Concert At Kensington

The Kensington United Church members treated music lovers of their locality to an excellent variety concert on Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week. On both occasions the King George Hall was filled to capacity with an audience whose appreciation was expressed by their keen interest and generous applause. The first part of the program depicted "The Pageant of the Months" with the following numbers: "January", a typical winter scene with several gay young people making a snow man and singing "Jingle Bells"; Mr. Fred Parker, soloist; "February", Valentine scene and the song "Let Me Call You Sweetheart"; soloist, Mrs. Ivan Darach; "March", Irish Scene with Mrs. Russel McKay singing "Irish Lullaby" supported by two Irish colleens, Mrs. Bruce McLeod and Miss Barbara Forbes; "April", Miss Geraldine McLean and Mr. Keith Moase surprised the audience by coming out to sing and apparently becoming stage struck, they turned to run off stage displaying two large posters which read "April Fool"; "May", a duet "Oh That We Two Were Maying" sung most effectively by Mrs. P.J. Kennedy and Mrs. Harold Laird; "June", a Bridal Scene with Mrs. William Cousins, the charming bride and Mr. Verdun Paynter the bridegroom, Miss Barbara Forbes, bridesmaid, and Mr. Keith Moase. The vocal number for this scene was "In The Good Old Summer Time", soloist, Mrs. P.J. Kennedy; "September", a home scene with everyone working to the tune of "Everyone Works But Father", soloist, Mr. Roscoe Walker; "October", Thanksgiving Scene and the entire cast singing the thanksgiving song, "We Gather Together"; "November", Hunting Scene with Mr. Wilfred Taylor as soloist singing "Do You Ken John Peel"; "December", "Silent Night, Holy Night" by the cast.

Mrs. Perry, popular elocutionist of Summerside then favored the audience with a "Love Story" and responded to an encore in her usual pleasing manner. The next number on the program was a one act comedy "Blest Be The Tie That Binds". This was very well presented by the following cast: Mrs. Molly Watson played by Mrs. Joseph Woodside; Mrs. Liza Pearson — Mrs. Alphonse Connell; Mrs. Rutledge — Mrs. Fred Parker; Mrs. Tompkins — Mrs. Russel McKay; Miss Allie Trimble — Mrs. P.J. Kennedy. The final part of the program was "The Gay Nineties Revue" featuring the songs of yesteryear, including "Long Long Ago", "Billy Boy", "Alice Blue Gown", "Oh What Can The Matter Be", "The Old Spinning Wheel", "Carolina Moon", "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming", "Flow Gently Sweet Afton". Following is the cast: Daisy Kennedy, Mamie McKay, Mabel McKenzie, George McLeod, Dorothy McKenzie, Mabel Simpson, Irene Connell, Barbara Forbes, Marion Picketts, Phyllis Court, Ethel Inglis, Babe Cousins, Frances Wells, Eisie Laird, Amelia McLeod, Emily Whitehead, Anna Darrach, Roscoe Walker, Russel McKay, Rev. Lewis M. Murray, Everett Donald, Fred Parker, Harry Brown, Wilfred Taylor, Harold Laird and Parmenas Phillips. Pianists, Mrs. John Walker and Rev. L.M. Murray. The gay pastel colors of the ladies gowns, colored lights and flowers contrasting with the dark suits of the gentlemen made an attractive setting for those old favorites so pleasingly rendered. The cast were assisted in the various numbers by Keith Moase, Jimmy Clark, Myrna Cousins and Kenneth Blakely. This fine concert group are receiving well earned congratulations on the excellence of their performance. — K.

TRAVERS-HARDY NUPTIALS

A pretty fall wedding was solemnized at Christ Church, Kildare Capes, on October 29th, 1947, at three o'clock in the afternoon when Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Travers, of Kildare Capes, and John Wesley Hardy, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hardy of Alberton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. J. W. Now, B.A., L.Th., was the officiating clergyman.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. John McIntosh, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She was attired in slip-length gown of corded rayon with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and brief puffed sleeves. Her finger 'tip' was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore long white mittens and carried a bouquet of red snapdragon, sweet peas and maiden hair fern. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Miss Elizabeth Hardy, sister of the groom, who was bridesmaid, wore a gown of Empire blue sheer with full bishop's sleeves and matching veil and gloves. Her bouquet was yellow chrysanthemums and pink snapdragon. Mr. Reginald Travers, brother of the bride, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Clayton Travers and Mr. Perley Hardy.

During the signing of the register Mr. Roy Phillips of Tyne Valley sang "I'll Walk Beside You". His accompanist was Miss Beth Clarke. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride where a delicious buffet supper was served in the attractively decorated dining room. The table was centred by two tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom. Mrs. John McIntosh and Mrs. Daniel Getson poured and the girl friends of the bride served. For going away the bride wore a cocoa brown gabardine suit with yellow and brown accessories and a camel cloth top coat. Following a brief honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Hardy will reside in Alberton.

ROMANCE OF THE WEST

Enhanced by Cinecolor photography, "Romance of the West," starring singing Eddie Dean, which opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday, presents a quantity of eye and ear entertainment with a plentiful supply of action to please fans of the great outdoor form of entertainment. PRC's new star, Dean, appears to even better advantage than in his original top flight appearance, "Song of Old Wyoming," combining a beautiful voice with a virility that should soon earn him many thousands of followers of the vigorous type of drama. "Romance of the West," an original story by capable Frances Kavanaugh, tells an action packed tale of the days of the Indian lands where renegade whites, seeking to obtain possession of the silver studded land of Chief Eagle Feather's tribe, commit murders, massacres and stage holdups, throwing the blame on the peaceful Indians to have the redskins run out of the territory. Dean, as an honest Indian agent, enlists the support of honest pioneers to combat the outlaws and the result is an hour or more of suspense and action, photographed in beautiful color, that will delight the movie goer. Dean sings four songs in the picture and these alone are worth the price of admission. The numbers are "Indian Dawn," by Zamerick; "Ridin' the Trail to Dreamland," by Sam Franklia; "Love Song of the Waterfall," by Bob Nolan, Bernard Barnes and Carle
