L. O. L. BANQUET.—The members of Prince Arthur L. O. L. held their annual banquet in their lodge room at Crapaud on Tuesday, March 27th. The commodious hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion, the Union Jack being very much in evidence. Mr. J. Vernon Moore, W. M. of the Lodge ably filled the position of chairman, and in opening gave an encouraging report of the progress of the L. O. A. in that progressive village. An excellent and well-rendered programme, in which Miss Winifred Wadman, Mr. Fred McDonald, Mr. E. Simmonds took a prominent part, following short speeches were delivered by Mr. Chas. E. McDuff and Mr. Isaac Beer. Bro. Crisp Moore, past country master, was then conducted to the front of the platform, and presented with a handsome past master's jewel, accompanied with a suitable address read by Deputy Master Bro. Thos. Cobb. Bro. Moore, taken completely by surprise, replied in a neat little speech, in which he thanked the brethren for their unexpected gift, and declared that it would make stronger the already strong ties that bound him to the association. About eighty members and invited friends then partook of a repast prepared by the ladies of Crapaud in their well-known excellent style, after which the following toasts were drunk in clear cold water: Bro. Thos. Cobb, acting toast master. The King, God Save the King (orator); The Empire, responded to by Mr. Isaac Beer; the Dominion, Mr. Chas. E. McDuff; the Island Home, Mr. E. Simmonds; the L. O. A., Mr. S. McQuarrie. After singing God Save our Splendid Men and God Save the King, all went home delighted with the evening's entertainment.

SERVICE TODAY.—Good Friday service in St. James Church this morning at 11 o'clock.

NORTH RIVER.—Concert in the Hall on Monday, April 9th, 7.30. If wet first fine night. 7027-4-5M3L.

ENLISTS WITH CYCLING CORPS.—Daniel Matheson has enlisted with the Cyclist platoon and will leave to join his unit the first of the week. Mr. Matheson has been for some time in the employ of H. C. Balken and Company, and made many friends while in Sydney. Prior to leaving for overseas he will visit his home in P. E. Island.—Sydney Daily Post. Mr. Matheson is a son of Mr. William Matheson, Valleyfield, and enlisted on March 26th.

HELPFUL SERVICES.—Rev. J. S. MacKay has closed a two weeks' evangelistic campaign at the Appin Road. God's power was manifest in the services, and many were led to know Jesus. Some men who were not inside of a church for years were converted. On the last night of the meetings, a young people's society of Christian Endeavour was organized with 27 active members. The people of the Appin Road are very grateful to God for what he has done for them, and they are looking forward to even better things.

A TRIBUTE.—In a sketch of the Presbyterian congregation of New Carlisle, Quebec, on March 31st, Rev. Dr. Dickie gives this item: On 22nd of Oct. 1913, Rev. Wm. McLeod, who had been laboring in Sheet Harbor, was inducted. On November 24th, 1914, he demitted the charge. A brief ministry but an exceedingly intense and strenuous one. He was greatly beloved by the people, and still lives in their hearts. He is now making full proof of his ministry at Dundas and Annandale, P. E. I.

PATRIOTIC SOCIETY OF BRAD-ALBANE.—This society is certainly working. On March 28th they shipped 32 pairs of socks which makes 295 pairs. They have knit and shipped overseas since Nov. 1916, besides dozens of night shirts, towels, handkerchiefs and numerous other articles of comfort for the gallant boys who are fighting for their country. They have also adopted a prisoner in Germany and hope they will be able to continue the good work until the end of the war. Much credit is due Mrs. Hall for the success of the society as she entertains the members every Thursday afternoon where they spin, knit, sew and discuss business while lunch is always served before dismissing.

TOURNAMENT FINISHED.—The fifth annual series of match games of Charlottetown Chess Club members for the Ross enchanted Trophy terminated Wednesday evening. Mr. T. B. Woodman with the highest score ever made in these interesting contests, holds the Trophy for a year. Dr. A. C. Lundie second, and Dr. Alex. Ross third. All the players have improved and the quality of chess, much superior than in former years. Two suggestions are now before the committee to decide. A match game between smokers and non-smokers which will shortly be played, and a two game series to be played between the five members who have won the Ross Trophy once, for a special prize. Both these events should prove very interesting among lovers of Chess.

CONCERT AT GRAND RIVER.—In last week's account of the St. Patrick's Concert at Grand River, the names of some who contributed very successfully to the program were omitted. Among the numbers which received most applause were the choice selections on organ, violins and guitar ably rendered by Mrs. Venantius Morrison, Messrs. J. J. and J. D. McLellan and P. Cosgrove, Wellington. That sweet, soul-inspiring song, "A Little Bit of Heaven" so full of rhythm and melody sung by Mr. A. G. Gaudet, Wellington, called forth applause both loud and long. The audience was also greatly favored with recitations, "Curfew Must Not Ring Tonight" by Miss A. MacLellan, and "Asleep at the Switch," by Miss P. Gillis. The accompanists whose names were omitted, were, Miss E. Conroy and Mr. A. Gaudet, Wellington, Miss M. Phillips, Tyne Valley, Mrs. V. Morrison, Mrs. L. MacDonald and Miss M. MacDonald, Grand River.

ATTENTION Mr Stockman

We are at the close of Winter—you animals have been closely housed and on dry feed. They may eat well—but do not seem to turn their food to good account.

It is up to you to supply the tonics and blood purifiers, which your stock would receive if they were on pasture.

Dr. Croken's Condition Powder is just the article. This Powder has been used and endorsed by all the leading horsemen and stock-raisers in the province.
