.L.)

Do you realise what causes a good deal of rheumatic pain? It is not but sharp-edged uric acid crystals which form on the result of sluggish eliminating organs. Kruschen Salts can always be counted upon to clear those painful crystals from the system.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES
ST. JAMES CHURCH

At the morning service at St. James Presbyterian Church yesterday the Minister, Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D.D., spoke from the text II Samuel 24. "And David said neither will I offer unto the Lord my God of that which cost me nothing." Dr. Legate gave an interesting and instructive sermon emphasizing the many sacrifices one is called upon to make in living the Christian life.

Dr. Legate at the evening service delivered a powerful address to the young men and women of the congregation. He spoke from II Timothy 2:3, "Thou therefore my son endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." The Minister pointed out how real friendships are discovered and not manufactured. He recorded how beautiful friendship that sprang up between Paul, a man in full years, and Timothy, a young man had developed into a relationship which was of great value to both.

Paul, in his last letter to Timothy, just before his execution by Roman soldiers, emphasized the great value of pluck in the words, "Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." There is nothing that appeals to a young man's spirit like pluck. Dr. Legate said, "One of the most glorious things a man can do is to sustain a defeat and still keep undismayed and in a good temper. A man has really come to his full measure until he can take a hard knock that life gives him without whining about them, and do the disagreeable duties that life demands from him without shirking them. The virtue of pluck could be acquired and cultivated, the minister pointed out.

Religion was not like a suit of clothes, put on on Sunday and put off on Monday, Dr. Legate said. "Religion is like a working kit of clothes, to be worn every day in the week. This thing pluck that we were talking about is not a thing that is manly because it is religious, but it is a thing that is religious because it is manly." Jesus Christ was a man of pluck because he was a manly man. Paul, his servant, wants Timothy and every other young man who reads the letter he wrote to Timothy to be just that.

"And what Jesus Christ wants every young man here tonight to be, He offers to help you to be. Jesus the young man wants to be the Saviour, Friend and Helper of every young man among you. It is up to each of you. Write this sentence from a young man's letter in your notebook; think about it; pray about it; resolve about it; 'Thou therefore endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.'"

Dr. Legate concluded his address at the morning service Mrs. H. S. Henderson rendered the solo, "Jesus The Very Thought," and at the evening worship Mrs. J. A. Lawson sang "An Evening Prayer." The choir rendered the anthem, "Ye The Lord," with Mr. Arthur Bruce taking the solo part.

TRANSFERRED—Sergeant Leo P. Bradley of the local detachment R. C. M. P. has been transferred to Halifax, N. S., and with his wife and daughter, Miss Phillipa, leaves this week to take up his duties in that territory.

FUNERAL NOTICE—The funeral of the late Mrs. John Driscoll will leave the residence of her son, Joseph Driscoll, Hillsboro, this morning at 9 o'clock to St. Dunstan's Basilica where high mass of requiem will be sung at 10 o'clock, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery for interment.

FIREMEN EXTINGUISH BLAZE
—Fire which broke out in a room at the rear of S. L. Hardy's harness shop on the Kent-Queen street corner shortly after 6 o'clock last evening caused a small amount of damage before firemen succeeded in extinguishing it. Origin of the blaze was unknown. Slight damage was caused in an apartment above the shop when flames worked up a wall. All three apartments above the harness shop were slightly damaged by smoke. One line of hose was used in combatting the fire which was principally confined to a room at the head of the building where quantities of straw used for stuffing horse collars was stored. Earlier in the evening firemen answered a call to Hillsborough St. for a fire fire.

POST NUPITAL SHOWER
—Some time ago Mr. and Mrs. Wm. MacPhee, Elmwood placed their comfortable and commodious home at the disposal of the young people of the neighbourhood, for the purpose of tendering a delightful post nuptial shower to the couple Mr. and Mrs. Gus McQuillan (the latter nee Kathleen McQuillan). When all had assembled, Mr. Leo Berrigan called the meeting to order and read a very suitable address to the guests of honor. Following this, little Miss Roma MacPhee and Master Raymond McQuillan, representing the bride and groom, wheeled carriage loads of useful and valuable gifts into the room. The numerous presents were opened by Miss Edna MacPhee, assisted by Miss Isabel MacPhee, while Miss Mary McQuillan read the accompanying verses, gay, witty, and wise in tone. After singing, "For They're Jolly Good Fellows," the groom was bidden, to the delight of all present. The balance of the evening was spent in dancing, games, etc., and rounded out at a late hour with a bountiful lunch. The occasion showed the high place this young couple occupy in the affections and respect of the people of the vicinity.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

