The many friends of Dr. Gordon T. Alley, City, will be interested to know that he has arrived in Chill, South America, where he has accepted a very responsible position in the practice of his profession. The doctor expects to be away from Charlottetown for at least two years.

The many friends of Dr Kelly, City, who has been quite ill for the past few weeks will regret to learn that it is necessary for him to go to New York for surgical treatment for mastoid disease. Mrs Kelly will accompany him. All his friends will be pleased to see him returned renewed in health and restored to his former vigor. Mr and Mrs Kelly leave by the Earl Grey this morning.

John N. McKinnon, Providence, R. I. was among the passengers yesterday by the S. S. Earl Grey, in response to a telegram announcing the death of his father, John McKinnon of Murray Harbor. Mr McKinnon received the telegram at Providence last Tuesday at one o'clock noon and arrived in this city a few minutes past 10 yesterday morning. This is certainly making good time considering time of year.

The MacKinnon Drug Co. is certainly up-to-date. They had special for their trade yesterday. Boxes of chocolates in beautiful green boxes with a rich colored British ribbon around the cover, and a picture in gold frame thereon, being the pleasing countenance of a handsome Irish maiden. The cover was tied to the box with a neat green ribbon and the entire combination was certainly attractive.

It is necessary that all news, letters to Editor, etc, sent to The Guardian for publication, be accompanied by a signature and address, the handwriting of which some member of the staff is familiar, as well as sufficient postage for a reply or return of the manuscript if not published, should this be desired. The Guardian takes no responsibility whatever for the publication or return of any matter forwarded to individual members of its staff.

Yesterday was an ideal St Patrick's day, the weather being all that could be desired. The parade of the Irish National Societies was witnessed by large crowds. Shortly before ten o'clock the Benevolent Irish Society and the Ancient Order of Hibernians accompanied by the Fourth Regiment and the Citizen's Bands marched from their respective halls from the lower part of Queen Street turning up Richmond to St Dunstan's Cathedral where Mass was celebrated and an excellent sermon for the occasion was preached by Rev. Maurice McDonald.

The funeral of the late Robert Hogg, City, took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, Brighton Lodge, to St Peter's Cathedral thence to the Anglican Cemetery where interment was made. Rev. Canon Simpson officiated at the church and grave. The remains of the deceased were followed by a large concourse of fellow citizens and in addition to the innumerable and beautiful floral tributes testified to the high esteem in which the late gentleman was held. The following were the pall bearers: Charles Lyons, W. S. Stewart, Donald Nicholson, H. W. Vinnicombe, George M. Moore, Theophilus Moore. The mourners included the customs officials and staff of New Wonderland.

Will your suit be ready to wear Easter?

YOU WILL HAVE IT—ALL READY TO wear if you take advantage of the service of this splendid suit department of ours.

Never such a splendid showing of new suits since we have been in business—never such variety, and never so smart—so attractive and so "just right in every respect."

The suit you buy from us will be right in cut and finish—right in style—right in price.

7.75, 10.75, 15.00, 16.50 and so on up to 36.50 each.

Monarch Broadcloth

The sort you'll finally buy

YOU MAY USE ALL SORTS OF broadcloths for a while—but if you want the very best you will finally use Monarch.

Monarch is the broadcloth that is full 54 inches wide. Not 52 or 53 or 51—but 54 inches wide always.

Monarch is the cloth of perfect weight, of rich coloring, of silklike smoothness. Monarch is the cloth that will never rough up. Monarch is the cloth of perfect "hang" and draping quality. Monarch is the cloth that sells for 1.75 net, and is the best value for the money that can be found anywhere.

There are no cloths for the price as good as Monarch, buy the real thing at.....1.75

Hawes Hats

The Smartest Shapes for Spring and Summer Now Ready

If you want a silk hat, soft hat, or Derby, we are equally ready to your meet demands and you'll find every one better for the prices than you can equal, try as you may.

HAWES HATS, a hat you cannot match for style and quality anywhere for less than 5.00, in all the new spring styles..... $3.00

CHRISTY'S HATS. This hat we have been selling for the past thirty years, if there was any better made we would have it, but there is not that's why we still sell them. Come in and see the new spring styles 1.00, 1.50 and up.

Unexcelled Clothing for Men

We are gradually converting the wearers of custom made clothing to our way of thinking. When you want a suit you want it quickly, but want it to be correct in every detail, suits that prove the wearers good taste, that show your figure at its best, suits of refined character, splendidly made, smart and prim, with shapeliness that stays—such is $10.00 and $15.00 clothing.

One of our customers remarked when buying a suit the other day "Will I ever wear custom made clothing again?—Not as long as I can get as good as this for about half what the tailor charges"—that tells the story.

See our swell suits and spring overcoats. Suits $6 up to $25, Overcoats $5 up to $25.

Smart Things in Men's Furnishings

The man, who wants the latest thing in a shirt—the right thing in a tie—smart gloves or hosiery, will be sure to find what he's looking for here... and find it moderately priced too. The spring styles are ready and handsome. Come and see them.

Twenty Million Mark is Passed

For the first time in the history of life insurance in Canada the twenty million dollar mark of policies issued in one year has been passed. That the Sun Life has done this with largely increased profits and a reduced ratio of expense, makes pleasant reading for its army of policy holders.