"Delivered just Lot vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked" was the text of the morning sermon in Trinity preached by Rev. Hugh Miller. Lot was one of the arresting personalities of his time. He was blessed with great opportunities and his association with Abraham. Nevertheless, he was a disappointment serving more as a warning than an inspiration. His besetting sin was avarice. His term "just" applied to him is to be taken relatively. He was just compared with the Sodomites but he showed no great strength of character. There is a difference between the legal and religion. Lot always kept within legal bounds. Nothing could induce him to fall below the claims of justice. No man could accuse him. Religion must have a moral content but religion is more than morality.

St. Paul draws a distinction between the righteous man and the good man which we must not forget. The righteous prides himself in keeping the letter of the law! The good man goes beyond it. He goes the length of his own conscience. There is a great difference between the legal and religion. Lot always kept within legal bounds. Nothing could induce him to fall below the claims of justice. No man could accuse him. Religion must have a moral content but religion is more than morality.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Continuing the interesting line of thought developed by the Rev. Harvey L. Denton in his series of sermons on "What may we believe about Jesus?" the third of the sermons "The Miracles of Jesus" authentic" was delivered yesterday morning. Basing his thought on St. John, 3:2, "we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him," reference was made to the fact that the miracles of Jesus were wonderful works that we call miraculous were performed and their occurrence testified to by eye witnesses, as well as by writers whose testimony came from eye witnesses. Miracles fit in. They have not been casual unrelated actions, but occurrences that belong logically to their time, place, and person. They involve a high moral purpose. Interesting several years of his life in this province.

PREPARE FOR 1st. P. E. I. Regional Drama Festival

Friday afternoon and evening an event of unusual interest to theatre goers of Charlottetown takes place when the P. E. I. sub-regional drama festival committee stage the first festival of its kind in Prince Edward Island.

Mr. Malcolm Morley of London, Eng., a well known dramatist, producer and actor of the London theatre, will judge the plays to be presented. Mr. Morley arrives in Charlottetown after having judged three nights of plays in Halifax.

The plays are judged on a point system, 40 points being given for acting which includes gestures, emphasis, etc.; 30 points for production which includes interpretation, tempo, etc.; 15 points for diction and audibility; and 15 points for stage setting, lighting and possibility of achievement in play chosen.

After the evening performance Mr. Morley will announce the winner of the P. E. I. sub-regional festival.

In the past two years the Little Theatre Guild of Charlottetown has sent entries to the N.B.-P.E.I. festival in Saint John and have been singularly successful, having placed second in the first year of competition. Their entry last year was a one-act play, "Nocturne" from the pen of a Charlottetown author, Mr. Harry E. Foster, and with it they won first place and the right to represent N. B. and P.E.I. at Ottawa.

This year P.E.I. has been granted the status of sub-region with the right to hold their own festival in Charlottetown, though they still compete against N. B. The plays being judged on a point basis.

That P. E. I. has a sub-region this year is due to a great extent to the untiring efforts of Mr. Charles L. Jenkins, business manager of the Little Theatre Guild of Charlottetown, and the fact that Mr. Jenkins is making a director of the coming drama festival speaks well for its success.

There are five plays being presented, two in the afternoon and three in the evening. The afternoon performance consists of "In The Zone" by Eugene O'Neill, presented by the Little Theatre Guild of Charlottetown and directed by Mr. Charles L. Jenkins. The second offering of the afternoon is "The Fools Playroom", this play is written by Harry E. Foster of Charlottetown and is presented by the Little Theatre and is under the direction of Harry Gomez. The criticism and remarks of Mr. Morley close the afternoon show.

In the evening at 8.15, three plays will be presented, the first being "Vindication", presented by Summerside Little Theatre Guild and directed by Mrs. James Wilson. The next play is called "The POLICE ISSUE WARNING—Charlottetown Police again issued warnings to car owners not to leave articles in parked cars. On Saturday night the small ventilator glass in a car parked on Hillsboro Square was broken and the contents stolen. They found it impossible to protect all cars in the city from the active co-operation of motorists, Chief of Police Birtwistle said.

POLICE SEEK WOMAN—Mounted Police searched Saturday night and again yesterday for a woman supposed to be mentally deranged. The story told police was that a woman had been picked up Saturday evening, walking on the ice between York Point and Charlottetown, by the occupants of a sleigh, enroute to the city. Believing from her language and actions that the woman was a mental case the out of town police decided to take her to the police station but she succeeded in giving them the slip before they were there. Next patient was reported to have escaped from Falkenwood Hospital and up to an early hour this morning the mystery of who the woman was or where she went had not been solved.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Constable James E. Brady, which was largely attended, was held Saturday morning from his late residence, 172 Sydney Street, to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. P. McMahon D. D., assisted by Rev. Louis Dugan, Deacon and Rev. Norbert Bradley (son of the deceased). Sub-Deacon Occupying seats in the Sanctuary were, His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, Rev. J. Murphy, D. D., Rev. Gavin Monaghan, D. D., and Rev. F. McQuillan of St. Dunstan's University; Rev. G. McCormac and Rev. W. Keefe of the Basilica staff. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. G. McCormac. The Honorary pall bearers were His Worship Mayor P. W. Turner, Sispensary Magistrate K. M. Martin, Hon. J. P. McIntyre, Dr. Keene, S. P. Paoli, and W. J. Brawlers. In addition to the brothers of the deceased, Dr. W. J. MacMillan and Dr. W. H. Soper were mourners. Brother officers of the Police Force acted as pall bearers. Members of the City Council attended in a body while the R. C. M. P. were represented.

Twilight Organ Recital At St. James Church

The Twilight Recital held in St. James' Church on Saturday afternoon was the third in the series being given in aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

The dimly lit church was a restful and pleasing setting for the appropriate programme which included the atmosphere of reverence and peace.

Saturday's recital was conducted by Mrs. Keith S. Rogers, organist, who presented the following selections:

Organ—"Ave Verum" (Mozart)—Mrs. Rogers.
"Berceuse" (Frank Idie)
"Vocal Duets"—"The Crucifix" (Faure)—Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Raymond.
Organ—"Angelus" from "Scenes Pittoresques" (Massenet)—Mrs. Rogers.
"A Shepherd's Tale" (Ethelbert Nevin).
Vocal Solo—"O Saviour of Mankind" (Metrop)—Mrs. H. S. Henderson.
Organ—"Angels Ever Bright and Fair" (Handel)—Mrs. Rogers.
"Largo" (Handel).
Vocal Solo—"The Lost Chord" (Sui Ivan)—Mr. Raoul Raymond.
Organ—"Lead Kindly Light" (Lux Benigna) (Dykes)—Mrs. Rogers.

A great part of the charm of these twilight programmes is their relative simplicity—in contrast to concert programmes—and their quietness, providing a source of effortless enjoyment in which everyone may participate.

The number present at this recital was slightly greater than at the other two, but both the cause, and the quality of the performances merit a still much larger attendance.

It is to be regretted that more people do not avail themselves of this hour's pleasure.

PERSONALS

Mr. Patrick St. John, of Souris, accompanied by his daughter, Mary, left Saturday morning for Montreal where he will enter the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Mr. Leslie J. Stacey left last week for Montreal where he will attend a meeting of managers of the Woolworth Stores.

Mrs. D. D. Scannel, of Jamaica Plain, Mass., who spent the summer at her old home in Georgetown, is at present under treatment in the Faulkner Hospital for a right infected thumb, from which she has been suffering greatly. Latest reports are that her condition is improved.

Directors Of Y.M.C.A. Plan Future Work

At the January meeting of the Y.M.C.A. board of directors held a few nights ago, a number of important matters came before the board. The dates of the annual financial campaign for 1938 have been set for Tuesday to Friday, April 19th to 22nd. The annual physical display of the physical department will be held on Friday, March 25th, and before the close of the present Association year the Y.M.C.A. will sponsor an auction sale along the same lines as that conducted by the Y's Men's Club about a year ago.

The Association is drawing a large attendance to its program activities, particularly in the boys' division, and every endeavour is being made to improve the financial position of the Association in order that the new year opening May 1st may be entered with a reduced accrued deficit as against that of May 1st, 1937. The increasing cost of keeping old equipment in adequate repair presents a growing problem to the Association and the directors are endeavoring to maintain a standard of efficiency and program service which is deemed necessary if the Association is to meet the demands being made upon it.

Mr. G. Claude Smith is the representative of the Association on the Canadian Y.M.C.A. Council for 1938 and will attend the annual meeting of the Council being held in Niagara Falls, Ontario, on February 11th, 12th and 13th.

Considerable discussion was given to a progress report presented by the boys' work committee in connection with a study it is making on the work of the Association for boys. The Y.M.C.A. as a membership organization is meeting requests for quite an extensive service which falls within the area of a general community program and
